

JUMPED FOR THEIR LIVES.

Residence of Railway General Manager Burned Down.

His Mother Perished in the Flames and Others Hurt.

Wife and Daughter Injured—Cook's Flying Leap.

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 13.—In a fire that destroyed the residence of Samuel Higgins, general manager of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, here early to-day, his mother, Mrs. Higgins, lost her life; his mother-in-law, Mrs. M. E. Corbin, was probably fatally hurt, and his wife, daughter Isabel, his young son and Mr. Higgins himself barely escaped death in the flames by jumping from a second storey window.

It was a result of this jump that Mrs. Corbin was fatally hurt.

Mrs. and Miss Higgins suffered broken legs, and Mr. Higgins was badly bruised. The young son, Harold, escaped without injury.

A colored cook jumped from a third storey window, landing on the roof of the veranda. As quickly as possible the injured persons were removed to a nearby residence, and medical aid summoned. The cause of the fire, it is stated, was an overheated furnace. When Mr. Higgins was awakened he rushed from his room to that of his mother, and endeavored to rouse her by pounding on the door, but owing to her deafness, he thinks she did not hear him. Mr. Higgins, groping through the smoke and flames, rushed to each room arousing all the members of the family. He had hoped that his mother was up. He tried to get back to her room, but the fire cut off his way. It was then that the rest of the family gathered at a window and jumped for their lives.

When the firemen were able to get into the room on the third floor, occupied by Mrs. Higgins, mother of Mr. Higgins, there was only a small heap of charred bones.

The loss is estimated at about $75,000. Stone's Terrace, on which the residence stood, is very high ground, and owing to poor water pressure the streams from the firemen's hose did not rise much above the first storey. The residence of Benj. Campbell, a vice-president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad, also took fire, the flames being extinguished with some difficulty.

Two of Mr. Campbell's sons, it is said, are ill with pneumonia. After the injured had been given medical attention at a neighbor's residence, they were removed to a sanitarium nearby.

BREAKING DOWN.

Thornton Hains Not So Cheerful as He Used to Be.

Juryman Knocked Off a Street Car and Badly Hurt.

Flushing, N. Y., Jan. 13.—The closing address of the defense to the jury in the trial of Thornton J. Hains was resumed to-day by John F. McIntyre, who, after speaking all day yesterday, was given until noon to-day to conclude. The throngs that yesterday filled the court room were early in their places to-day. Many were turned away. That Thornton Hains is verging upon a nervous breakdown is apparent. His face is tense and haggard and dark lines under his eyes are mute evidence of his condition. He is not the cheerful prisoner who sat by his counsel's side, chatting and smiling over the testimony early in the case. To-day he sat up in his chair and listened gloomily to the proceedings.

Mr. McIntyre, resuming his speech, declared that much of the testimony of Mrs. William Annis was false and compared the evidence given by several members of the Bayville yacht club with the testimony of Mrs. Annis. Several said that Mrs. Annis was not on the boat during the shooting and that not one of the State's witnesses had come forward to corroborate her testimony that she was there.

Mr. McIntyre, reading from the cross-examination of Mrs. Annis, said: "I put the question to her 'Were you too excited to notice anything?' and she replied, 'I was too excited to notice anything.'"

"I protest," said the District Attorney. She said "I was too excited to notice anything." "I'll read it again," said Mr. McIntyre, who, going over the record again, read the testimony of Mrs. Annis, as stated by Prosecutor Barrett.

JURYMAN HURT.

Flushing, N. Y., Jan. 13.—The opening of the trial was delayed to-day and for a time it was thought the case might have to be postponed because of an accident to Thomas Walsh, the second juror, who was knocked off a Lexington street car last night. Walsh was taken to a hospital, where two stitches were put into a scalp wound. Walsh's face was also bruised and his left eye was hurt.

A few minutes before court convened Justice Crane summoned the jury to his room, where Juror Walsh was examined by a physician. Mr. Walsh said he felt strong enough to take a seat in the jury box. The jurors then filed into the box.

