MILLIONS OF WOMEN IN THE WORLD ACKNOWLEDGE THE GREAT ADVANTAGES AND SUPERIORITY OF DIAMOND DYES

For twenty-five years Diamond Dyes have been acknowledged as the standard of excellence for household dyeing in every part of the world.

Jalous competitors have labored hard to find their crude preparations on the public, and in their work of deception have imitated as best as they dared, the style of packaging used by the manufacturers of Diamond Dyes.

The manufacturers of adulterated dyes have deceived many people in the past. However, one trial of the common dye-tuffs was enough for those who bought them. The deceptions sent home dyes back to the ever reliable Diamond Dyes, so easy to use and always successful.

The new century comes in with Diamond Dyes leading the whole world, and the demand increases every day. While many crude dyes have died with the old century, there is still need to exercise care in buying, as some merchants have still a stock of common dyes which they desire to dispose of. Home dyes who wish to save money, avoid failure, loss of goods and bitter disappointments, should insist upon getting the warranted Diamond Dyes when they ask for them.

I have a friend visiting me from Boston?

But what has that to do with the window shades?

The trees around the house are all naked, you know.

The Princess Aline Dramatized

A play has been made of Richard Harding Davis's charming story of The Princess Aline. The dramatic adaptation has been submitted to Mr. Davis who is highly enthusiastic in its praise.

He likes the people of his romance better as real men and women on the stage than as inanimate beings in a book. The Princess Aline will make her first appearance in The Ladies' Home Journal.

Governess (who had asked Bobby to make the best attempt at a map of South Africa he can until she remains—examining result)—Now, Bobby, Harold has helped you with this, hasn't he?

Governess—But, Bobby, think again. Surely he must have done some part of it?

Bobby—No. He did it all.

Punch.

"And what do you call a fool, please?"

"A fool is a man who won't see things in the same light that I do, of course." Indianapolis Journal.

The White Plague

ONE-SIXTH OF ALL DEATHS DUE TO CONSUMPTION

Its Ravages Spares No Class—Rich and Poor Alike Fall Its Victims—How This Dread Trouble May be Prevented.

Consumption has been well named the great white plague. One-sixth of all the deaths occurring in Canada annually are due to the ravages of this terrible disease. Its victims are found among all classes; rich and poor alike succumb to its insidious advance. Only a few years ago the victim of consumption was regarded as incurable, and horror-stricken friends watched the loved one day by day fade away until death came as a merciful release. Now, however, it is known that taken in its earlier stages consumption is curable, and that by a proper care of the blood—keeping it rich, red and pure—those who are preyed upon to the disease escape its ravages. Consumption is now cured among the preventable diseases, and those who are pale, frail, emaciated, or show any of the numerous symptoms of general debility should at once fortify the system by enriching and purifying the blood—thus strengthening not only the lungs, but all parts of the body.

Among those who have escaped a threatened death from consumption is Mrs. Robert McCracken of Marshville, Ont. Mrs. McCracken gives her experience that it may be of benefit to some other sufferer. She says:

A few years ago I began to experience a general weakness. My appetite was poor, I was very pale; I was troubled with shortness of breath and a smothering feeling in my chest. Besides these symptoms I became very nervous at times dizzy and faint and my hands and feet would get as cold as ice. As the trouble progressed I began to lose flesh rapidly, and in a short time was only a shadow of my former self. I had good medical treatment, but did not get relief, and as a harsh cough set in I began to fear that consumption had fastened itself upon me. This was strengthened by a knowledge that several of my ancestors had died of this terrible disease. In this rather deplorable condition I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I at once procured a supply and had not taken them long when I noted a change for the better. By the time I had taken six or eight boxes I was able to move around the house again and felt better and stronger in every way. I continued the use of the pills until I had taken a dozen boxes, when all my old-time strength and vigor had returned, and I was as well as ever. During the time I was using the pills my weight increased twenty-six pounds. Several years have since passed, and in that time not a symptom of my former trouble has made itself apparent, so that I think I am safe in saying that my cure is permanent. I believe Dr. Williams' Pink Pills saved my life, and I strongly advise ailing women to give them a trial.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a tonic and not a purgative medicine. They enrich the blood from the first dose to the last and thus bring health and strength to every organ in the body. The genuine pills are sold only in boxes with the full name, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, printed on the wrapper. If your dealer cannot supply you send direct to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., and the pills will be mailed post paid at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50.

Matter of Memory. The man who was attempting suicide was not sinking for the third time. Of course it was necessary hereupon that he recall everything in his past life in the space of one instant.

This he failed to do. "Again my accused had memory!" he hissed and waded ashore in much chagrin, which was in nowise lessened by the derisive laughter of the spectators.—Detroit Journal.

He Has New Moon Spells. The investigation made by Humane Inspector Wilson in the case of Edward Kennedy, a colored man found bound hand and foot to a stake in the rear of his father's home, 1515 Asbury street, has brought to light a strange condition.

Edward Kennedy was born an idiot. He is harmless until a new moon appears in the sky. Then his quiet nature becomes demoniacal, and he can only be controlled by being tightly bound. His new moon spells, which violence and duration during the last few years, and his father, a North Carolina negro, feared he would kill the family by the sudden change in demeanor. It was for this reason that Edward was placed in bondage.—Indianapolis Press.
