NEW SCHOOL. — A fine new school was recently finished near Mount Cashel, by Architect Doran for His Grace the Archbishop. It is a beautiful structure and the expeditious manner in which the work has been done reflects great credit on Mr. Doran and his workmen.

OUTLOOK PROMISING. — Traps are doing well with fish at Trepassay. Such conditions it is hoped will continue for the remainder of the season. A good voyage would be gladly welcomed by the folks of Trepassay, as for several years back the fishery here has been very bad.

GOOD FISHING REPORTED. — The schooner Maggie Sullivan arrived here last evening from Pogo, making a very quick run up. Her reports are like the Pogo's which were to the effect that the fishery was doing well, being especially so the past few days at Peckford's Island and the Wadhams.

The Regatta, which sailed yesterday for the north at 10 a.m., took the following passengers: Mrs. G. Osmond, Misses Benson (2), Miss J. Abright, G. Greene, S. Brett, Mrs. Mahoney and infant, H. C. Chas. Miss Cobb, Mrs. J. Feltham, Miss Dalton, Miss J. Moore, Miss J. Miller, Miss B. E. Welch, Mrs. Blundon, T. E. McKay, Master Templeman, P. G. Bradley, Miss Riggs and 7 in steerage. The ship also took a large freight.

GARDEN PARTY. — The St. Andrews' Missionary Society held a most enjoyable and successful Garden Party at Mount Dorset, yesterday afternoon. Among the visitors to the grounds were the Rev. J. S. Sutherland, Pastor of St. Andrew's Church and Hon. Jas. Baird. Tea and refreshments were served during the evening and the ladies in charge did a brisk business. The proceeds will be devoted to the Mission Fund.

Beothic Still Aground.

Mr. H. W. LeMessurier, Asst. Collector of Customs, had another message last night concerning the s.s. Beothic, which went ashore at Point Riche. The message read as follows: "The s.s. Beothic, a.s. Seal failed to pull off the ship to-day but will try again to-morrow (Wednesday). Still dumping the coal overboard to lighten the ship, but none of the general cargo has yet been jettisoned."

J. JACKSON, St. John's, Beothic Agent.

New M.G.B. Armoury.

Last night a representative and largely attended meeting of men was held in the Sunday School near George Street Methodist Church last evening when the question of rebuilding the Armoury of the Methodist Guards was taken up and debated. Rev. F. R. Matthews and C. H. Hutchings spoke on the question and all thought that in the interest of the Methodist youth of the city the Armoury should be rebuilt. Those present who had sons in the Brigade in the old regime were specially enthusiastic and appeals will be made to the denomination in the city for funds. There is now $5,000 available which with about $5,000 more would put up a fine building. When contributions were called for 40 persons present gave $25 and others offered to swell the funds. Judging from this good showing it looks as if the erection of a new armoury will soon begin.

Outing For Reid Nfld Co.

Last night, at the waiting room for ladies in the Reid Nfld. Co's station a meeting was held relative to an outing for the company. Its officials and employees. Mr. A. D. Brown presided and it was decided to hold the outing at the Octagon on Saturday, August 3rd. A committee was appointed and the officers of it are: R. G. Reid, Honorary President. F. Roux, Honorary Vice-President. A. D. Brown, President. W. E. Ladley, Vice-President. J. E. Angel, Asst. Vice-President. A. J. McInnes, Sec'y. J. M. Darcy, Secretary. Wallace Ross, Treasurer. Chas. Bradley, Auditor.

The tickets for the outing will be cheap and will be within the reach of the purse of all the employees.

Stole $10.

Yesterday as a woman was coming in by the Prince express she was victimized by a fellow traveller, a resident of the East End, who occupied the same car as she did. The woman for a moment or so happened to put her satchel on one side when the man observing it, and while she had her back turned, quickly whipped the money out of it. The woman did not discover the loss until the train reached the city and then Const. Toyn was informed. He got a description of those who were in the car with the woman and arrested a couple who were at first stoutly denied his guilt but later confessed and after being taken to the station, the cash was found stowed away in his underclothing. The woman will get her property to-day after Judge Knight deals with the prisoner.

A GOOD FAIR. — Capt. Walter Kennedy in the banker Gertrude arrived at Portune on Monday with a fine face of fish from the Grand Banks. The vessel was three weeks on the trip and hailed for 700 qds. She will sail again about the latter part of the week.

Drinking Out of Ice Tumblers.

Caterers at some French watering-places are this season taking up an "invention" which will probably revolutionize the whole summer trade in cool drinks.

The idea, which stands to the credit of a Dane named Fritz, is to cool beverages not by putting a piece of ice in the middle of the liquid, but to serve up the liquid inside ice. In other words, your favourite thirst-quencher is served in a tumbler of pure and transparent ice.

The tumbler stands in a cap of amber, so that it is not unpleasantly cold to hold. This cap, also, of course, prevents warm fingers from melting holes in the bottom of the tumbler.

An ice tumbler is, of course, beautifully sanitary. It will not stand a second filling. The customer has the satisfaction of knowing that no one has drunk out of his glass before, and that no one will again.

The making of these tumblers, which look just like ordinary ones, except for being somewhat thicker, needs a special refrigerating outfit, with a small engine. With an engine of one h.p., 100 tumblers can be turned out in a minute. You watch your tumbler being made.

Oh No!

"As I understand it, doctor, I believe I'm well, I'll be well, I'm the idea."

"Then if you believe you are paid, I suppose you'll be paid?"

"Not necessarily."

"But why shouldn't, faith work as well in one case as in the other?"