Frank Reynolds, well known around this city, is wanted by the Brantford police on a charge of assaulting one of the police officers there. The Brantford police have asked the assistance of Chief Smith and his men in securing Reynolds' arrest.

TONG TRUCE.

Mysterious Warfare Among Chinese on Pacific Coast.

San Francisco, Jan. 13.—Merchants in the Chinese quarter who have Tong affiliations have their doors open to-day for the first time in several weeks. The two warring organizations, the Sue Don and the On Yiek, have signed a truce, which is to hold until February 10, or twenty days after the Chinese New Year. The war has paralyzed business and caused considerable loss to the merchants. They desire to take advantage of the holiday activity of trade.

The Tong stipulate that they will not be responsible for any individual outbreaks by their members, but state that they will not sanction any organized warfare. Several Chinese have lost their lives during the war, which has raged in every town on the Pacific coast where the Tong are represented. The origin of the dispute has never been brought out.

BOND TO BE SENT BACK.

Alleged Forger From Nashville Will be Extradited.

B. B. Bond will be extradited. This decision was given yesterday afternoon, when Mr. George S. Kerr, K. C., counsel for Bond admitted that the evidence was strong enough to have Bond taken back to Nashville, Tennessee to stand his trial, for forgery and false pretences.

But one witness, Randall Currell, cashier of the First National Bank, of Nashville, was examined. In answer to question by Mr. S. F. Washington, K. C., counsel for the State of Tennessee, Mr. Currell said he had known Bond for several years. Witness stated that Bond had done business at the First National Bank during that time. He identified a bill of lading for $1,200, which it is alleged that Bond forged, and Mr. Currell said he paid the money over to Bond.

When the bill was presented to the bank where it should have been honored, no money could be obtained. Witness identified the handwriting on the bill of lading as that of the prisoner. At the conclusion, Mr. Kerr said there was a sufficiency of evidence to warrant Bond being extradited. The bank people were willing to drop all the other charges, which were about 10 in all, and simply press the charge of forgery of the $1,200.

Judge Snider in addressing Bond, said he would make an order for extradition. The prisoner had heard the evidence, and was willing to abide by it. He stated that Bond would be detained for 15 days, during which time he could apply for a writ of habeas corpus, if he thought he had sufficient grounds.

His Honor then made out Bond's committal to the jail. He will forward the facts to the Minister of Justice who will issue the extradition warrant.

Mr. Kerr stated that Bond would not offer any further resistance, but would go back. The money that Bond brought with him to the city, amounting to about $6,000, would be taken back by Detective Jacobs, as the bank of Hains Bond received it from them under false pretences.

ROYAL BANK.

Splendid Statement Presented at the Annual Meeting.

The 39th annual statement of the Royal Bank of Canada, published in this issue, will be found of interest. It shows that this institution is in a thoroughly sound position and that notwithstanding the financial depression prevailing during the past year the volume of business and profits have been steadily maintained, deposits bearing interest increasing in that period by upwards of $4,000,000. The readily available assets represent over 50 per cent of the current liabilities, thus leaving the Royal Bank in an exceptionally strong position.

That the Royal Bank has kept the convenience of its customers steadily in view is shown by the fact that the ordinary current loans and discounts show an increase over the preceding year. Net profits, after deducting all charges and providing for bad and doubtful debts, totaled $746,775.50, which, with a balance at credit, carried forward, left $903,685.26 available for distribution. A dividend of the rate of 10 per cent, amounting to $390,000 of this, $200,000 was written off bank premises account, and $210,000 transferred to reserve fund, which has now reached $4,390,000 against a paid up capital of $3,900,000. This latter of itself discloses the conservative lines on which the Royal Bank is managed, and reflects great credit on the efficiency of the management.

RESCUING BODIES.

Bluefield, W. Va., Jan. 13.—Rescue crews worked incessantly all night at Lick Branch coal mine, the scene of yesterday's explosion, and at 10:30 o'clock to-day 26 bodies had been recovered. There is no change in the estimate of the dead, the number ranging from 85 to 100.

