

GREAT FLOODS.

Section of Colorado Destroyed by Disastrous Cloudbursts.

Towns Drowned Out—Arkansas
River on Rampage.

Pueblo, Col., Aug. 17.—Cloudbursts last night at Howard and in Ute Pass made raging torrents of tributaries of the Arkansas River, causing the worst flood in years along the main stream. At Canon City the Arkansas River was five feet higher than ever before in its history at midnight, and still rising. This flood is due here some time today and preparations were made to avert great damage.

At Florence the entire population worked throughout the entire night, carrying goods to higher ground, in the expectation that practically the entire town would be submerged. The extent of the damage at Howard has not been learned, as communication was cut off by the storm. Horsemen were sent out last night all along the river between Canon City and Pueblo and even below here to warn the people of the approach here to warn the people of the approaching flood.

FLAG LOWERED.

Bluejackets Haul Down Greek Flag in Crete.

Canea, Island of Crete, Aug. 18.—The Greek flag, raised three weeks ago by the people of Crete in defiance of the sovereignty of Turkey and as an evidence of their desire for union with the kingdom of Greece, was lowered at sunrise this morning by a party of international bluejackets. There was no resistance on the part of the Cretans and the function was carried out without disorder and in accordance with the pre-arranged programme.

A landing party from the battleships of Great Britain, Russia, Italy and France, the protecting powers of Crete, which evacuated the island on July 27th last, came ashore before sunrise, proceeded to the fort over which the flag was flying, and removed the Hellenic emblem from its staff. The four warships assembled in Canea harbor yesterday afternoon, their presence being an outcome of the difficulty that has arisen between Greece and Turkey since the evacuation, and an indication of the purpose of the powers to maintain the status quo.

SUTTON'S DEATH.

Lieutenant's Death Was Either Accidental or Suicide.

Washington, Aug. 18.—The naval court of enquiry into the death of Lieut. Sutton, United States Marine Corps, has found that that officer came to his death by either accidental shooting or by suicide, but just which was not able to determine.

The court of inquiry decided that no possible charge of criminality lies against any of the participants in the fray, except Lieut. Sutton himself, and that Lieut. Sutton was directly and solely responsible for his own death; which was self-inflicted either intentionally or in a effort to shoot one of the persons restraining him, and that his death was not caused by any other injury whatever.

SUING FOR ALIMONY.

Mrs. Annie Beatty, of Toronto, has issued a writ against Dr. William John Beatty, of Kewatim, for alimony.

Mrs. Beatty also asks the court to make an order against her husband for $20 a week, alimony, pending the trial of her action.

The Beattys were married in Hamilton in 1887, but separated in 1899.

ADAM'S CASE.

Boston, Aug. 18.—It was announced here to-day that counsel for A. D. F. Adams, the Boston broker under indictment in New York, had arranged with District Attorney Jerome that Adams should surrender himself to the authorities in New York to-morrow morning. Adams, therefore, will not be placed under arrest in Boston. The indictment against Adams followed the disclosure regarding alleged hypochondria of stock certificates, which followed the arrest in New York of Donald L. Persch.

CHEESE FACTORY BURNED.

Kingston, Ont., Aug. 18.—Fire in the Collins Bay cheese factory on the Bath road caused the destruction of the factory during the night. Neighbors could not do anything, as the building was a mass of flames when the fire was discovered. The machinery, working utensils and considerable cheese also were destroyed. The origin of the fire is not known. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

GOOD ATTENDANCE.

The cool weather last evening did not prevent the usual large crowd from attending the Mountain Theatre. This week's play, "The Great Divide," is beyond a doubt one of the best pieces that has ever been presented by The Summers Stock Company. Miss Belle Stevenson and Mr. William E. Blake, are well adapted to their parts, and the entire company have their respective parts well in hand. The scenery and effects are exceptionally fine. Large crowds will no doubt be the rule during the entire week.

NOT THAT WINN.

A few days ago it was announced that the firm of Winn & Company, of Milton, had suffered loss by fire. The firm which suffered was not the former Hamilton concern, Winn & Co., but was the A. & G. Winn Boot and Shoe Company.

Home—That chap in the big red touring car is a man of untold wealth. Come—Ah, a tax dodger, eh? Chicago News.

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

Mrs. Fortye and Miss Roper, of Peterboro, are the guests of Mrs. William Carey, Herkimer street.

The rates on motor cars to and from Hamilton via S. S. Turbina, have been reduced as follows: Touring cars, $5; roadsters, $3.50; runabouts, $2.

Mrs. Helen McKinnon, a sister of Mrs. Alfred Hopkins, of this city, died on Monday at Stratford. She was 58 years of age, and had lived at Stratford for 31 years.

The garden party which was to have been held at the home of Mrs. Dudley, Maple avenue, last evening, was postponed until to-night, on account of the weather. The Women's Guild of St. Peter's Church has arranged for a very enjoyable evening, and a large attendance is hoped for.

NOT WORRYING.

