What is the Use of Spring Without New Clothes?

It isn't half as horrible to be "the last rose of summer" as it is to be "the last winter grape-fruit" in the spring.

There is no one so sour in soul and mind as a woman in furs when she should be wearing chiffons. There is nothing so uncomfortable looking as a heavy winter suit on a warm spring day. There is nothing so pitiful as a last season's hat on this season's girl. Any woman whether she be fifteen or fifty has the spirit for new clothes when the spring comes. And if she keeps on wearing heavy top boots and an old drab suit and a "Christmas-is-coming" hat till the middle of May, she isn't happy. That's all.

And what's worse, nobody else is. At least not in her household.

Now there is no necessity for such a thing this year. Body clothes were never cheaper and cheap clothes were never prettier. Prices have been more modest and more moderate than in many years. Hats are simple and most charmingly effective and even shoes can be bought this season without mortgaging the farm.

All a woman has to do is to watch this paper and keep her eye on the advertising for a few days. She will find most glorious opportunities popping up all the time. She will be surprised how little money it requires for a shrewd woman to be well-dressed.

And this applies to you, Madam, whether your idea of a cheap suit be ten dollars or one hundred. Cheapness is comparative anyway. The woman who is used to a fifteen dollar suit can get it for about ten this season; and that is cheap. While the woman who is used to paying a hundred can get the same thing for seventy-five, and that also is cheap.

The same is true of everything that is necessary to make you as charming to look at and as pleasing to yourself as your neighbors are.

Don't be a winter grape-fruit in the midst of this glorious spring. Don't let "business" knock you out of your rightful joy in clothes.

Just watch this advertising carefully beginning to-day and swoop down on your bargain like a hawk. And before you know it you will be so well dressed and so happy that you will find yourself looking out of your window some bright morning and saying:

"I wonder if that darned bird thinks he can really sing."

ROBT. TEMPLETON

George St. S.S. Anniversary.

The excellence of the annual series of Sunday School Services held yesterday in George Street Church will not easily be surpassed. The whole arrangement and direction was under the supervision of the Superintendent, Mr. C. R. Steer, who is a model disciplinarian and patient toiler in Sunday School work. In the morning a prepared form of service was carried through with Rev. Mr. Whitmarsh and C. R. Steer occupying the rostrum. The regular choir was substituted by a galaxy of young ladies from the Sunday School who, being led by the skillful manipulation of the church organ by Mrs. R. Horwood, rendered, in harmonious tones, musical selections suited to the occasion. Miss Alice White excelled in her solo promising well for future usefulness in this direction. Rev. Mr. Whitmarsh gave the address taking as the basis of his remarks the words:—"Of such is the Kingdom of Heaven." He first pointed out some of the difficult problems that Christanity had to encounter all through the ages leading up his hearers in clear and consecutive order to the indispensable demand for the training of not simply the moral conduct but of the heart and life of the child for Christ. In service, and, said he, the one whose sympathy and discernment and love for the work will enable him to find a way to the hearts of the children and enlist their services in behalf of the Kingdom of God will be the one most likely commended and most successful in Sunday School engagements. The service was very orderly all through, the teachers and ushers were in their places attending to the accommodation of visitors and other matters. Too much cannot be said in praise of Mrs. R. Horwood whose most efficient and self-denying services have contributed so largely to the esthetic tastes of the congregation worshipping in George Street Church. The afternoon Sunday School Service was in the hands of laymen. Mr. George Gushue was in the chair and Mr. A. Soper excelled in a practical address. It is needless to say that both these gentlemen were heard with great interest and attention. There was a large turn out at the afternoon meeting and the interest started at the morning was well sustained.

A similar meeting was held in the evening with the church packed with children and their friends. At this service the interest shown in Sunday School work was intensified. The volume of harmonious sound from so many happy children and adults lent an inspiration to the whole service. On this occasion Rev. Mr. Bartlett gave an excellent address chiefly relating to the loss of opportunities for getting and doing good. The parents of the Sunday School children will owe a lifelong debt of gratitude to Mr. C. R. Steer and his able supporters for their services in connection with George St. Sunday School.—Com.

Attacked by Dog.
The number of vicious dogs prowling around the city of late constitutes a menace to people passing the streets. There is a large and vicious mastiff owned by a resident of Prescott Street and the beast recently attacked people passing there. The owner was compelled to muzzle it, but despite this it yesterday attacked a little girl, threw her to the ground and managed to tear her dress and otherwise injure her. The owner of this brute should be compelled to shoot it.

Personal.
Mr. P. J. Kinsella, late of the R. N. Co., leaves by to-morrow evening's express for Sydney, C. B., where he will enter the office of the D. I. & S. Co. P. J. K. is an old newspaper correspondent and we hope he will be one of the many young Newfoundlanders who do us credit abroad.

What About Your Cough?