AUSTRIA AND ITALY BOTH SHAKEN BY EARTHQUAKE.

Citizens of Venice Rush in Alarm Into the Streets—Lombardy Feels the Shake—Milan and Florence Also Quiver.

Rome, Jan. 13.—A slight earthquake was experienced early this morning throughout Lombardy, Venetia and Tuscany. No damage was done and no one was injured, but owing to the general uneasiness resulting from the recent disastrous visitations the people for a moment were thrown into a panic.

According to the records of the observatory the centre of the disturbance was near Leimbach, Austria.

The quake was strongest in Italy at Treviso, 16 miles north of Venice.

TWO SHOCKS.

Venice, Jan. 13.—Two earthquake shocks were experienced here this morning. The people rushed out from their houses and gathered in the Place of St. Mark and other open squares. There was much excited comment and questioning, but calm in general was maintained.

No damage was done and this is thought to be due to the fact that the houses of Venice are built on piles. The people congratulated themselves on this system of construction.

MILAN SHAKEN.

Milan, Jan. 13.—An earth shock was felt here this morning, and caused considerable alarm. A number of people rushed from their houses and congregated in the Cathedral Square. There was no repetition of the quake, and calm was subsequently restored.

NO DAMAGE DONE.

Florence, Jan. 13.—Several earth shocks were recorded here this morning at intervals of two seconds. The people rushed out from their houses in considerable trepidation, fearing a repetition of the Messina and Calabria disasters. No damage was done, and as the tremblings soon ceased, calm was restored and the work of the day resumed.

FUNNY SPEECH.

Hotel Man Laughs at Taft and Directors Gown.

New York's Waldorf Must be a Busy Place.

New York, Jan. 13.—The thirtieth annual dinner of the Hotel Association, of New York, at the Waldorf last night was a record breaker for attendance, over 600 taking part in the banquet.

Chairman George C. Baldt, of the association, also proprietor of the Waldorf, presided. He showed by figures that nearly 19,000 persons, by actual count, entered the Waldorf during 18 hours in one day last April.

Simeon Ford, proprietor of the Grand Union Hotel, who was the humorist of the evening, poked fun at everything, from President-elect Taft to Directorate gowns.

"The last time I made my appearance as an orator was about a year ago at a banquet in Boston," began Mr. Ford, who is very long and lean. "Mr. Walter H. Taft also spoke. We made a fine cross-matched team. He weighed considerably more on the hoof than I, but I made up in grace what I lacked in grease. We both got on swimmingly, but I discovered that when it came to swimming Mr. Taft drew more water than I did, owing probably to the depth of his retort. Indeed, when the dinner was over I was able, owing to my light draught, to sail into my hotel quite easily, while Bill could not get across the bar. But I like big Bill. All hotelkeepers like big Bills. I voted for him and I got my friends to do so, and we elected him."

And to the woman with the Directorate gown habit, the speaker added: "But our wives and daughters. Note how limited their wardrobes are this winter. They make Salome look undressed and Mary Garden look like a union suit. See how they go shivering down the avenue reeled down to bare poles. Herebefore, when the heroine found it necessary to flag a train, she saved hundreds of lives by waving her red petticoats. This year travellers by rail will have to perish. But with all their faults, we love them still, and only hope we will have a mild winter, so they will not all freeze to death."

His Honor then made out Bond's committal to the jail. He will forward the facts to the Minister of Justice who will issue the extradition warrant.

Mr. Kerr stated that Bond would not offer any further resistance, but would go back. The money that Bond brought with him to the city, amounting to about $6,000, would be taken back by Detective Jacobs, as the bank of Hains Bond received it from them under false pretences.

RUBBER!

One Thousand Pounds of It Stolen From H. Siderski's.

