Ottawa, 17th December, 1912.

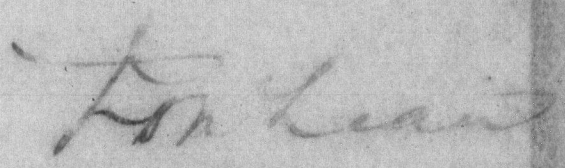

Sir,

There are being forwarded to you by parcel post 12 white quilts. Kindly report when they have been received.

You will also be supplied through the Winnipeg Warehouse with twelve more white quilts.

Arrangements have been made for the supply of 12 pairs double white blankets and 150 grey blankets. You will be advised later when shipment is made.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
