

CHURCH NOTES FOR BUSY MEN

RUMAN CATHOLIC

The Lord's Day Alliance is responsible for the statement that the Bishop of Syracuse, New York, has publicly announced he would withhold the honors of Christian burial from such as should die as the result of alcoholism incurred while violating the day, and says: "Many who call themselves Christians, and some who call themselves Catholics, start out on Saturday nights and Sunday mornings to spend the Sunday at some pleasure resort, places of very questionable amusements, such as dancing, midway, and drinking places. All these forget the observance of the commandment, 'Keep hold the Sabbath day holy.' While the Sabbath is made for man, it is made for God. Hence the first duty on the Sabbath is to give glory to God according to prescribed forms of divine service, then sanctified rest and innocent recreation."

Dr. George Matheson Cullen was elected to the position of Bishop at a recent meeting of the Edinburgh Town Council. He has the distinction of being the first member of the Catholic church to be elected to the magistracy of Edinburgh since the Reformation.

Preparations are being made for the eleventh Congress in Montreal. A vast number of Catholics from all Canada will be there, not less than many thousands.

On Tuesday, 8th, St. John Knill was inaugurated to succeed Sir George Truscott as lord mayor of London. Sir John Knill is a Catholic, so that big-city cannot flourish very much in London.

GENERAL

The Anglican diocese of Honan, China, has a population of 45,000,000. It will likely be placed under the jurisdiction of the Canadian church, of which the Rev. W. C. White has been consecrated the first bishop.

The Archbishop of Canterbury presided at a great gathering in Albert Hall, London, to protest against the cruelties in the Congo. Beside him sat the Rev. Dr. Clifford, a distinguished Baptist minister, and the Rev. Dr. British Nonconformity. The immense building was packed. Archdeacon, speaking of the largest Protestant congregation in Halifax, and for the first time since a strong force on the side of the Anglican Christianity. A new organ has been installed, and the interior repainted and redecorated.

The Bishop of London at a recent meeting of the Wesleyan Conference of Saskatchewan, speaking of the loss their church had sustained in the country districts of Ontario, says as an illustration, that his own brother's family had attended service in a little Wesleyan chapel because there was no other church within eight or nine miles. They must not make the same mistake in the West. Mr. Lloyd stated he required 30 catechists, and that they were not going to make the mistake feared by the bishop.

The Presbyterian church in North India has added to its baptized membership during the past four years, 1,100 to its roll, and the work shows no signs of abatement.

His Majesty has just conferred the honor of knighthood on George H. Polard, M. D., M. P., of Southampton, and Robert Laidlaw of Glasgow. The two gentlemen thus honored are members of the Wesleyan Methodist church.

The Anglican Bishop of Quebec, Dr. Odum, is seriously ill, and prayers for his recovery were offered in the different churches last Sabbath. He is 70 years of age. Rev. Mr. Dicker, formerly of this city, is his son-in-law.

The Laymen's Missionary Movement affected the Toronto churches: Four Methodist churches made the following advances: $3,000 to $15,000; $7,000 to $10,000; $4,000 to $12,000; $5,000 to $10,000. SATURDAY SERMONETTE

ALL WRONG WE THOUGHT; ALL RIGHT WE FOUND OUT. A cold raw windy morning. A drive of three miles to the station. He borrowed a cap to wear to the station. Forgetting to take the hat he intended to wear to the city, Kooker himself for his forgetfulness. Thought was a guy he would look and feel wearing a fur cap in the rain.

A blizzard in the city, hats flying, owners scurrying after them looking and feeling foolish, wishing their hats were home and their wives wearing, not chasing, their caps. Envy for the man with the cap. Cap man smiling and hugging himself because he forgot his hat.

