sected that his pen it was which, within the walls of Kilmainham, indicted that terrible "no rent manifesto," whose issue carried dismay and terror into the castle camp. Considered as a piece of composition alone, no one can read it even now without being gladdened at heart with its sabre-flashing sentences, and if the farmers had only the grit to act upon it, it is not Mallow, but Ireland, that would now be in our hands. Still we cannot go back upon that, and Mr. O'Brien is to the fore sgain to take the consequences of his fearless action in another direction. Personally he is a man of much learning, wide experience and proved courage, and uniting a stern nationalist spirit with a kindly modesty and gentle bearing. His return to Parliament would be halled by many a political comrade both as a personal pleasure and a public gain. When one thinks of the Eag-lish instruments at the castle having to procedute a man like this, in order to bolster ap their wretched system, it is such persons and not their victims we feel inclined to pity. The degradation of having to imprison every high-minded man in the country, for none ethers will incur personal risk to denounce the wrong and injustice that are perpetrated upon the common people under the name of law in Ireland, would be enough to excite any honest official against the system. That the souls of Spencer or Trevelyan do not revolt at the work they are sent over to do proves either a woelul ignorance or a wilful blind-ness. Slave-driving in the South before the war was a respectable "" vlean-handed occupation compared with the work to which the English rulers of Ireland lend themselves. That underlings could be got for a salary to do dirty work is intelligible enough, but that noblemen and gentlemen of wealth and sta-tion should make themselves THE TOOLS OF OPPRESSION AND CHICANE shows a perversion of moral sense, of which only Englishmen in Ireland seem capable. The latest Castle device is characteristic. Not content with seizing and prosecuting hostlic papers and editors, they are now subsidizing, a la Birch (who attacked the '48 men), all the purchaseable rags of the country to abuse the popular leaders. Several of these, which a few months ago were tottering to bankruptcy, are now in so flourishing a condition that their proprietors can afford to circulate them broadcast free of postage and subscription, not only in this country but in America and Australia. The fact that a man always receives with suspicion "the gifts of the Greeke," does not seem to induce the Gov. ernment to believe that the secret service money is thrown away in giving such papers a free circulation. The expectation is that when an Irishman in America receives them he will think he has been favored by some friend at home, who, having become "regenerate" by such teaching himsell, wants to open the eyes of deluded foreign supporters of the Land League cause. Such sheets have no fear of a libel action, as no one would advertise them by notice. When, however, slanders are published by actionable individuals like Lady Florence Dixle, who are afraid of lawsuits, she adopts the dodge of writing in ink as notes to her printed pamphlets, what she dere not attach her name to. Thus, the mystified reader who comes across the startling announcement that "the Land League funds have been used to clear the agitators," would be illuminated by an ink-ed-in asterisk with the foot-nots "Mr. Parnell," and be does not care to make public new. He was parhaps reminded of the command against false witnessing when the announcement was made this month that Mr. Parnell's make parhabet reminded of the command that $4.85.

Just now it will keep, for it would take mree than the Land League in and more than the power of the asps of the British Government either to repay Mr.

Parnell or injure his character. SUPPRESSION OF INITH-AMERICAN PAPERS. Not content with seizing native national papers, and running down our throats their own poisonous prints, the British Government have now so completely "clotured" the entire Irish American press in the post office that it New York, stating that there was another is quite a rarity for one of them to get past claimant to the distinction of having been the cordon sanitaire. I used to see The Republic, one of the assassins of Lord Frederick Caventhe Pilot, the Irish Nation, the Irish World, dish and Under-decretary Burke in Prients and last, not least, bold Congressmen Finerty's | Park, Dublin, in May last, has created quite rattling Chicago Citizen, which I always read an excitement. The sensational newsvenders with inward satisfaction, but these piping times are past, and only a Canadian paper struggles through. The humbug of it is, that while John Poyntz, Earl Spencer, extends himself solemnly over two preclamations inhibiting the Irish World, and ordering all and sundry to selze it wherever found, he neither allows that paper nor any other out of his post office, so that he might as well spare himself his pains and his proclamations. From this, however, I take It that my friend Pairick has diligent readers in Dublin Castle, and that he still keeps banging away.-T. M. HEALY in Boston Republic

COAL IN THE NORTHWEST.

