Three Features of the R. J. & W. Report

Principally for the three following reasons will the shareholders of Robin, Jones & White, Limited, have reason to congratulate themselves on their investment when they examine the Company's annual report.

FIRST—Because net earnings (after allowing for depreciation) amount to $103,309.83, an increase of OVER FORTY PER CENT. over the previous year.

SECOND—Because after provision of bond interest, depreciation, and preferred dividends there remains the sum of $41,202.63 earned on the Common Stock—or NEARLY EIGHT PER CENT.

Willie Hoppe.

Red McGhee says

It's pretty warm for billiard talk, but if you're sweatin' try some chalk an' listen to my twitter.

The meek I want na talk about

don't field nor run the bags nor clout—he's no

300 hitter. He's

Willie Hoppe.

Know him, boys?

At balking billiards he's the noise—the bring-back-bacon kid. Those doggone little ivry balls just seem to come when Willie calls an' do just as they're bid.

At eighteen-one an' eighteen-two there's no stunt that he can't do with that hypnotic stick. He's champ now, too, at fourteen-one. He'll average thirty-ood per run—an' that's no baby's trick. The seven-inch square anchor space jus' helps to show off Willie's grace—don't hinder a bit. His high runs? Gad, I've lost all track; he runs a hundred, then starts back till all the counters quit.

He nurses with a mother's care an' makes his watchers gasp an' stare to see his weird control. Each time he