That is our story. We thought that all these things were against us. We found out the opposite were for our good. We thought life would not be worth living if we did not get the fat and man we wanted. We met her when she was fat and forty, or this and fifty. Her nose and chin were shrunken. She had acquired little man in tow, he meekly following with grip and parcels and children—her (?) children. We stepped and were glad and hugged ourselves like "the man with the cap" and said

C. P. R. Liner Takes 1,500 and Gramplan Sails With 600—One of the Striking Features of the Crowd is Their Dress

In recent years a feature of the Christmas season in St. John has been the rush of settlers from the West to Great Britain in order that they may spend Christmas at their former homes in the old land. Fifteen hundred westerners bound for England with various of Christmas cheer before them sailed from this port on Friday on the Empress of Britain, of the C. P. R. line. Yesterday the Allan liner Gramplan sailed away about six hundred more. These people will return to their western homes at various times before Christmas. The great majority of them have "made good" in Canada, and are delighted with their new home. No doubt there are both optimists and pessimists among the emigrants of that city. In some instances there were plenty of "made good" in Canada, and are delighted with their new home. No doubt there are both optimists and pessimists among the emigrants of that city. Steamer Ellen Vannin Goes Down With All on Board

LONDON, Dec. 4.—All hope of the survival of the passengers of the late of the Man steamer Ellen Vannin, was abandoned today when portions of the steamer's upper works and small boats were picked up on the banks of the Mersey. The Ellen Vannin carried twelve passengers and a crew of twenty-one.

The little craft was the mascot of the late of the Man Steam Packet Company's fleet and her lack was proverbial. For forty-nine years she had ridden the seas and has never lost a passenger. She sailed on her last voyage from Ramsey, Isle of Man, for Liverpool, at midnight on Thursday and ran into the hurricane early yesterday. It is believed that she was driven on to the Mersey Bar and foundered suddenly.

The loss of the steamer Thistlemoor off Appleton in Barnstable Bay was also confirmed today, but some of the crew of thirty were saved. The steamer Armdale, which was in the vicinity at the time of the disaster, picked up ten men, one of whom later died from exposure. The Armdale also picked up many other vessels, and was damaged and put back to Barry, Wales. The gale continued over the Irish Channel with unabated severity throughout the night.

BRIDGEPORT IS NOW UNDER MARTIAL LAW

And Rioting of Strikers Has Ceased. Moral and Financial Support for Western Swabians.

BRIDGEPORT, Ont., Dec. 5.—The situation at the Astma-Standard Plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company, where for three days rioting has been intermittent between strikers and guards, was quiet today. The town during the night and early today, taking possession of the tin plate mills and adjacent property in the name of the State of Ohio and placing the town under martial law.

Fifty thousand eighteenthers thronged the streets carrying here from outside the town. Vice-presidents Larkin and Lewis of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Plate Workers, representing a greater portion of the striking men, arrived today and were escorted to State Board of Arbitration. No statement was made concerning the outcome of the conference.

It is believed that at least 1,000 of the troops will leave for their homes tomorrow, for the situation is now extremely quiet and more rioting highly improbable.

"THE GAD OF THE CABINET"

LLOYD GEORGE'S NEW TITLE London Observer Violently Attacks the Liberal Party—The Gathering in Trafalgar Square.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The Observer, which throughout has been the protagonist of the rejection of the Budget by the House of Lords, and whose violent articles on tariff reform has earned the title of "The Gad of the Cabinet," today attacked Lloyd George, whom it calls "The Wild Man of the Conservatives," and practically unprintable terms.

The Observer devoted its leader this morning to an attack upon Chancellor Lloyd George, whom it calls "The Gad of the Cabinet." It says that the other front-rank politicians fight with their fists, but Lloyd George fights with his nails.

These are merely samples, which are not rivaled even by the statements of the time of the Boer War, and afford a fair indication of the really right which he is now going to.

The Conservative Sunday Times, describing the scene in Trafalgar Square, says that there is no use attempting to delude the demonstration. The fifty speakers included a dozen of the members of the House of Commons. The speaker was arranged at short notice, and the paper was accordingly a most effective demonstration in recent years. The turnip emblem was tossed and it looked like a head on a pile in the twilight.

GYM INQUEST ADJOURNS UNTIL TOMORROW

Belief Grows That Man Was Killed by Stray Shot—Bangor Man Says He Had No Rifle.

PATEN, Dec. 4.—After organizing and examining three witnesses the coroner's jury, which is investigating the death of Alphonse Cyr, the young lumberman, whose body was found on a lumbering road 40 miles from here, adjourned Friday afternoon until tomorrow afternoon. Meanwhile officers will be sent to search for Cyr's rifle and additional evidence. The testimony tended to show that Cyr was killed by a stray shot. When last seen he had no rifle.