OTTAWA, Jan. 11.—Prof. George M. Dawson' of the Geological Survey of Canada, has published a report rendered to the George ment on the geology of the Bow and Belly River Districts, Northwest Territory. With special reference to the coal deposits. The region examined forms the southwestern angle of the Northwest Territory, and is drained by the Bow and Belly Rivers and their tributaries, though a portion of it lies in the Missouri Basin, and is drained by the Milk River. A portion of the Rocky Mountains was also explored, but the Kootenni Paes, the Crow's Nest Paes, and the eastern por tion of the Bow River Pass were the districts particularly examined. In the Bow and Belly River regions Prof. Dawson states that there is an occurrence of workable ceal seams at several different horizons and he proved the continuity of some of them over great areas, such as will guarantee an abundant supply of fuel in this district. This is of importance in a country covering great areas almost entirely destitute of wood. The quality of some of the fuel is such as to render it suitable for transport to a distance, and it is doubtless on this bed of coalbearing rocks, in the yleinty of the mountains, that the railways of the Northwest will depend chiefly for their supplies. The quantity of coal proved to exist is very great. Approximate est COAL IN THE NORTHWEST. that the railways of the Northwest will depend chiefly for their supplies. The quantity of coal proved to exist is very great. Approximate estimates of the quantity underlying a square mile of country in several localities have been made with the following results: Main seam in vicinity of coal banks, Belly River, coal underlying one square mile, 5,560,600 tons; Grassy Island. Bow River, continuation of Belly River main seam, coal underlying one square mile, over 5,00,000 tons; Horse Shoe Bend, Bow River, coal underlying one square mile, 4,900 000 tons; Blackfoot Crossing, workable coal in seam exposed on Bow River, underlying one square mile, 9,000 000 tons.

THE PHENIX PARK TRAGEOX MAN IN HOLLY NEW YORK, CONFER-B4 TO HAT-ING COMMITTED THE CRIME. MOCHESTER, N. Y., Jan. 9 .- The man, Patrick O'Reilly, alias Hugh O'Dannel, who has confessed to be one of the participators in the Propola Park murders says :-

"I landed in New York on May 22nd. 1882, from the steamer "California," and stopped for a time at 817 East 60th street I came here from Glargow, Scotland, and registered on board the ship as Patrick Macdonald. Peter Turney and James Macdonald wore two of the three parties who helped me in the murder of Mr. Burke and Lord Frederick Cavendish at Dublin in the Phonix Park, near the Secretary's Lodge. We were in a cab and there were four of us. I do not know who the fourth man was There were twelve men stationed in the Park to assist us in case we needed help. We were drawn by lot from the Fenlan organization in Dublin, in rear of Patrick street. The deed was done by daggers, and done very quickly. Lord F. Cavendish was struck first. Mr. Burke turned and said, "Oh, you villaine!" Mr. Barke wore white gloves. Lord F. Cavendish wore no glover. We all got back into the cab and drove back to the streets, where we all separated and went each by himself. I saw the two men I before mentioned as being with me in the murder, in New York. We followed Mr. Barke and Lord F. Cavendish down from the office to near the Manalon House. Lord F. Cavendish was ahead. Mr. Burke overtook him. A lieutenant at the gate said as we passed out," "You used those men pretty rough." My age was twenty-eight on April 19th, 1870. I snipped from Liverpool by the steamer "England," of the National Line, for New York. I was working in Chicago and Philadelphia till the fall of 1876, when I shipped to Liverpool by the steamer "Egypt" from New York city. From Liverpool I went to Derry, in the North of Ireland, and remained there about two and a half years. From there I went to Templemore, Tipperary County, where I stayed until the time of the assussination. I had work on the new chapel built by Priest Nes bitt. I was in Dublin about three days before we were drawn I make the a week starement before J. B. Fuller, Justice of the Peace, this 17th day of November, 1882

O'Donnell worked some time in the quarries at Holly under the name of Partick O'Reilly. He stuck to the above story until he began to realize the likelihood of its leading him to the gallows. Then he denied it, claiming entire ignorance of everythingeven of the confession—and saying he was a lunatic. This morning, however, he showed his knowledge of it by emphatically denying it to a reporter before the matter was mentioned to him.

