Obituary

A Sad Death
The sad death of a volunteer's child took place yesterday, when little Alfred Taylor, the infant son of Mr and Mrs. Silas Taylor, passed away at the home of his mother, 317 West Mill Street. The poor mother is receiving many notes of sympathy, for her husband has just left Valcourier with the Brantford contingent for the front.

Late W. E. Jamieson.
The death of W. E. Jamieson of Newport took place yesterday at his residence at the age of 31 years. His untimely death after a brief illness will naturally be regretted by a large number of friends. The funeral will take place to-day from the late residence to the Baptist cemetery near Newport.

Laid at Rest

Late Captain Thomas Martin.
The last chapter of a military career devoted to the service of his country was written yesterday when all that was mortal of the late Captain Thomas Martin was interred in Mount Hope Cemetery. The many friends of his life in Brantford attended the last sad ceremonies, which were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Campbell of Hamilton, and a large number of sympathetic messages were received by the bereaved.

Late Miss Jane Cook.
Many friends attended the last sad rites at the residence of the late Miss Jane Cook, when all that remained was laid low in Greenwood cemetery yesterday. Interment took place from the residence of her nephew, Andrew Cook, 88 Northumberland street. The services were conducted by the Rev. T. E. Holling in an inspiring manner. The pallbearers were Messrs. Eddy, Turnbull, Johnston, Freeborn and Vanderlip. Many expressions of condolence were received by the bereaved.

Late Mrs. Ellen Waugh.
The funeral of the late Mrs. Ellen Waugh took place yesterday. Mt. Hope cemetery was the scene of the interment and thence the cortege proceeded from the late residence, 83 Chestnut avenue, where impressive services were held by the Rev. Mr. Richards, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Bowyer. A wide range of friends were present at the last rites and numerous floral offerings testified to the respect in which the deceased was held in life.

KILLED BY ENGINE

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.-Fleetwood
H. Ward, vice-president of the Ames Holden Shoe Manufacturing Company, was this morning killed by a locomotive at Stratmore. It is thought that Mr. Ward was struck while walking from his country house to the Grand Trunk station at Stratmore.

YOUNG GIRL SHOT

DOYLESTOWN, Pa., Sept. 29.-
Florence Cape, 18 years old, a pretty girl of Buckingvale, near here, was killed by her uncle, John Cape, at her home last night. She was trying to save her mother from being shot by the uncle. Cape, who wore neither hat nor shoes, when the killing occurred, escaped to the woods, and a large party was out to-day searching for him. The girl stepped between her mother and uncle, who had quarrelled.

REFUGEES GET BRITISH RELIEF

Generous-hearted People of the Isles Make Many Offers.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)
LONDON, Sept. 29.-England has come to the relief of the stricken Belgian refugees with such spontaneous magnanimity that the refugees are compelled to decline many of the offers of shelter. The authority for this statement is Lord Gladstone, former governor-general of South Africa, who is now a leader in the committee work. Five hundred came in yesterday, and some three thousand others are scattered in lodging and boarding houses, for whose keep the Government has assumed the responsibility.

Twelve local committees are engaged in the refugee work, and additional committees are being formed in various parts of Great Britain. Up to this time offers from 15,000 persons to caps have been received, and the committee has found it necessary to issue a circular saying that the great bulk of such offers prefer to take in women and children. For a time the tide of refugees arriving in Great Britain reached as high as 4,000 a day. By means of posters depends upon eventualities in Belgium. Seventy tons of clothing and other supplies have been donated for the unfortunate.

BURGOMASTER GETS FREEDOM

Germans Locked Mayor of Brussels Up in Prison.

(By Special Wire to The Courier)
LONDON, Sept. 29.-Burgomaster Max of Brussels, who was arrested yesterday on the order of the German military governor on the charge that he had ordered the banks to refuse to pay an installment of the indemnity which was due, has been released, according to an Ostend despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. The release followed the payment to the Germans of $0,000,000 francs ($6,000,000).

The war tax levied against Brussels after the Germans had occupied the Belgian capital was said at the time to be $40,000,000.

AN ACTIVE MAYOR
BRUSSELS, Sept. 29.-The release of Burgomaster Max again gives the picturesque mayor of the captured Belgian capital a chance to serve as intermediary between his people and the Germans, a position which he has filled with extraordinary originality.

When the invaders entered this city he procured very liberal terms from them by guaranteeing good behavior on the part of his people. By means of posters printed in the dead walls of the city, M. Max conveyed orders and regular news to his people after the regular press had been suppressed and when this was forbidden he mounted the steps of the town hall every morning and read out the Belgian version of the war news, which did not always correspond with German printed reports. Burgomaster Max was put in jail from which he has just been released, over a dispute on the question of the payment of the indemnity demanded by the Germans.

