"NONPAREIL"
Billiard Hall!
 SHARKEY'S BUILDING.
 OPP. OFFICERS' BARRACKS, QUEEN ST., FREDERICTON, N. B.

T. E. FOSTER,
 Proprietor
 THIS HALL has been newly fitted up and handsomely furnished, and for room, light, ventilation and neatness, compares most favorably with any Billiard Hall in the Dominion. The Billiard and Pool Tables are pronounced by players to be superior to any now in use in this Province.
 They are the BRILLIANT NOVELTY, size 4 x 9 feet.

The main object in the construction of the Billiard Novelty, and the one most noticeable, is that it embodies all the more salient or most important features that have rendered popular all the other styles of tables. The Billiard Novelty has all the advantages and good points, including the reputation of all those tables, and has rapidly taken the foremost place in the estimation of all players of Billiard and Pool Tables. The Novelty is finished and "finely fitted" in many different colors, made up from California Laurel, Pearl Ash, French Walnut, Bird's Eye Maple, Mahogany, Rose Wood, Tulip Wood and Ebony. It is supplied with the finest of Vermont Slate bed, Sinoia Cloth, and a first-class outfit of everything necessary.

20 Boys under sixteen not allowed in the Hall.
 20 Temperance drinks of all kinds, Cigars, etc.

HIS RIDE WITH A LUNATIC.
 An Insane Man Captures a Carriage and Flees from His Imaginary Enemies.

SYRACUSE, Sept. 30.—William Bunn, an employee of the Pompey House, near the eastern extremity of the city, hitched a horse to a carriage about 6 P. M. yesterday and started for a farm near the East Avenue, Driving Park. At a street corner near the edge of the city a man sprang from behind a tree, jumped into the wagon and, placing a revolver at Bunn's head, demanded the reins, which were handed to him. He lashed the horse into a run, still covering Bunn with the weapon, and threatening to shoot him if he stirred.
 The man guided the horse toward Thompson's Landing, on the Erie Canal, and thence drove to Messina Springs, which is four miles east of the city, making the distance in less than half an hour, the horse running all the way and the wagon thumping about fearfully.

From the man's actions and words, Bunn saw that he was insane. He assered that he was pursued by a band from Buffalo Bill's gang of cowboys, who were here recently, and who had demanded $10,000 of him and would kill him unless it was paid.

At Messina Springs he turned the horse toward the city, and again urged the terrified animal to a breakneck pace. At the corner of James and Lodi streets the lunatic sprang from the wagon, which passed over him. Still flourishing his revolver, he jumped up and disappeared down a side street.

Bunn drove into the city, and officers were sent out to search for the companion of his thrilling ride. They found him dragging himself about with a broken leg.
 He was recognized as William T. Denison of this city, and was taken to a hospital.
 Denison is a hard drinker, and his insanity is due to alcohol.

A Bankrupt City.
 Toronto is next door to insolvency, having exhausted all funds of the current year, and having no money to complete the laying of water mains, sewers, sidewalks and roadways which have been left this week in an unfinished state owing to the fact that there is no money left in the city treasury to pay the compensation laborers, who have all been discharged. The city is about to put in a new pumping engine to remedy the defective water pressure in case of fire, but there is no money to build the house for the new engine. Insurance Co's. threaten to raise the rates owing to the defective fire alarm system, and there is no money to put the present alarm in a better condition or to purchase a new one. The water now being served to the citizens is a mixture of lakewater and city sewage taken from the bay where sewers empty, but there is no money to build a proper sewer system.
 The whole trouble is that the City Council endeavored to meet the financial wants of the city by fixing the rate of taxation at 13 cents on the dollar. Hundreds of laborers have a poor outlook for winter, having no work and no money ahead, and will look for support from the city authorities.

The Next Lieutenant-Governor of Quebec.
 The choice of the Hon. Mr. Masson as Lieutenant-Governor of the Province of Quebec says the Chronicle, seems to be greeted with the highest satisfaction by all classes of the community. This universal satisfaction springs from the deep feeling of respect and esteem which the high character of the future Governor commands everywhere. Besides these considerations, Hon. Mr. Masson is one of the lucky people among our prominent men, whose personal fortune and whose marriage with a very distinguished lady belonging to one of the best families of Quebec will enable him not only to sus-tain the widely known reputation of General Wood for hospitality, but even to do the honors of the old historical mansion with special éclat.

The term of office of His Honor Leut-enant-Governor Robitaille expires on the 26th of October and his successor will be immediately sworn in and enter upon his duties as the chief of the Executive Council of this Province.