Constable Bramer was patrolling his beat last night, when he found a back door at Harris Siderski's rag and metal and rubber shop, 21 Walnut street, open. As it was closed when he had tried it a couple of times earlier in the evening, he reported the matter, and an examination was made by the owner. It was found that the door had been pried open, and a bale of old rubber stolen. The bale weighed half a ton, and was worth quite a bit. The police have no clue whatever, but from the weight of the bale they think the thieves must have taken the swag away in a wagon.

RAISED $1,244.

Christmas Stamps a Good Thing For the San.

At the monthly meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Hamilton Health Association, held on Monday, the sum realized from the sale of Christmas stamps was announced. In all $1,244.40 was realized. The ladies were delighted with the result, and wish to take this opportunity to thank the merchants and citizens who so generously responded to their appeal "to stamp out the white plague."

The down-town dispensary is proving a great boon to those patients who require advice and treatment. Through the kindness of the Daughters of the Empire the dispensary is now completely furnished. At the Sanatorium all the patients are doing well, although the number is not as large as last month. Christmas was made delightful by many kind friends in the city and both staff and patients will remember the Christmas of 1908 with pleasure.

THE MAN IN OVERALLS

Any chance of the Hamilton Improvement Society coming to life again?

Could Col. Moore's autocratic bearing at the last Court of Revision have anything to do with his being pushed off the board this year? You remember the warfare that was waged at the recent sittings.

Why was Ald. Peregrine left off the Fuel Sub-Committee?

The County of Wentworth gets many a slap in the face about that porchouse. It must be getting accustomed to these dressing downs.

This laymen's movement seems to be able to solve a great many problems for the young men who connect themselves with it. No need to kill time these evenings.

When Lieut. Governor Gibson framed up his Neglected Children's Act, he never imagined that his own city would be among the last to conform to its provisions. No wonder Judge Tetznel was surprised that he had no children's shelter. Will Mr. Adam Brown have to make another pilgrimage to the City Hall?

If the Coal Oil Inlet is such a nuisance, why don't they move it down to VanWagner's Beach or somewhere?

After paying an official visit to Mr. Booker's Collegiate Institute skating rink I have no hesitation in giving it a certificate as a first class winter health resort.

We need an inspector of signs as well as of bill-boards in the city. To the artistic eye some of them are awful.

People who voted against sending Mr. Zimmerman to Ottawa as their representative now see their mistake and want to send him as a Senator. Sir Wilfrid may want to know the why of this.

This dividing the aldermen as Cataract and Hydro-Electric is just about as bad as the party plan of division.

Some of my blue ruin friends are now worrying because 1909 opened up on a Friday.

Would a temperance hotel pay in Hamilton? That is a question I would like to see demonstrated.

Were prisoners sentenced to indeterminate periods, the Government would have the time of its life with friends of the prisoners clamoring for their liberty. It's bad enough now, but it would be twenty times worse then.

Well, then, let us sell the sandwicher and use the proceeds to build a new nurses' home.

I wonder what Prof. Hutt would think about the Jolley Cut if he saw it.

Of course, the grand jury will regret to report the presence of a lot of old people confined in the jail. The judge will sympathize with it, but that's where it ends.

Would it be possible, in the annual church reports, to have the number of conversions tabulated? It would make good reading.

It's pretty hard to be out of work at this season. I hop the employers will do their best to put on as many men as possible, even if they lose a little by it.

KNOX MISSION MEN'S LEAGUE

Despite the cold weather the members of this league turned out well for the usual weekly meeting last night, when Rev. Mr. Cameron gave the first of a series of talks on his trip to the Holy Land. Mr. Cameron handled his subject splendidly, describing places of interest en route which made it a very instructive talk. The president, Chas. Havers, thanked Mr. Cameron and hoped he would continue the subject at an early date.

THIEVES BUSY.

(Special Despatch to the Times.) Montreal, Jan. 13.—While the police are raiding the houses of ill-repute, thieves are making way with the goods and chattels that these houses contain, and have even gone so far as to set fire to one house, situated at 55 City Hall avenue, on two consecutive nights. This house, which was left unattended, owing to the raid upon the lounge, and their retention in jail, was burglarized, and last evening the same house was set on fire, the blaze being discovered by a passer-by.