Young Shelley Suspected of Murder Sings and Whistles.

Simcoe, Ont., Aug. 18.—Elmer Shelley, the 16-year-old lad under arrest here, charged with shooting the old man, Michael Hall, on Sunday, maintains an attitude of absolute indifference to the dreadful position in which he stands. He eats and sleeps well, and sings and whistles as if he was entirely care free. He shows no desire to read, although books and newspapers would be furnished if he wanted them. So far none of his relatives or friends have called at the jail to see the lad.

NOT MURDER.

The Shooting at Norwood Believed to be Accidental.

Norwood, Ont., Aug. 18.—It now seems to be beyond all doubt that the shooting of little Stella Willoughby by her father, James Willoughby, yesterday afternoon, was purely accidental. The Willoughbys have been always known as quiet, respectable people, and there could be no possible motive for a crime. Willoughby's own death, it is also now generally conceded, was the result of shock, caused by his child's tragic death. The man had not seen in very robust health some time past. Coroner Grey will open the inquest this afternoon.

FOR CAMPERS.

Don'ts That May Save Many Thousands of Dollars to the Country.

1. Don't, when in the woods, throw down a lighted match, cigar stub, or other flaming object; make sure that the flame has been thoroughly extinguished before throwing it away.
2. Don't build your campfire larger than is necessary.
3. Don't, under any circumstances, leave your fire unguarded, even for a comparatively short time; see that it is dead out before you go away.
4. Don't build your fire in leaves, rotten wood or other inflammable material.
5. Don't build your fire against a large or hollow log, where it is hard to be sure when it has been entirely put out.

To these "don'ts" it may be added that in windy weather or in a dangerous place, it is well to confine the fire in a hole dug clear down to the mineral soil. A fire may smoulder in the humus, or "duff," for days, only waiting for a strong breeze to fan it into a flame that may burn over miles of timber.

Summer tourists and campers unfortunately have a bad reputation among owners of timber as being often a cause of fires. Such fires could be prevented, almost without exception, by a little extra care on the part of the campers, who have been the unintentional cause of much forest destruction, and who have just as real an interest in the preservation of the forests as the owners of the timber themselves. The rules given above are the result of long experience and observation on the part of many woodsmen and lumbermen as to the origin of fires from this cause, and are earnestly commended to the attention of campers, sportsmen and others.

COMPLAINTS MADE.

Complaints are being made against some of the local five cent theatres for allowing gramophones to play outside their premises, contrary to the city by-law.

It is also alleged that one of the King street shows is again violating the law by allowing their aisles to be blocked. One manager was in the Police Court last week and fined $5.

The police are determined to safeguard the public against accident in case of fire and the aisles must be kept clear.

SETTLED THE CLAIM.

The claim of Mr. W. J. Anderson, Dundas road, was considered yesterday afternoon by the Legislative Committee of the County Council. Mr. Anderson received injuries while shifting a water tank from a wagon some time ago, while in the employ of the county, and his finger was badly crushed, and he was laid up for some time. The committee granted him $50 and agreed to pay the doctor bill, which amounted to $17.

GOLD FOR JAPAN.

New York, Aug. 18.—Announcement was made to-day that the Yokohama special bank will transfer through the sub-treasury to San Francisco, for shipment from there to Japan of $1,500,000 in gold about September 1, and $1,500,000 about the middle of September. This makes a total of $8,250,000 exported to Japan since the middle of May.

DOING DOUBLE DUTY.

The genial Police Court clerk, Mr. William McHaffie, is away on his vacation, and his duties are being fulfilled by the always genial Chief Smith. He, however, combines the duties of ink slinger with occasional cross-examining when occasion demands.

The Chief's regular duties at the side of the witness stand are being covered by Inspector McMahon.

FOUND DEAD.

Had Engaged in Revolver Duel
With a Policeman.

Surprised Robbing Ticket Office at Railway Station.

North Attleboro, Mass., Aug. 18.—An unknown robber was found dead in the woods near the local station of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad tracks to-day, several hours after he had engaged in a revolver duel with Patrolman John Jenkins, of the North Attleboro police.

Shortly after midnight Officer Jenkins surprised a man on guard at the railway station while a companion was inside the ticket office attempting to loot the safe. After refusing to obey the patrolman's command to drop a revolver which he carried, the unknown man fired at the officer and several shots were exchanged in the darkness. Both robbers disappeared in the thick woods across the railroad track. Nothing was taken from the safe.

At first it was believed that both robbers had escaped uninjured. During the forenoon, however, the body of a man was found in the woods about 100 yards below the railway station and 50 yards from the track. His face was badly bruised, but a last examination failed to find any bullet wound. Whether the man was killed by a bullet from Jenkins' revolver or whether he was slain by his companion or met death by accident will not be determined until the autopsy is completed.

NOT FRIGHTENED BY BAD MAN'S GUN.