Adrift on the Ocean.
 (London Truth.)
 The Hon. Francis George Hay, who died last week of typhoid fever, was a man of somewhat varied experience of life. He served before the mast for three years in the Navy, and, at the time of his death, was in the service of the British-Indian Steam Navigation Company. One, at least, of his adventures is worth recording. One of the company's steamers was a few miles off Aden. Mr. Hay was in command of the watch about 4 a. m., when he fancied he noticed a boat drift by and that he heard a faint scream. He at once stopped the vessel, lowered a boat, and proceeded to search for the causeway. He was rewarded by discovering the dead body of a lady and a living child tied together in a boat, which was half full of water. The child he adopted, and she is now in the charge of his family. Oddly enough, he was never able to discover her birth or parentage, or even the name of the vessel on which she had been a passenger. This sounds like a chapter from a sensational romance; but it is true, notwithstanding.

New German Torpedo Boats.
 LONDON, Sept. 28.—The scare about the inefficiency of the English navy has led to several curious results. One is an increase of the circulation of the Pall Mall Gazette, which was the first and has been the foremost to sound the tocsin of alarm.
 Another result has been a comparison of the eminent firm of shipbuilders, John Elder & Co., with John Roach, of Philadelphia, who is believed here to have profited largely by the navy contracts in which an adequate equivalent was not given to the Government. The excitement on this question is increased by the news that comes to night from Berlin. The naval authorities of Germany have been prompt in taking the cue afforded them by the London press. They know that the English agitation foreshadows an increase of the strength of the English navy and they are taking effective measures to strengthen their own navy.
 The seventy torpedo vessels, for which an extra appropriation was granted by the last Reichstag, are being pushed to completion with all possible speed. The best ship building yards on the Baltic coast are monopolized for their construction, and it is expected that another demand will be made upon the Reichstag to defray the extra cost incurred in constructing these vessels in unusual haste.
 A few of the torpedo boats have lately been finished at Pillau and have been tested on the Frische-Haff. Half the population of Pillau turned out to witness the test, and in addition to the official representatives of the German naval office, there were hosts of visitors from Königsberg and other points in eastern Prussia. The result of the tests is reported as very satisfactory. The little vessels were shown as seaworthy under the extraordinary circumstances which they may be expected to encounter, and they also proved to be speedy. Some of them made nineteen knots an hour over a measured mile, and still greater speed was recorded in other tests. The German authorities are elated over the performance of the little fire-bugs, and Prince Bismarck is reported as saying that "others beside England can play the game of brag."

A Remarkable Case.
 The London Lancet reports a wonderful case of restoration to life of a woman who was apparently dead. She was fifty-three years old, and of a melancholy disposition. She hung herself, and when discovered, the following was the medical report of her condition: "The skin was ashy pale, the surface temperature was very low, the lips were vivid, and the eyes dilated, and insensible to the action of light there was no pulse at the wrist or temples, no definite heart beat could be detected even by the stethoscope; respiration had actually ceased, and unconsciousness was complete." Galvanism had no effect upon the muscles, but an attempt to resuscitate by the Sylvester method was successful. Ten movements a minute was performed, and in ten minutes a shower of attempted natural respiration was observed. After a couple of hours of artificial respiration the woman was able to breathe freely. Consciousness returned after eleven hours, and complete recovery followed at the end of two weeks. This shows the value of intelligent treatment in cases of strangulation. The many cases of drowning will suggest themselves in this connection, and imply that a full knowledge of the proper methods to be employed, on the part of those who have the care of the restoration of drowned person, will go a great way toward the resuscitation of victims of the water, from whom all life appears to have fled.

Chesapeake and Shannon.
 Benjamin Trefethen, who was born in New Castle, Maine, in 1799, is the last survivor of the ill-fated naval duel between the United States Frigate Chesapeake and H. M. Frigate Shannon in Boston harbor, is still living in Boston, hale and hearty, at the advanced age of 84 years. That Lawrence in his sober senses would not have risked his frigate is certain, for he was too good a sailor.
 But, unfortunately, at that time after dinner potations were frequent and strong. Trefethen was in the mess below the decks, and he repeats with a certainty that admits no denial the condition of Lawrence at the time, afterward confirmed by the steward who served the liquors at the captains' table. He, Trefethen, says that Lawrence came down to the mess and remarked, "Boys, hurry up your dinner, for you'll have blood for supper." He was bred to the sea, and afterward removed to Boston and became a resident of the north end. Many of his name became prominent citizens and merchants.—Portland Press.

A Pugnacious Parson.
 An interesting suit for damages, in which the Rev. Mr. Louck, of the church of England in Pictou, Ont., is the defendant, and one of his parishioners named Welch is the plaintiff, was heard here lately. It appears that the parties had a dispute in the street about some private matter. High words sprang up and the defendant knocked the plaintiff down. A struggle then ensued, in which the plaintiff was very severely cut about the body, arms and head, in consequence of which he was for some time confined to his house. The jury brought in a verdict assessing the reverend gentleman $25 and costs.
