It was difficult to believe at the outset that the School Children's Weed Competitions, inaugurated this year by the St. John Exhibition Association, would be anything like so enthusiastically taken up as it has been by both teachers and scholars. Scarcely had the announcement of these competitions been made than entries poured in from all parts of New Brunswick; and now the collections have begun to arrive. The great taste with which these are got up cannot fail to convey a strong impression of the interest bestowed upon the competitions by the children. Dr. James Fletcher, Dominion Entomologist and Botanist, will be one of the judges.

A service of a unique character took place in the First Baptist church in Moncton on Sunday evening. It was a union service of the Baptist and Free Baptist churches, participated in by both pastors and both congregations. At the close the two pastors jointly administered the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, being the first time, it is said, this sacrament has been administered jointly by the two bodies in Canada. There was a large congregation at the service. Rev. Mr. Hutchinson took an active part in advocating union at the recent convention in Truro.

The Natural History Department of the St. John Exhibition,--17th to 24th September,--will be one of exceptional interest, and upon which a very special effort has been made, with the enthusiastic co-operation of naturalists and collectors throughout the Province. The result will be probably the finest and most complete collection of animals, birds, insects, fish, native woods, plants, minerals, etc., etc. ever brought together in these parts.

From an educational standpoint such exhibits are not only valuable, but interesting, particularly to school teachers and their scholars, in these days when Nature Study forms so important an item in our educational system. Each of the exhibits will be carefully and distinctly labeled.

September Wedding.

CHESTER, N. S., SEPT. 5TH.—Today St. Stephen's Episcopal Church was the scene of a very pretty event, when Rev. A. M. Bert, united in matrimony, Miss Lottie Jean Mills, of Chester, and Mr. E. W. Abbott, of the C. P. R. Tel. Staff, Montreal.

The church, which was filled by relatives and friends of the contracting parties, was prettily decorated. The bride was attired in a most becoming costume of champagne Crepe de chene, with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of roses and carnations.

The women of the place are determined that the law shall be rigidly enforced.

We know of a beautiful town, much nearer than Berwick, Pa., where white epithets and vulgarity in the streets prevail at times, which could very well enact a law, as has Berwick. The loafers on the street corners use such language quite frequently. The practice is a mean, low vice and every person of character dispises it. We hope Berwick's efforts may be crowned with such success that other towns may emulate it and follow its example.