NEW YORK, Jan. 10 .- There is strong evidence that a portion of O'Donnell's narrative about the murder of Lord Cavendish and Mr. Burke, which relates to his arrival and movements here, are untrue. The steamship "California" was not plying between Europe and this country during May, 1882. It is asserted that no man answering his description was at the house where he pretends to have stayed in May. Gallagher, President of the Board of the Central Parnell Land Lesgue, says :- " There is no truth in the alleged confession of O'Donnell. A member of the Fenian Brotherhood, who is in a position to know whereuf he speaks, told me the crime was not committed by any member of that organization." Dr. Burke, brother of the murdered man, also says there is no reliance to be placed on the statement of O'Donnell. ROCHESTER, Jan. 10 .- Justice Faller who British Consul in New York and received descriptions of the men reen in the cab, some of whom resembled O'Donnell in some respects but not in others. He had no means of determining the truth or falsity of the statements made by O Donnell, but he thought be should not be let go under the circumstances. On Monday night he said he suculd send a copy of the confession to the British Consul at once.

London, Jan. 10 .- The publication in the evening papers here to day of a despatch from are making the most of it in their unearthly howlings, and the offices of the Echo, Globe and Evening Standard are besleged in expectancy of further particulars. There are none, however, torthcoming, and nothing is known save the bare fact that a confession has been made and the name of the self-confessed murderer-which commonly enough is stated differently in all three papers, the changes being rung on "O'Reilly," "O'Kelly" and "Riley.' The despatch had been received at Downing strect; but there was no one there to give authoritative expression of opinion on the subject At Scotland Yard the Detective Department was pretty outspoken in disbelief. Chief Inspector Williamson regarded it as another Wesigate crave. From Dablin I learn that the Castle authorities have cabled for the fullest information not that they have any faith in the new revelation, but that they deem it meet not to disregard any incident in relation to the murder.

ANOTHER HOTEL FIRE.

THE PLANTERS' HOTEL, ST. LOUIS, HURST-LOSS

OF FOUR LIVES.

OF FOUR LIVES.

St. Louis, Jan. 14.—The Planters' Hotel, one of the largest in the city, took fire this morning at five o'clock, and burned so rapidly that four persons lost their lives. The greatest confusion prevailed when the clarm was given. Nearly all the guests escaped in their night clothes. The weather was intensely cold and the firemen were greatly hindered.

Latte—The fire broke out in the kitchen, occupying the block on Fourth street, and extended to the pantry, store room and servants' quarters. These were all in a building detached from the hotel which was uninjured. One of the servants was suffocated, one burned and two have broken limbs. Great excitement prevailed among the guests of the hotel, most of whom left the house, but returned.

The upper floors of the building where the fire occurred were occupied by seventy five servants. The fire started close to a narrow stairway, and was carried to the roof by the draught, cutting off escape by that means and forming a barricade which prevented those sleeplug in the south half of the building from reaching another stairway at the north ena. Hence these unfortunates were almost smothered by the smoke, and were compelled to climb out on a frame structure sbutting over the alley, and thence to jump or lower themselves by a pulley rigged for hotsting supplies. One man was seen to start down the stairway before the fire reached the third floor, and an hour later his crisped corpse was found near the foot of the stairs. Another employe was found dead on a smoking mattress his bed. The female help all escaped by the north end stairway, save one, who broke her ankle jumping to the fornitum warerecoms of Biock & Taylor, causing damage to the amount of $20,000.

