

aged 75 years, and beside him Mrs. Donohoe, recalls the old tavern on the original Garrison road (now obliterated), just behind Edmund Gendron's residence, Church St. Beside the monument of the Bradley family, lying side by side, are the marble slabs of their progenitors, Thos. Bradley, the grandfather who died in 1873, aged 83 years, and Margaret his life partner, aged 78, with numerous descendants having their records on the monument. These were all transferred from the old cemetery.

Of the many additions to the new cemetery, we note that of Wm. Baxter, who died May 9th, 1885, aged about 81 years, who will be remembered as one of the old-time teachers in the Public School for many years. The earliest was M. Quiminera who for some depredation made a thrilling escape to the region of Collingwood in a birch-bark canoe. This was in 1840 when the school was kept in a log house near the site of Wynne's store, but was later removed to a small log house near the present site of the Public School where it continued for many years until the latter was built. The monument to Rev. Philibert Ray who died in 1887, aged 53 years, claims our notice. He was a native of Switzerland and was installed as R.C. Chaplain to the Reformatory, retaining the position but a few months when he passed away thus early. The next to claim our interest is that of Hypolite Brissette, who died in 1885, aged 103 years. He crossed the Rocky Mountains on foot and passed through some thrilling adventures in the service of the Hudson Bay Co. Beside him is his life partner, Archange la Hirondelle, a daughter of a Cree chief, born at Little Slave Lake and died at the age of 85 years, July 2nd, 1891. Capt. William Moore Kelly, who died July 20th, 1896, aged 86 years, is well remembered as the first Warden of the Reformatory, appointed in 1860 through Sir Henry Smith and Mr. Mainnahan of Kingston. He was born in the county of Mayo, Ireland. The Archbishop of Tuam was his uncle. Resting beside him is his wife Mary Matilda, born in the West Indies, died in 1901, aged 87 years. During the first year of Mr. Kelly's incumbency the "Reformatory" was visited by Dr. Wolfred Nelson, the one-time banished Lower Canadian rebel, as Inspector, and Hon. D. A. McDonald, the latter reported as having lost a valuable gold watch near the old dock. Thos. McCrosson, who died April 4th, 1905, aged 79 years, was the well-known successor of Capt. Kelly and the last Warden of the Institution while it was known as the "Ontario Reformatory for Boys." He was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, and was formerly editor of
