THE UPLIFT IN COTTON HANDLING.

It is notorious that cotton has been the most slovenly handled of all of the agricultural products of the United States. The farmers often leave it exposed to be damaged by rain and infiltrated by mud. Even when offered for shipment it is sometimes in this condition. All too frequently it is loosely baled and inadequately marked. It has been said that upon receipt at foreign ports bales of cotton look more like rag-bags. For many years the railways have sought to have the cotton shippers exercise greater care, but the railways in the United States have no such autocratic power as those of Germany, where no shipment is accepted unless it is packed and marked in accordance with rigid specifications. Government experts have estimated that of the cotton crop of the United States there is between the gin and the spinner a wastage and damage amounting to $50,000,000 per annum.

The Japanese several years ago ruled that they would not accept cotton that was not clean, securely packed and plainly marked. They get what they want. The possibility of losing the custom of a nation makes a difference. The trans-Atlantic lines, who in recent years have been mulcted in heavy damages because of the poor condition in which cotton has been delivered to foreign consignees have now taken action that will re-enforce the efforts of the railways. From September 1, 1912 to March 31, 1913, on the average one bale of cotton out of every six offered at the

A SESSION OF THE COURT OF KING'S BENCH (Crown side), holding criminal jurisdiction in and for the DISTRICT OF MONTREAL, will be held in the COURT HOUSE, in the CITY OF MONTREAL, on MONDAY, the SECOND DAY of JUNE NEXT, at TEN o'clock in the forenoon.

In consequence, I give PUBLIC NOTICE to all who intend to proceed against any prisoners now in the Common Gaol of the said District, and all others, that they must be present then and there, and I also give notice to all Justices of the Peace Coroners and Peace Officers, in and for the said District, that they must be present then and there, with their Record, Rolls, Indictments, and other Documents, in order to do those things which belong to them in their respective capacities.
