GRAHAM'S PAIN ERADICATOR supplies a want long felt by all, whether on sea or on land, it is so efficacious in so many of the diseases flesh is heir to. For Rheumatism we know of nothing better. We have used it in our own family for this disease and recommended it to others, and it cured in every case. One lady was so bad with it she couldn't put her clothes on, and after a few applications of the Pain Eradicator she was completely cured. It is equally efficacious in Neuralgia and other acute pain.—Calas (Me.) Advertiser JOHN JACKSON, Esq., Editor.

DIED.

On April 28th 1876, after a lingering and pain ful affliction, William E. Brown, youngest son of William and Hannah Brown, of Port De Grave Newfoundland. Deeply lamented; reposing on the merits of crucified Lord. "I the chief of sinners am but Jesus died for me." Aged 24 years.

At Amherst, 23rd ult., after a period of illness, Anna, widow of Elisha Fuller, passed away to her everlasting home. She had for many years been an adherent of the Methodist Church, opening her house for religious service when occasion required.
Our sister reached the ripe age of 85 years, leaving
that she has passed to a more blissful state.

At Wentworth, Hants County, May 23rd, Annie, wife of Mr. Oliver Baxter, aged 76 years. Also at same time and place, June 30th, Mr. Oliver Baxter, aged 36 years.—This aged couple died in the faith and hope of the Gospel—"Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock of corn cometh in in his season."—Job v. 26.

MY DEAR FRIEND,

I have always, until of late, been a bitter enemy to all patent or occult preparations, in the shape of medicines for the sick. But, in consequence of an unluckly fall from the deck of a schooner bound to Boston, down into the cabin, by which, displacing two of the short ribs on the right side the liver was so seriously injured, that for twenty-four hours death was expected every moment. In a few days, a bloat was discovered in the ankles, pervading in a short time the whole body. every medicine that the medical art could devise, not excepting a thorough course of mercury, in order that the liver might be brought once more to perform its proper functions, but did not succeed until I had taken a big jug full of your LIFE OF MAN BITTERS, which you kindly sent me; after I had taken a few draughts, I began to improve.

I am not a drunkard, but was always fond of my bitters, most particularly when prepared with good brandy; this induced me, although an unbeliever, to partake of liberal draughts, in the morning, 11 o'clock, and at 4 p.m., of your bitters, and before I thought, was cheated into a cure, so far as was possible.

I am truly surprised that such a valuable, and at the same time, safe compound, should not meet with the liberal patronage that it in my opinion, so just-

> I am yours most respectfully, WILEIAM KENNEDY, M.D.

BOOK AGENTS WANTED CHRISTIAN ANTIQUTIES

Dr. William Smith & Professor Cheelham

An unabridged and exact reprint of the English edition, from a Duplicate set of plates purchased by us from the English publisher. The work is a continuation of Dr. Smiths "Dictionary of the Rible." which has become a household book throughout the land. Beginning where the Bible Dictionary code it anhances the first Right Conturies of the Chistian Era, or the period from the apostics down to that of Charlemagne. The subjects treated are, "the organization of the church, its officers, legislation, discipline and revenues; the social life of christians their worships and ceremonial, with the accompanying music, vestments, instruments, vessels and insignia; their sacred places their architecture and other forms of art; their symbolism; their sacred days and seasons, the graves of Catacombs in which they were laid to rest." The first volume now ready extends from A to J. The second which will speedily follow, completing the work, will contain about the same number of pages and engravings.

This is the only complete edition published in this country authorised by Dr. Smith.

Agents are warned against convesting for a mutilisted and abridged reprint; containing only about essenges. Our second volume will be copyrighted in this country, thus preventing any other parties from republishing the same or furnishing it to Agenta or Subscribers. Active mea and women wishing to engage in some lucrative employment will find it to their advantage to communicate with us. To such we can offer very illiess forms and exclusive territory.
