STEEL AND COAL.

Montreal, Feb. 17.—In a statement to-day, James Ross confirmed the report that an offer had been made to the Steel Company by the coal directors.

Mr. Plummer, president of the Steel Co., said: "There has been no formal consideration of the letter by the Steel Co., and there will be none until we have received the full text of the judgment of the Privy Council. It is impossible to consider any offer of settlement until we know what we have got and what we have not."

Otisse was the feature of the Toronto mining exchange yesterday, the trading being very heavy and the price well sustained. Sales during the day amounted with the close and showing street, the stock itself dropping to 58, but rallying toward the close and showing strength. The market held firm, however, and although there was an absence of buying orders considerable inside trading was indulged in the close and showing strength. "A friend of mine from Toronto gave it to me," said John.

"Won't do. It was a friend from Dundas last time, but that is overworked," was the court's comment.

McBride sat down for a while and then asked to be allowed to go into the witness stand and, being sworn, said that a bartender at Merrigold's hotel served him yesterday, but he did not know the bartender.

"Mr. Merrigold will be prosecuted at once," said the court. McBride was al-lowed to go, the fine being suspended.

Terrence Scott, jun., was thirty-three years old yesterday. Terrence has a long record for sobriety, thirty-three years, in fact, but it was shattered yesterday on his natal day. Terry wrapped himself around a load of red-eye, and his wife hunted him up and started to take him home on the car. Terry did not like sitting quietly, and started to give an exhibition of the cake walk. His wife called him names, and Terry replied, and the passengers made a bolt for the door and clear air. "It's the first time your bonor or Jedge Cahill ever had me here for being drunk," said Terry, and his wife sobbed that she was taking him home.