Notice is hereby given that Arthur
Ernest Birdsell, of the Township of Brantford, in the County of Brant, and Province of Ontario, farmer, will apply to the Parliament of Canada, at the next session thereof, for a Bill of Divorce from his wife, Minnie Birdsell, formerly of the said Township of Brant, whose present place of residence is unknown, on the ground of adultery and desertion.

Dated at Ottawa, this 22nd day of September, A.D. 1914. PRINGLE, THOMPSON, BURGESS & COTE, Solicitors for the Applicant.

G. P. R. UNDERTAKES TO HIRE 6,000 MEN

Give Them Two Months' Work
at Current Wage Rates.

MONTREAL, Sept. 29.-Labor conditions in Canada should be considered improved by a decision of the Canadian Pacific Railway, announced yesterday, by which the operating departments of its eastern and western lines have been authorized to take on six thousand extra laborers for suitable work during the next six months. The object of this measure, it is explained by the company, is to help furnish employment before winter and relieve possible distress occasioned by emigration and dislocation of business due to the war.

LAST SAD RITES WERE IMPRESSIVE

Funeral of Sir James Whitney
at Toronto This Morning.

(By special Wire to The Courier)
TORONTO, Sept. 29.-The Province of Ontario and representative men of the Dominion of Canada paid their last tribute to Sir James Whitney this morning at the impressive service conducted in St. James' cathedral preparatory to the removal of the remains to the late premier's old home in Morrisburg.

At 8.45 the casket was closed and in the presence of an immense throng of friends, was borne out of the legislative chamber in the Queen's Park and conveyed to St. James' cathedral. The pall bearers, Hon. Dr. Payne, Dr. Reaume, W. J. Hanna, I. B. Lucas, W. H. Hearst, Sir Adam Beck, and Messrs. Henry, Duff and Preston. The members of the late Premier's cabinet were headed by Sir John M. Gibson, lieutenant-governor, and followed by a distinguished gathering, representing the judicial, scholastic and political life of the province. The Quebec government was represented by Sir Louis Gouin, while Hon. Robert Rogers, Hon. Frank Cochrane, Hon. W. T. White, Hon. Dr. Reid and Hon. Mr. Roche, represented the Dominion Government. A large delegation from the Conservative association marched behind the long line of carriages while thousands of people lined the route of the cortege.

At St. James' cathedral the presentation was met at the gates by Bishop Sweeney, Canon Plumtree, Provost Macklem, Canon Dixon and Canon Jarvis.

A deeply impressive service was conducted by the bishop, assisted by Canon Plumtree and Provost Macklem.

At the conclusion of the service
the remains were conveyed to the Union station where a special train was awaiting to carry the funeral party to Morrisburg.

HARVEST SUPPER AT ST. JUDES CHURCH

Spirit of Thanksgiving Pervaded
the Atmosphere of Large Gathering.

The school room of St. Jude's Anglican church was full to overflowing last night on the occasion of the harvest festival supper. It overflowed in several senses, the spirit of thanksgiving was in the atmosphere, and everyone looked happy, as indeed everyone was, from the rector to the most humble of his people.

Gathering at six o'clock, the assembly, which included many children, did full justice to the splendid supper provided. They wanted nothing.

Adjoining to the concert hall one of the finest programmes which has been the lot of St. Jude's to promote, was given and gradually the patriotic spirit crept in, until it reached its zenith when Mr. Unsworth led with the chorus of "It's a long way to Tipperary." With one accord the audience sang that popular refrain, and the enthusiasm created was upheld by the excellence of the contributions that followed.

A pianoforte trio was splendidly rendered by the Misses Storey and Miss E. Barr, while Percy Farquhar was in good voice and entertained delightfully with a song, David Cooper of Paris made a great impression with his fine clear voice, which was heard to good advantage.

The Rev. C. E. Jenkins demonstrated his mastery of the English language in a manner well appreciated when he gave Drummond's reading, "Habitant."

Miss Elsie Sann contributed to the harmony of the evening while Miss Pearson and Master Sedgewick, two of Miss Squires' junior pupils, displayed a fine grasp of elocution in their monologue and recitation work.

Addresses by the Rev. H. C. Light of St. Paul's and Rural Dean Sanderson, completed an evening of sheer good pleasure.

Walter Brant and his wife were burned to death in their home on the Marysville road, Mohawk Reserve, Dorchester.

Notice is hereby given that Arthur
Ernest Birdsell, of the Township of Brantford, in the County of Brant, and Province of Ontario, farmer, will apply to the Parliament of Canada, at the next session thereof, for a Bill of Divorce from his wife, Minnie Birdsell, formerly of the said
