Questions and Answers.
Miscellaneous.Owner of Screen Doors.

When buying a house do the blinds, screens and storm-doors go with the house as part of the same deal? Neither party mentioned the above articles at the time of sale.

F. J. W.

Ans.—The things mentioned are not considered in the deal unless specifically mentioned.

Vendor, Purchaser and Telephone.

A sold his farm to B, and A owned the telephone in the house. Neither A nor B mentioned anything about the telephone in the deal till after the deal was closed. Then B agreed to give A $15.00 for the 'phone and A to throw in a pair of new batteries which A did. A has witness to this agreement. Now B refuses to pay for the 'phone and says that it belongs to the house and should go with the farm.

Gossip.The Watt-Gardhouse Sale.

At Salem Stock Farm, Elora, Ont., on Thursday, June 28, seventy head of Shorthorns, a draft of 35 head from each of the herds of J. M. Gardhouse, Weston, and J. A. Watt, Elora, will come before the breeders of United States and Canada, to be sold in what promises to be one of the most noted public sales of pure-bred cattle ever held in the Dominion. It might be well to add that this sale is only the second of a series of annual events that are scheduled to take place at Salem Farm in June of each year. To the 1916 sale Mr.
Watt and Mr. Gardhouse were the largest contributors. This year their lots make up the entire sale, and judging from the superior quality of every animal catalogued, all of which are backed by pedigrees that are full of Duthie, Cruickshank, Anderson and Marr breeding, even the high averages of 1916 are doomed to appear small if the buyers are this year at all willing to pay for breeding and quality such as have never been surpassed in any sale-ring on this side of the border. In this sale even much of the best of the season's past shows have been listed.
Britannia, the yearling heifer, junior champion of the 1916 Canadian circuit and first at the International in the strongest class of the show, sells as a senior yearling. Escana Blossom, first as a calf and also as a yearling at both Toronto and London, sells at two years, and is in calf to Newton Grand Champion (imp.) the noted Marr-Clara bull bred by Gordon.
Duchess of Gloster 79th, a sweet, thick two-year-old heifer out of Duchess of Gloster 78th and by Canada's undefeated champion sire, Gainford Marquis (imp.), is also listed. She is bred back to "Gain-ford." These are only a few of the great heifers that with twenty other cows, selling with calves at foot, make up as strong an aggregation of breeding females as any International sale-ring has seen in years. A number of the mature cows referred to are also bred again to Gain-ford Marquis, and these are every one sure to prove leading features of the sale.
So much for females, and when it comes down to bulls consigned, another "Gain-ford" product furnishes the sensation, in the great young sire, Marquis of Lancaster.
He is now just turned two, and aside from having the great bull Gainford Marquis for his sire and a Glenbrook Sultan cow for his dam, he is easily one of the outstanding young bulls of the year. It is to be hoped that he may remain in Canada.
A number of the best heifers listed have been bred to this young sire, which should surely add many dollars to each of their values. Of the other four bulls catalogued one is a "Gainford." He is a September calf out of an exceptionally good breeding Matchless cow, and he has sufficient Shorthorn character that will surely gain him prominence before another year.
The same can be said of the 18 months' bull, Count of Selma by Oakland Star and out of the noted state fair champion, Countess Selma. Full particulars regarding this sale may be had by writing for catalogue at once to J. A. Watt, Salem Stock Farm, Elora, Ont. Kindly mention the Advocate.
