Ottawa, December 21, 1914.

Dr. C. A. McDougall,
Indian Agent,
Seven Island,

may assist Indian family of eight persons to extent necessary in order to keep them from want, taking their fur in return which you should retain until further orders. Similar cases may be dealt with in the same manner. Expense must be kept as low as possible as funds limited but Department does not want the Indians to suffer.
