ACCUSED OF HORSE-STEALING.

Constable Jas McGregor, with Officer

Dauby, of Chatham township, for alleged horse theft at Delhi. Constable Stephen Miller, of Delhi, who held the warrants, took the accused away this morning. Danby and the horse disappeared from near Delhi at the same time. He was known to belong to this vicinity and a telephone message was sent to look him up. After some trouble Constable McGregor located his man at Kent Bridge, where he had arrived a day or so before, and arrested him. When the constable from Delhi arrived he wanted Mrs. Danby too, though how she was involved was not plain. However

Constable McGregor went out and got he and Miller-took them both away.