David E. McLeod, of Bangor, whose camp Cyr was handed his rifle, testified that Cyr had no rifle when he left the camp. The rifle was partially covered with snow. Cyr's watch pocket and evidently had not been disturbed. When found the envelope was partially covered with snow so that he must have been killed on or before Nov. 21. About that time a number of hunters were in the vicinity, according to the witnesses.

Dr. Ford of Milo, the medical examiner who performed the autopsy, was the concluding witness.

SAYS NO SUCH THING AS PERJURY TO A WOMAN

H. Clay Pierce Makes Novel Defense on Charge of False Swearing

AUSTIN, Tex., Dec. 4.—The question of perjury as it applies to a woman was argued almost the entire time of the court here today in the trial of H. Clay Pierce for false swearing. The question is whether a woman acting as a notary has the right to administer an oath.

A woman clerk in the service of the state administered the oath to Henry Clay Pierce when he swore his company, the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, was not in any way connected with the Standard Oil Company. It is contended by the defense that this notary, being a woman, has no legal status under the law of Texas, which recognizes neither woman's suffrage nor woman's legal standing, and consequently, Pierce has committed no crime in having her recognize anything he said.

The entire morning session was consumed by Judge Robertson for the defense in a lengthy argument to prove this contention.

MRS. FANNY SCOTT MYLES

The death of Fanny Scott Myles, wife of Andrew Myles, took place Sunday morning at 12:45. The deceased was seventy-six years of age. Death resulted from an attack of pneumonia, of only a week's duration.

Lawson of the city is a step-mother of the only surviving member of the family. The deceased was the mother of seven children, three of whom survive. They are Mrs. Myles' youngest daughter, Mrs. J. All Other Questions Thrust Into the Background

Conservatives Fail to Advance Scheme for Tariff Reform

Post Says Contest Will be Critical and Severe

LONDON, Dec. 6.—If, as has been freely said, the plan of the Conservative leaders was to force tariff reform from the front in the election campaign, and, as far as possible, thrust the question of the Lords' veto in the background, their plan has not been carried. The campaign, both in press and from the platform, is being waged with a bitterness which has not been seen in British politics in many years, and is exclusively upon the question of action of the Lords. All the election manifestos have framed demands by the Liberal, Radical, and Social parties have put the attack upon the Lords to the forefront of their all speeches on the Government side. Most significant still is the fact that the whole religious and moral atmosphere of the Liberal, Radical, and Social parties have put the attack upon the Lords to the forefront of their all speeches on the Government side. CANADIAN VICTIMIZED BY CONFIDENCE MEN

Old Trick is Played on Montreal. W. O. maker and He Loses $840—His Experience in Paris.

PARIS, Dec. 4.—A Montreal watchmaker, Emile Wald, who is on a visit to Paris, was robbed yesterday of $80 by means of the familiar confidence trick.

On the Boulevard des Capucines the Canadian met three men who had been fellow-passengers from New York. One undertook to show him the sights of the city, but before beginning their tour he asked Wald to accompany him to a cafe for refreshments. There one of the men complained that he had been robbed of $1,000 since his arrival in Paris, and suggested as a measure of precaution that the Canadian should become joint banker for the party.

The unsuspecting watchmaker, flattered by this mark of confidence, fully and cheerfully accepted the proposal. On the suggestion of his shipmates he deposited all his ready cash in an envelope. The other members of the party apparently did likewise, and then the envelopes were sealed and handed over to the keeping of the Canadian. A few minutes afterward the three confederates, under one pretext or other, had disappeared.

After waiting an hour for their return, Mr. Wald decided to investigate the contents of the envelope. It contained a piece of newspaper, and the Steinleitner verdict and nothing more.

LE PER' EARLY GETS HIMSELF LOCKED UP

Goes to Washington to Make Things Liveliest for Authorities.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.—John R. Early, the "leper," who threw seditionists of two continents into a dispute, ventured to show himself in Washington today and was promptly dropped into quarantine.

Early made no effort to escape arrest. In fact, he admitted he came to Washington to make things lively for the district authorities if they locked him up.

Early arrived in Washington last night and went to the Salvation Army Hotel, where he registered. Today he strolled around until 3 o'clock, when a newspaper man told him a health officer with a warrant was on the trail. Then he went to a police station and waited.

Dr. W. C. Fowler, chief of the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, met Early there, and the police captain read the warrant to the "leper."
