An Evening Out with Roger Doris

Another year has almost come to an end, and all that is remaining is the big New Year's Eve celebrations tonight.

It has been a pretty good year as far as the food and beverage industry is concerned.

There have been many new places opened throughout the year, with only one that I know of closing down. Many of the established restaurants and steak houses added entertainment during the year, which helped increase their business.

There were also many places that underwent extensive renovations this past year.

In 1976 this area can be even more proud of the fact that here are some of the finest dining and entertainment spots in all of Canada.

There is no other area that has so many fine dining places and such a wide variety of entertainment available.

Incidentally, if you have not made plans for the big celebrations for tonight, there are still a few spots with space available.

There will be considerable celebrating and drinking tonight, but please if you should be one of those, don't
