Cum propter inscrutabilia Dei Judicia, sanguinolentum, obstinatumque, magis quam visum unquam fuerit, Bellum, cum Populorum, & Provinciarum ruinâ, passa fuerit Europa, quin ad illius ignem extingendum ullum humaanum medium sufficerit, usque in praesens tempus, quo Divina Pietatis Gratia manifestantur Signa, & positiva Dispositiones recuperandi Pacem & Quietem, tantoper ab omni Orbe Christiano desideratas, sed a nobis principaliter ob ea quæ respectivè passa fuerint Dominia Nostra. DO N Philip, by the Grace of God, King of Castille, Leon, Aragon, and both Sicilies, Jerusalem, Navarre, Granada, Toledo, Valancia, Galicia, Majorca, Seville, Sardinia, Cordova, Corsica, Murcia, Jaen, the Algarves, Algezira, Gibraltar, the Canaries, the East and West Indies, the Islands and Continent of the Ocean, Archduke of Austria, Duke of Burgundy, Brabant, and Milan, Count of Apsburg, Flanders, Tirol, and Barcelona, Lord of Biscay and Molina, &c. Whereas Europe has, through the unsearchable Judgments of God, suffered a more bloody and obstinate War than ever yet was seen, to the Ruin of the People and Provinces, the Rage of which no Humane Means have been able to Extinguish, till this present time, when, by the Grace of the Divine Goodness, manifest Signs have been given of a certain Disposition to restore Peace and Quiet so much desired by the whole Christian World, but more especially by us, for the sake of what our Dominions have respectively suffered. And whereas Plenipotentiaries have been named by some of the Principal Powers Dominios.
