

- Q. As a matter of fact, I think perhaps Flegg gave the evidence?
- A. No; Flegg and McCoy and Oke all gave evidence.
- Q. Oh, McCoy was there too, was he?
- A. Yes, sir, I believe he was.
- Q. And what was the nature of the evidence that was given?
- A. Well, the evidence indicated that Lynch had taken the cigarettes away from Oke, or had stolen them out of his pocket, I believe.
- Q. Where?
- A. Well, I couldn't say that now, sir.
- Q. When?
- A. That also I wouldn't say for sure, sir.
- Q. And I think possibly you were conducting the investigation?
- A. That is true, sir.
- Q. And what finding was made?
- A. Lynch was guilty of the theft, sir.
- Q. And was any punishment awarded?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. By who?
- A. By me.
- Q. Was any punishment administered?
- A. Yes, sir.
- Q. By who?
- A. By me.
- Q. What was done then?
- A. The people concerned as witnesses were dismissed and Sgt. Harvey then spoke to Lynch regarding his conduct, telling him to buck up a bit and leave these things alone. Lynch admitted to Sgt. Harvey then he didn't care what he did to him he would never stop him from stealing.
- Q. And what happened then?
- A. Nothing more that I can remember, sir.
- Q. I would suggest to you that then Sgt. Harvey struck Lynch.
- A. Your suggestion is wrong, sir.
- Q. You are quite sure about that?
- A. Positive, sir.
