

- Q.78 What number?
- A.78 161 Brookside.
- Q.79 Go on?
- A.79 Then, Sir, I waited for a while and was down to the Airforce several times after that and they told me as soon as they wanted me they would call me. I was just going to say about the coal shortage in Toronto - people were getting sick and I went back to the same job.
- Q.80 With the same employer?
- A.80 I have my own trucks.
- Q.81 Did you haul coal for the same people you hauled it before?
- A.81 Just for a little while, Sir.
- Q.82 You didn't hear from the Airforce did you?
- A.82 No, Sir.
- Q.83 And what did you think, that you were not in the army any more?
- A.83 I didn't know what to think. The way they told me down there and nobody bothered me on the street, and I was well known on that street.
- Q.84 Did you know you were doing wrong?
- A.84 No, Sir, I didn't, Sir.
- Q.85 You kept your uniform?
- A.85 Yes, Sir.
- Q.86 Didn't you know that those things had to be accounted for?
- A.86 Well, Sir, I expected when I got my Airforce call everything would be straightened up then.
- Q.87 You are married?
- A.87 Yes, Sir.
- Q.88 Have you any children?
- A.88 Yes, Sir.
