

SAM. RACINE

Manufacturier de Tabacs. Rue De Lanaudière. — De Lanaudière Street.

Tobacco Factory.

sent d'une grande popularité dans Joliette, et grâce à leur habileté et à leur énergie, ils ont réussi à donner à leur maison, une importance toute particulière et à transiger de brillantes affaires.

La maison Robitaille & Fontaine représente des compagnies d'assurances bien connues, sur la vie, le feu, les accidents, la maladie, la garantie, etc., etc. Ces compagnies sont: contre le feu: la North British & Mercantile, la Phoenix of London; la Continental, la London Mutual, la Dominion Fire. En garantie: la Employer's Liability Insurance Co. of North America et la Northern Fidelity. Sur la vie et contre les accidents: la Manufacturers' Accidents, Fidelity & Casualty Co. of New York.

A building of 100 x 75 feet was erected (which this year is to be doubled in size) and the manufacture of a new process converter steel castings, enameled and unenameled, in weight from  $\frac{1}{4}$  to 30,000 lbs., as well as the manufacture of magnesia and chrome steel castings was entered into. At present, 120 people are employed, to whom about \$1000.00 in wages are paid weekly. With the erection of the new addition, the number of employees will be at least doubled.

The product is sold to railroad companies, and large manufacturers, including in their list of more than 300 customers, such organizations as the C. P. R., and G. T. R. The industry has work ahead for over a year.