A $400 FIRE.

About $400 damage was done by fire to-day at noon at Charles Jenkins's stable, Burlington and James streets. The blaze was caused by a stove, used to heat the stable. Several horses were taken out safely, but some harness and rigs were burned. An ice house next door, belonging to Burke Bros., was scorched slightly.

And Will Fight to the Death to Retain Bosnia.

The New Settlement a Reverse For Russian Diplomacy.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 13.—The settlement between Austria-Hungary and Turkey of the Bosnian and Herzegovinian question is considered here as a reverse for Russian diplomacy. The press is irritated. The Foreign Office says that the accord is purely a private one, and cannot be regarded as altering the Bosnia problem, which is a European question, and can only be arranged through the assent of all the powers.

WAR FEVER IN SERBIA.

Belgrade, Serbia, Jan. 12.—The announcement that the Turkish Government had accepted the Austro-Hungary offer is a bitter disappointment to the Servian Government. The cabinet was summoned yesterday immediately after the Foreign Office had received the news. The King presided and the new situation created by the settlement between Turkey and Austro-Hungary was discussed lengthily.

The military for War ordered an additional 1,200 horses to be bought. The newspapers declare hotly that Austro-Hungary will have to exterminate the Servian people before being permitted definitely to possess Bosnia.

Well, then, let us sell the sandwicher and use the proceeds to build a new nurses' home.

A SAD DEATH. WARRANT FOR HIS ARREST.

Popular Young Girl of East End Called Suddenly.

The announcement of the death of Miss Marion Dixon, younger daughter of Mr. William Dixon, of Dixon Brothers, came as a great shock to the many friends of the family to-day. Miss Dixon was one of the most popular girls in the east end of the city, robust and happy, a typical Canadian girl. Only a few days ago she was taken sick. Diphtheria developed yesterday, and although everything possible was done, she passed away last evening. She was in her fifteenth year. The funeral took place this afternoon, and was private. Besides her parents, she leaves two brothers and one sister, all of whom have the sincere sympathy of their friends.

STRAIGHT DENIAL.

No Negotiations For Sale of Intercolonial Railway.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 13.—Hon. George Graham, Minister of Railways, this morning gave a flat denial to the report that arrangements had been made with MacKenzie & Mann for the sale or lease of the Intercolonial to them by the Government. Mr. Graham said this morning: "Not only has there been no arrangement for the sale of the Intercolonial to MacKenzie & Mann, or anyone else, but the Government has had no negotiations with Messrs. MacKenzie & Mann for either the sale or the leasing of the Intercolonial to them or to any company or parties whatsoever."

ELECTRIC POWER.

Control Rates of Companies Holding Water Power Leases.

(Special Despatch to the Times.)

Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 13.—Hon. George P. Graham will introduce legislation at the coming session of Parliament, providing for control by the National Railway Commission of rates charged for electric power by companies holding water power leases along the route of the Trent Canal. The construction of the canal has greatly increased the value of the water power along the waterway, and in consequence the Government will have the opportunity to readjust conditions of leases granted to the companies. The new leases will contain provision for full control of the rates to be charged the public and will guarantee cheap power to the whole district served by the canal.

PADEREWSKI TICKETS.

Even though the famous pianist, Paderewski, will not visit this city until Feb. 24, the advance subscription sale has thus far been large. Lists have been placed at the following stores, where they may be signed, for any number of seats required. Unless known, no one person can secure more than ten seats. This is done to try to avoid speculation, and is a standing rule of the management of this great star:

J. Faskin MacDonald, music dealer, James street north. Mack's drug store. Anderson's music store. Hennessey's drug store. Gourlay, Winter & Leeming, piano warehouses, King street west. Fred Mills, druggist, King and Wellington streets. Carey piano rooms, King street west. Teeter, druggist, King
