IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUST-Sale of a valuable farm in the Township of Ashfield.

Parsuant to a judgment and order mate herein, there will be sold by public auction, with the approbation of D. McDonald, Esq., deputy-efert of the Crown. at Martin's Hotel, in the village of Lungannon, by Joseph Maltough, auctioneer, on the lith day of February, 1888, at one o'clock in the afternoon, the following lands and premises, namely Lot, number ten, in the fifth concession, eastern division of the township of Ashfield, in the county of Haren, less 21 acres off the South East corner thereof, containing 1873 acres of land.

East corner thereof, containing 1971 acres of land.

This property is signated about one mile from the village of Dungannon, ten miles from the Town of Goderich, in a good farming section of country, and is readily accessible to any of the said places by good gravel roads. The buildings thereon are fair and consist of a story and a half dwelling house, frame barn 30x75, two frame sinds 21x30, and other outbuildings. There is also a good orchard consisting of two acres of land well stocked with excellent fruit trees.

About 165 acres of the said land are cleared and the balance of said land is timbered with maple, beech and hemlook.

The soil of the land cleared is a gravel clay loam, good for raising grain, and is in a good state of cultivation.