TRUE WITHER OFFICE. Tuesday, Jan. 16, 1883. In the money market commercial paper is discounted at 7 to 71, as to the nature of the security and amount. Call and short dated loans are obtainable at 6½ to 7½ per cent. Sterling Exchange is firmer at 85 for bankers' 60 day bills, and 8 over the counter. Demand bills are 9 to 81, and currency in New York at # to # prem.

The stock market was dull and decidedly weaker to-day, and Bank of Montreel sold down 1 per cent, closing at noon at 2013 to 202. Northwest Land Company, of which the Duke of Manchester is chairman, sold down to 40s, with 40s 6d bid at noon. Bichelieu was heavy at 64 to 643. There are a few operators who disbelieve the story that additional steamboats will be put on the Lower St. Lawrence, as the traffic at present certainly does not admit of it. These think that Richelieu stock is a purchase and they would advise the C. P. B. or any new steamboat company to buy up the Richelieu company at its present low valuation of 65 per cent rather than make a heavy outlay on ex. pensive steel steamers, some of which after all might stick in the rapids and get "smashed" on their first trip, and even if they did escape would only secure a small proportion of freight and passengers with sixteen well tried steamers of the Richelieu company opposition. We have slready stated that steel steamers are building in England for the lake services connecting the Pacific railway depots on Lake Eupertor, and this has no doubt originated the opposition steamboat story.

COMMERCIAL. WEEKLY REVIEW - WHOLESALE MARKETS.

The situation has not brightened nor has trade been disturbed by any serious failures during the week just at a close. Two hardware houses have been in trouble at Quebec, which is not surprising, considering the deplorable state in which the hardware and from trade has been for some time on both sides of the ocean. Promissory notes lately falling due were met fairly well, at least we heard of no very serious complaining. The money market has been irregular and no one pretends to foretell its future just now. The Canadian Pacific has been negotiating for $50,000,000 increase of capital in New York, Paris and Amsterdam and advices are expected every day stating that the company has been successful. This itself would have an important bearing on the money market.

GROCEBIES .- The demand for fruit has exhibited some improvement, but other lines of wholesale groceries are quie:. Sales of about 2,000 boxes Valencias have just transpired on p. t. We know of one round lots however being placed at 7%c, and quotations range from 7gc to 7gc. The New York market is stronger, and it would cost 7gc to lay down Valencias here from that Malaga fruit is also firm. Currents are in better demand with a sale reported of a round lot of Provincials at 64c, smaller lots at 64c to 64c. In other kinds there is no chauge. Sugar remains quiet, Montreal granulated being still quoted at 870 to 90, and yellow at 640 to 840 as to quality. Raw sugar is dull. Molasses are unchanged at 50c to 51c for Barbadoes and 49c to 50e for Porto Rico. Syrups are still quoted at 52} to 65c as to quality. It seems that the monotonous duliness in ten is difficu't to break, the only transaction reported to us below that of an invoice for medium Japans at 27 je. Ooftee, spices and nuts show no change. BOOTS AND BHOES .- The steffs in the factories are not in the best of trim, owing to the number of apprentices, but still considerable business is being done, and old orders are being executed as rapidly as possible. One house has received orders from Manitoba amounting to $60,000. It is thought that about 25 per cent of the old hands will not be required, owing to the fresh help recently engaged. We quote prices firm, as follows:

SADLIER'S

CATHOLIC DIRECTORY & ALMANAC

FOR 1883.

We are compelled this year to advance the price of our Annual Directory and Almanac to $1.50. In view of the facts, no one, we are convinced, will deem this advance uncalled For twenty years we have issued the work at the price of $1.0, but from a volume of 330 pages in 1864, it has becomed in 1842 one or 856 pages, more than doubling the amount of matter.

The wonderful growth of Catholicity in this country, and wherever our language is spoken, the creation of new dioceses, erection of new churches and institutions, render the preparation of the work one of great magnitude.

Reports are obtained directly from all the Arcubishops and Bishops in the United States, the British Provinces, England, Ireland and Soctland.

Sociand.

Nothing is reprinted from previous volumes or from the Irish or English directories; the reports are all obtained especially for this work. Paper Cover, $1.50.