Prisoner was charged with vagrancy, and from conversation overheard by P. C. Barrett it was learned that he knew something about stolen bicycles. Detective Sayers said the prisoner was taken to the City Hall last week from the market, and when searched had parole papers on him from the Central Prison. He was then allowed to go on condition that he would leave the city, as he said he was going to get work with the circus.

A witness named Ferguson said he met prisoner at the Central Prison, and a mutual friendship sprang up. Davidson came to the city last April. After a stay here he went away, and returned last week. He solicited alms from witnesses repeatedly. One afternoon last week they were both sitting in the Gore Park, when prisoner threw a covetous eye on a bicycle leaning against the fence, and intimated he would go after it. Davidson told Ferguson that he had a girl and she was a peach, because she furnished him with lure.

Then up rose indignant Johnny, and as loud as an auctioneer shouted, "You're a liar."

At last it came prisoner's turn to oscillate the book. It would have been better if he had learned the philosophy of silence. Inspector McMahon was ready for him, and he let Jack give vent to his exuberant flow of self-recommendations which informed the court that he was born in Ottawa, and had visited in many other cities, ranging from Montreal to Chicago.

"Why did you give your name as McGuire when you were convicted at Ottawa?" asked the inspector.

"Well, to shield my right name," said Davidson.

Then the inspector charged off a magazine of questions which made John squirm. The answers showed that John had a series of black marks against him; had tried to demolish a policeman in Ottawa; had been expelled from hotels for refusing to pay his board, and had served two terms in the Central Prison.

His worship thought society would be better without him for six long months. Davidson's companion was let go on the vagrancy charge, but Inspector McMahon lodged complaint about his being a friend to thieves and giving them information as to the whereabouts of the police. When arrested last Sunday he told P. C. Barrett that he would tell how the bicycles were greased and put under water after being stolen. However, this morning he denied all knowledge of bicycles, saying his was the only one he knew about, and it was hoary with antiquity. The magistrate discharged him with the warning to be careful what company he keeps in future.

Down from the mountain steep came James Williams, claiming Vinemont as his abode. A good round sun is $28 to spend in a few days, but Jim said that was the amount of the wage that he reposed in his pocket when he came to the city on Saturday. Last night he was "strapped," so like the ancient beggars of the east, he solicited alms at the corner of King and James streets. P. C. Brown arrested him for vagrancy and said defendant was under the influence of last night's wine. A witness said that he was "touched" for a dime.

Williams claimed he must have been robbed and showed his hands as proof of him being a worker. He was fined $5 or 14 days in the saloon of Ogilvie.

Charles Lamb said "All, all are gone—the old, familiar faces." No, no, Mr. Lamb. One was in the police court again this morning. It was that of Charles Young, who has been down for a week's vacation at the Barton street institution to allow some of the pickle to ooze out, though charged with vagrancy.

Charles was immaculately dressed as his society goes, and leered curious glances at the occupant of the chair.

The glances were all right, for the voice there said, "You can go."

Charlie melted into one huge smile, and in his hurry to get free, did not forget to pass thanks on the magisterial head.

The case against William Deager was laid over again, as Mr. O'Hair, his lawyer, raised some points of law that have to be decided.

GOT SIX MONTHS.

Windsor, Ont., Aug. 18.—Nellie Leach, colored, convicted of stealing provisions from the home of William Burnie, was sent to the Mercer Reformatory for six months.

Several other charges of the kind have been brought against Nellie in the past. The woman told the magistrate she had kleptomani.

LONG BRANCH.

Skedden and Will Well Up in the Bankers.

Long Branch Rifle Ranges, Ont., Aug. 18.—The second day's shoot of the Ontario Rifle Association opened with the sky overcast and with indications of rain. The weather was cool, compelling those not participating in the targets to don their coats. A slight southeasterly wind was blowing, but it was so slight that the range flags scarcely stirred and everything points to high recording to-day. There are three main features on to-day's card, the Bankers' match at 500 and 600 yards, respectively, and in the afternoon the Macdonald at 500 yards and the MacKenzie at 800 yards, besides extra series.

Newport, R. I., Aug. 18.—The match for the national double tennis championship again to-day was postponed, this time until 11 a. m. to-morrow. It was decided, however, to start the first round of the singles to-day, despite the wet grounds and threatening weather. Two of the courts were covered during the storm, and were in fair shape, but the others were slippery and caused bad work for the contestants.

LATE EX-MAYOR McELROY.

To the Editor of the Times:

Dear Sir,—To settle a point in dispute, will you please answer the following questions through your esteemed columns? Has the late Mayor James McElroy any relatives living? Who are they, and where do they reside? Yours respectfully, Subscriber.

Hamilton, August 17, 1909.

The city records have it that Robert McElroy was mayor of Hamilton in 1892-94, but the right spelling seems to have been McElroy. He lived on the mountain, and a son lived there for many years after his father's death. He also had a daughter, who married "Teb" Servos, who was a bailiff for years, but who had no family. The Times was not able to find any closer connections than the relatives of the late Mr. Servos.