"Why, you see, there is considerable difference between having faith in Providence and having faith in you."

Why has STAFFORD'S LINIMENT obtained such a large sale? Because the quality is in every bottle that is sold.—June 20.

Golden Jubilee.

Of Hon. George and Mrs. Knowling.

Congratulations and greetings are being showered on the Hon. George Knowling and his venerable lady, who to-day celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding or Golden Jubilee. By a special license Mr. Knowling married Miss Elizabeth Upham, at Exeter, England. The Rev. Mr. Maud performed the ceremony. Mr. Knowling is one of our best, esteemed and most successful citizens. Although having passed the allotted span, having passed his 72nd birthday, he enjoys life and is as active as if he were forty.

In June 1858 Hon. Mr. Knowling came to Newfoundland to settle. He began his business career as a clerk in the dry goods establishment of Voghts, of North Sydney in 1860. A few years later he was removed to the small drapery store was subsequently came to St. John's and entered the employ of his uncle, the late Philip Huchings. Eight years afterwards, or in 1876, Mr. Huchings passed away and the business, though small, as it only employed a dozen hands, was given in charge of Mr. Knowling who by his tact, energy and perseverance has attained the goal of success that few can boast of and that everyone might be proud of. There is now a departmental store with branches in the city and at the principal outports. In all the stores about three hundred persons are engaged.

Mr. Knowling is noted in the business world as a leader amongst his competitors, energetic, square in his dealings and of an impeccable probity. Mr. Knowling is known to be an advocate of the facilities afforded by the press for the betterment of the community. His own highly successful business is an evidence of the manner in which he has lived up to his principles. As a writer of advertisements he has always excelled, and in the many congratulations which to-day will be offered him as sincere as the warmest of his friends will be those of the press representatives.

For 16 years Mr. Knowling has been a prominent member of the Legislative Council and for several years member of the Executive and Leader in the Council during the Administration of Sir Robert Bond. He has the honour of being appointed to the Council by the late Governor Sir Herbert Murray, K. C. B. who was a warm personal friend of Mr. Knowling's. His wife and Mr. Knowling's family are—Messrs. Philip, George and William and four daughters, Mrs. Wm. Franklin, Mrs. John Laidlaw, Mrs. Hector McNeil and Mrs. Brumhart.

To celebrate the happy event in their lives a whole holiday has been granted to-day to all those employed in Mr. Knowling's extensive establishments in the city who leave here at 2.30 p.m. for Donovan's where the day will be spent in a pleasant and enjoyable manner. The Telegram joins with the many friends of the jubilarians in cordially congratulating them and wishing a continuation of the happiness which must be theirs on this auspicious occasion.

Ben Laid a Record Egg.

Langueuil Bird Tries to Solve High Cost of Living.

To one of Montreal's pretty suburban towns to wit Langueuil, must be given the credit of producing the first conscientious hen. Most of the silly egg-producing brood have all through history evinced a total disregard for the high cost of living problem, and an utter indifference to man's struggle to procure his "ham and—" or his omelette at present day prices and with a present day salary.

Ben here is a feathered food-producer, which, if she cannot help us out by laying abundantly in winter when eggs are scarce and almost worth their weight in gold, has thought out another plan to help and has laid the largest hen's egg on record. This remarkable egg was three inches long and eight inches on circumference and weighed 4½ ounces. When opened it was found to have another complete egg inside so that the object of the philanthropic hen evidently was to lay two eggs at one time.

This Date in History.

JULY 23.
Full Moon.

Days Past—203 To Come—161
"DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE" born 1832. English statesman who has held many offices of responsibility under Lord Russell and Gladstone.

"PRINCE OF WALES" (afterwards Edward VII) arrived at St. John's 1860.

A good cause makes a strong arm.

The Jolly Old Crow.

On the limb of an oak sat a jolly old crow,
And chattered away with glee, with glee,
And he saw the old farmer go out to sow!

"Look how he scatters his seeds around!
He is wonderful kind to the poor, the poor;
If he'd empty it down in a pile on the ground,
I could find it much better, I'm sure, I'm sure!"

"I've learned all the tricks of this wonderful man,
Who has such regard for the crow, the crow,
That he lays out his grounds in a regular plan,
And covers his corn in a row, a row!"

"He must have a very great fancy for me;
He tries to entrap me enough, enough;
But I measure his distances as well as he,
And when he comes near, I'm off, I'm off!"

The Regatta.

Over thirty crews had a spin over the lake last evening.

When forty too many boats should not be on the pond together. Coxswains should use their discretion accordingly to prevent accident.

Five crews are now practicing for the Amateur Race and four for the Mercantile.

A crew of foreigners, recently imported by the Reid Company, will compete in the Trade Race. They had their initial spin last evening, coached by Coxswain Day.

Last night while the thick fog prevailed a young man was nearly cut down in the middle of the pond by a raceboat.

Intending competitors for the swimming contest should do all their practicing in the daylight, if possible.

To date there are no crews practicing for the Naval Reserve Race.

Tent holders are already getting their grounds shaken off and will commence building next week.

Miss Bridie Whalen, of the West End, who has resided here for ten years past, though a native of the north, leaves by this evening's express for Grand Falls to visit her parents. Her father is an old-time school-teacher who was for years at Piller's Island and is a man of varied attainments.

To-night at the S.A. Hall, Livingstone Street, there will be held a Musical Entertainment. Assistant Minister James will act as Chairman. Admission by ticket. Ice Cream will be served at the close. Everybody invited.—July 23.