It is gradually growing from bad to worse? A person contracts a cold some way or other. Very often you do not know how you contracted it. The symptoms do not begin until 1 or 2 days after.

1st—It effects the head, causing a nasty, uncomfortable feeling for about 36 hours, leaving the head and effecting the throat and gradually settling on the chest, which 9 cases out of 10 is neglected. This is the time when the danger is at hand.

If there is nothing to relieve the spasms of coughing and to take effect on the bronchial organs of the throat and chest, the chances of the cough leaving the system of its own accord is not very great.

As a rule in the night your cough is worse than any other time. Phosphate Cough Mixture quickly gets at the seat of all kinds of coughs and colds, and in a few hours great relief is obtained. If you mix equal parts of Stafford's Liniment and Sweet Oil in a saucer, warm slightly and apply on a piece of thick flannel, placing same over chest and allowing it to remain three or four hours, this will also relieve you a great deal.

Hundreds of people have coughs and colds gradually growing from bad to worse just because they do not take the proper treatment. If you are one of these don't delay any longer.

Phosphate Cough and Cold Cure is prepared only by DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, St. John's, Nfld. Price 25c. a bottle; postage 5c. extra. apr 25, 11

Doctor A. White.

DIED AT TRINITY, MAY 10th.

"Death loves a shining mark."

As long as human affection holds its sway in our lives, so long will Death, the separator, be judged an enemy. The hope that we have of another and better life beyond, where we shall dwell in unity forever, seems not to assuage our heart-broken grief. The passing of Dr. Arthur White is terribly sad. Just in the prime of life, in the noon-day of his well-loved work, he has been stricken, and after a month or two of intermittent sickness he is dead. What it will mean to Trinity is hard to estimate. Sorrow will be universal. The "Doctor" there has always meant "Dr. White" for more than half a century and the "old Doctor" and "Doctor Art" (as they were called), knew pretty well all that could be known about the bodies of almost everyone around Trinity. And now in less than a year both have been taken. It is so hard to realize that Doctor Art is gone. It seems like a tree that has been cut down in the full bloom of summer. He was always at the call of every sufferer and in his ministrations he seemed not only the Doctor but the Priest. A man of marked ability, and a splendid speaker, he preferred to work quietly at his profession, rather than accept honors which would bring duties that would interfere with his work. He has always been of great service to the local paper, and unostentatiously has helped it along in a measure that perhaps only the publishers can fully appreciate. He graduated in medicine from New York and Philadelphia and in all branches of his profession has shown a skill that places him in the forefront and makes it extremely difficult to replace him in Trinity.

As a man he was respected and admired by all; he held high office in the local societies and was a prominent member of St. Paul's Church, Trinity.

And if his death shocks us; if it makes us pause to drop a tear on the slab of his memory, what must it mean to his poor wife and children? Alas, how weak words are to comfort them. May Grief as it often does, bring its own comfort, till Time, that great healer, brings the calmness of a patient waiting for the hour to come when they too, and we, shall meet "Death, the gentle end of human sorrows."—Com.

Gave a Good Recital.

Miss M. G. Tait's Success.

An audience which filled the greatest part of the Charles Fawcett Memorial Hall listened Tuesday evening to the joint recital of Miss Mary Elshmore Tait, pianiste, of St. John's, Newfoundland, and Miss Annie Louise Clarke, contralto, of Bear River, N.S. Both students gave good accounts of themselves in the performance of the following program:—

Piano, (a) Prelude and Fugue (Bach), (b) Andante in F. (Beethoven). Recit. and Aria, O Mio Fernando. (Donizetti), La Favorita. Piano, Caprice Espagnol (Moszkowski).

Airs, (a) When All was Young (Gounod) (b) Nach Sevilla (Desmauer).

Piano, Capriccio in E Minor (Scarlatti-Taussig).

Songs, (a) Ave Maria (Schubert) (b) Die Rose und die Lilie (Schumann) (c) Er der Herrliche von Alken (Schumann).

Piano, Moto perpetuo (Weber). Recit. and Air, My Heart is Weary. (Thomas) Nadeschda.

The opening numbers were Bach's Prelude and Fugue and Beethoven's Andante. In the latter number Miss Tait revealed a touch of great beauty. Her legato and phrasing were excellent and she played with a warmth that was surprising in so young a girl. Miss Tait surmounted the difficulties of Scarlatti-Taussig, Moszkowski and Weber with consummate ease, adding at the same time, a deep feeling for the emotional passages which fully convinced her hearers that she is undoubtedly one of the cleverest students at Mt. Allison.

The recital was made additionally enjoyable by the singing of Miss Clark. Those who have heard Miss Clark sing on previous occasions must have noted the exceptional progress, which she made in her work. Her songs which demanded great vocal flexibility, were rendered with much ease and brilliance.—Sackville Tribune May 8th 1913.
