

death are believed to go to, and is any of them eternal and unchangeable?

6. Is communication from one world to another possible? If so, how can a person in the dream world communicate with his friends in the waking world and vice versa?

7. If, as some contend, the waking world is as unreal as the dream world and we know of the unreality of the former only when we wake up into a higher state of illumination (just as we know of the nature of dream on awakening into this physical world) it may be asked: Why this, so-called higher state of illumination also is not a dream in relation to a second higher state and this in relation to a third one and so on ad infinitum?

8. Is it possible for a dreamer to remain cognizant, during his dream state, of the fact that he is dreaming? If so, what are the means to acquire this power?

9. Will a dream cease or continue if the dreamer becomes aware of its nature during the dream state?

10. How far is it possible to stop, alter or create one's own dreams as one wishes? What are the means to do it?

11. To what extent is it possible to be cognizant of one's own dreamless sleep state, while sleeping?

12. What is the state of consciousness of a person after the so-called death of his body, viz., does
