A NEW WORK, BY MRS. SADLIER.

JUST PUBLISHED, "THE BLAKES AND FLANI-GANS." A Tale illustrative of Irish Life in the United States. By Mrs. J. Sadlier, Author of "Willy Burker," New Lights; or, Life in Galway," "Alice Riordan," &c., &c. 12no., 400 pages, with a fine Engraving; muslin, 3s 9d; guilt edge, 5s 74d.

Although this Work has only been published a few weeks, the first edition of Two Thousand copies have already been sold. The Catholic press have been unanimous in praise of the Work. We select the following extracts from many notices:-

"In its permanent and corrected form, we wish "The Blakes and Flanigans" a place in every household, and we could not wish an Irish household a better guide, or a more accurate social chart, of the dangers and templations with which they especially have to combat in this state of society."

Auction Cell. -American Celt.

"We earnestly hope it may find a place in every Catholic nousehold, and that it may be carefully read by every Catholic father and mother in the Province."—True Witness.

"We are indebted to the publishers for a copy of this Work, which, like all Mrs. Sadlier's writings, can be read with interest and profit."—Haltimore Catholic Mirror.

68 Mrs. Sadlier has been the successful authoress of several pleasing stories published heretofore, and, we have no doubt, that the Work the Sadliers have just published will add to her reputation."—N. Y. Freeman's Journal.

"Independent, however, of the principle which it incul-eates, the story is interesting and well-told, and is of a nature to please persons of all creeds and countries. Like all other Works of the Sadliers, the typographical execution is splendid."-Toronto Mirror.

"We can assert that it is one of the most useful books of the day, and the most pertinent to the ciscumstances in which we are now placed with regard to religious education."—
Toronto Catholic Citizen.

"The accomplished Authoress has put the Catholics of America under a strong obligation by this most excellent Work, the best ever written by her. We wish it to be wide spread."—Buffalo Catholic Sentinel.

"The mile is well written and graphically told, and maintains the high position Mrs. Sadlier has already attained in the world of letters."—Montreal Pilot. NEW EDITIONS.

The REST and CHEAPEST CATECHISM for Schools and Families published, is the

"DOCTRINAL AND SPIRITUAL CATECHISM."

By the Rev. Pere Collot, Doctor of the Sorbonne. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Sadlier. For the use of the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

Brothers of the Christian Schools.

This is considered by competent judges as the most complete, and at the same time, the most concise Catechism of the Christian Religion and of Scripture History that has yet been offered to the public. It is admirably adapted for adults requiring instruction as well as for children. The answers are all so condensed that they are easily committed to memory; and there is not a single point connected with religion, either of doctrine discipline, or ceremonial, that is, not fully given to the condense of either of doctrine, discipline, or ceremonial, that is not fully enner of doctrine, disaptine, or ceremonal, that is not fully explained.

We know that this work requires only to be known to seque for it a very wide circulation. In order to place the work within the reach of every person, we have determined to put it at the following prices. 12mo., 440 pages, half bound, 1s 10½d; muslin, 2s 6d; to schools and colleges, we will not them at £6 5s per hundred. will put them at £6 5s per hundred.

GREAT SUCCESS OF THE POPULAR CATHOLIC LIBRARY.

. The Six Volumes of the Library published, are the most interesting as well as the most useful Catholic Books yet issued from the American Press.

THE FIFTH EDITION-I. VOL.

FABIOLA; or, The Church of the Catacombs. By His Eminence Cardinal Wiseman. 12mo. of 400 pages; cloth, extra, 3s 9d; gilt, 5s.

The Press of Europe and America are unanimous in praise of this work. We give a few extracts below:— "Eminently popular and attractive in its character, 'Fabiola' is in many respects one of the most remarkable works in the whole range of Modern Fiction. The reader will recognised at once those characteristics which have ever sufficed to identify one illustrious pen."—Dullin Review.

"Worthy to stand among the highest in this kind of literature."-Catholic Standard.

"Were we to speak of 'Fabiola' in the strong terms our feelings would prompt, we should be deemed extravagant by those who have not read it. It is a most charming book, a truly popular work, and alike pleasing to the scholar and general reader."—Brownson's Review.

"We would not deprive our readers of the pleasure that is in store for them from the perusal of 'Fabiola;' we will therefore refrain from any further extracts from this truly fascinating work. We know, in fact, no book which has, of late years, issued from the press, so worthy of the attention of the Catholic reader as 'Fabiola.' It is a most charming Catholic story, most exquisitely told."—True Wieness.

The following notice of the Work is from Brownson's Review for October, 1855:-

"The style in which this volume is presented to the public does great honor to the publishers. The engravings are well executed and selected from the best models. Like all Mrs. executed and selected from the best models. Like all Mrs. Sadliers' translations, it is carefully and correctly translated. One can read it without having the thought of its being a translation continually before the mind. The Abbe Barthe's Meditations on the Litany of Loretto, also translated by Mrs. Sadlier, greatly enhance the value of this volume. We most heartily commend it to all those who wish to possess the most valuable Life of the Blessed Virgin which has appeared in this country."
