

Q. Did they know you?

A. I don't know, sir.

Q. Do you think, or do you have the slightest idea, that these officers or N.C.O.s. knew you were in the army?

A. No, sir.

Q. They didn't know you perfectly?

A. No, sir.

Q. You have no reason to believe these officers and N.C.O.s. recognized you as a soldier or absentee?

A. No, sir.

Q. Will you let me see your "I" Card, please?

A. Yes, sir. (Accused shows "I" Card to the Prosecutor)

Q. Thank you, Altenhofen. Now, did anyone tell you that the police were looking for you?

A. No, sir.

Q. You were not aware of the fact that they were looking for you?

A. No, sir.

Q. Have you had any sickness since being in the army?

A. Just the back of my legs, sir.

Q. Ever excused parades?

A. Just had stomach trouble one day.

Q. This new home you built, is it paid for?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. How much have you invested in it so far?

A. I couldn't say for sure?

Q. Give me a rough idea?

A. About four or five hundred dollars counting the lots.

Q. What are the lots worth?

A. About 20 dollars apiece.

Q. After the Provost arrested you at Forest Lawn, did they take you back to your home before taking you back to A 16?

A. I asked them if I could finish the load and deliver it where the cow was and take the truck home and come back. They said yes.

Q. They permitted you to do this?

A. Yes, sir.
