Mechanic Science Exhibition, Kentville Academy

The parents and friends to the number of about seventy inspected the work of the boys in the Mechanic Science Department, Kentville Academy on Friday afternoon, June 23rd. The work on exhibition consisted of articles made by boys in Grade V to Grade X.

Grade V is the first grade to take this work, the little articles made showed some skill already in the use of tools. Among the boys deserving mention in this grade are William Ouhit and Harold Weaver.

Grade VI had some very useful articles including carved tea-pot stands, photo stands and photo frames. The boys doing especially good work in this grade. We might mention, Malcolm McBride and Luville Steadman and Coy, Nichols.

Grade VII had many useful articles, suitable for any room in the house, picture framing and chip carving are both introduced in this grade the work included match safes, comb cases, Towel Racks, Key rack and picture frames, especially good work was done by Charles Nixon, Reginald Redden and Stewart Smith.

Grade VIII had a collection of many useful articles of joinery and polished work and including Paul Webster and Laurie Mitchell had exceptionally fine work in this Grade.

In Grade IX were found inlaid work, box making and cabinet making. The glove box, finished in chip carving done by Marjorie Harrington, sewing cabinet by Clyde Sanford; book case by Payzant Jess. All won many words of praise from the visitors.

In Grade X the last grade to take this branch of the work, a writing desk finished in oak by Edward Wamboldt attracted the attention and praise of the visitors the workmanship was fine and deserving of great praise on the boy who made it.

There has been an enrollment of 78 in this department during the year. Mr. Wood the capable instructor, who for the past four years has taught the work in this department deserves much praise for the work done in this department of school work.

Mayor A. L. Pelton and Mr. F. B. Newcombe, Chairman of School Commissioners were present and complimented the work highly.

THREE CONSERVATIVES FROM CAPE BRETON

Halifax, June 24—Election returns from Cape Breton county yesterday show the return of three Conservatives and one Liberal—J. C. Douglas, his colleague in the late house and Neil Ferguson, (Con.) and D. A. Cameron, (Lib.), making the total Conservative candidates elected thirteen. In the Federal riding in South Cape Breton and Richmond the popular Conservative majority in this election exceeds 1800, and in the whole of Cape Breton island there is a popular Conservative majority of over 700 as compared with a popular Liberal majority of over 2000 in the Federal elections of 1911.

The majority of Premier Murray in Victoria in the provincial election of 1911 was 551 and that to his colleague 423, whereas in the recent election the premier's majority is 138, and that of his colleague, 103.

The thirteen Conservative candidates elected in Nova Scotia show an increase of two over the results of 1911. In Lunenburg where one Liberal and one Conservative were elected, the figures show that Kinley (Liberal) has only six over Zwicker, (Con.) and a recount will be demanded which may change the result.

DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE TO BE NEXT GOVERNOR GENERAL.

London, June 27—Official announcement was made today that the Duke of Connaught will be succeeded as governor-general of Canada by the Duke of Devonshire.

Ottawa, June 27—The announcement of the Duke of Devonshire's appointment comes as a surprise here. It is thought that either Lord Curzon or the Earl of Derby would be appointed. It was rumored here early today that Earl Derby had been selected, but officials refused to say anything definite. The Duke of Connaught and his staff left on their western tour last night.

The announcement that the Duke of Devonshire will succeed H. R. H. The Duke of Connaught as governor general of Canada was received in Ottawa with great interest, Ottawa society being specially concerned in the name and estate of the king's representative at Rideau Hall. This interest manifested itself chiefly in a rush for Burke's Peerage, where were found the facts that his Grace of Devonshire is under fifty, is a family man and is lord of many broad acres in various parts of the United Kingdom.

The new governor-general will arrive in Canada under the usual arrangement in October, passing the outgoing governor at sea. He is described as a man of unusually pleasing personality and he comes of a house which has given to British history many important figures.

The Dominion government has not been notified officially of the Duke of Devonshire's appointment, but it is understood that the identity of the new governor has been known in official circles and that the formal notice is on the way.
