EXPERIENCES WITH CHINESE

an old college friend of Rev. Canon will delivcer thee." Earp, then Rector of the Parish. In August of this year Bishop Mowil and eight other members of the Church mary Society were carried off by heir experiences in the London Times

ver

an

ted

the

hes

ota

our

accession close at hand. Cries of "Kill, kill. Strike dead" could be kept well. begroom door. We not supped on literature was seized. The few papers the grace and charm of their movearmed men outside pushed us downstairs at once. Our thumbs were quickly tied together behind our backs. Near us were a row of work-We were quickly led across the river. and marched off into the hills beween armed guards. Our last glimpse of our homes was the robbers streamng out with armfuls of our possessions and piling them into boxes. Many of the robbers wore our hats and their persons bulged with a peronal loot. As the loads passed we up and down steep hills all day. were without food but slaked our in fortress with thick walls and narow windows. We arrived just as it new dark. As we passed up the narentrance we saw that the robbers ad lighted a great fire at which they most eerie. We were taken up a alone and free. flight of steps and told that a long narrow room on the left was our partment. Fortunately rain descendd and we were able to rest there for wo days, Saturday and Sunday.

The Party. equest to release her with her moth- ing were rifled.

Our food supply was so scanty that servant obtained permission to go ack to Mienchu for bread, &c., on aday and returned to us on Monday

On that Monday we had been taken ter tramping across the hills and ording a mountain stream we reachd a farm and were given an outhouse sleep in.

After two days, despite the fact that My wife had been in bed all day with rude raft was constructed. The ver was very swift and it was an er to prayer that no acciden pened. We were taken to a farmnear the opposite bank. Coolie's Bravery.

My coolie appeared at the river Street .- nov16,61 on Saturday morning with more It was really brave of him, as en he had accompanied my boy on Monday previous the robbers had him off and threatened to cut off legs if he appeared again.

At dusk a shot was heard and all guard trooped out to a conference the unseen visitors. On Sunday ming we were taken again across he river on a raft. Hopes ran high hen we were led back into the first illey that it was the first step toards home. Instead we were led rther up the hillside to a very isoted little house belonging to a family

That was the worst place we were Mr. Li was hand in glove with the bers. Two coffins of murdered ptives were next door. One after-on we saw another gone loaded th loat on the opposite side of the ourstep and jeered at us. They andished a sword at the child. They ok some of the little food we had as ed lowed with our friends. The Don St. John's as the Bishop of Western nithorne's cook escaped to tell of our china, who came here three years ago plight. I found myself continually nd held a very largely attended Mis- repedting to myself "Call upon Me in on at St. Thomas's Church. He was the day of trouble. I will. I will. I

Release Arranged. release had been arranged for in five Francis Cacciola, who designed and China. The Bishop has described days' time. Food would arrive next built the church with the co-operaday. My pocket Testament and tion of the good people of that settle-Psalms had survived the debacle and ment and their immediate friends. The passed from one to another. Psalm children of the place are now provid-

Though robbers had attacked Mien-and magazines were read from cover ments on the altar. The musical part to cover. On Saturday morning we of the services was carefully arranged were taken back to the farm by the Miss Best of Come By Chance presidrushed up the hill to another farm. land, who not only attended the ser and nightfall found the party denud- Power, Wisdom and Godness of Our ed of blankets. How earnestly we Dear Lord as manifested in His sent to market quickly returned with to educate and bring up their chilword that we were to be handed over dren in the fear and love of God and There were nine of us in the party. to our friends that day. The others, country. There was a large attendance diss Carleton and Miss Settle were however, were in no hurry. Presently at all the services on Sunday. People pending the hot weather with us and they said we were to cross the river were present from Earhaven, Woody Major Hes and Miss Armfield were again. That was in the opposite directished, Bollardstown, Arnold's Cove just one more reason why this direcwith the Donnithernes in Mr. Cald- tion to home, About noon we were Contre, and Come by Chance. Many tor has attained for himself the leadwell's house. We were chiefly con- ordered to start. At the door knives other improvements will be made in ing place which he enjoys in the forecarned for little Audrey Donnitherne, and pikes were brandished at us and the church property at Arnold's Cove. ged two, but the robbers refused our the bags which each one was carry-

The river was crossed and my serdown the steep hill. Rain fortunately told to sit down while some of our began and we were able to rest in a captors went down to meet them. farm house. The farm people gave Presently we heard one shout that an a corn cobs. As soon as the weather extra 50 dollars would be given if leared we started on. We were tak- our goods were handed over intact. en over another hill. At length at Then our loads were brought past us dusk we reached a ruined hall, sit- and we called out for what had not, Fireman and uated in a thick grove of trees. Ap-proached in the moonlight it leoked appeared, and from 1.30 on we were

Magic Aids to Beauty

So long as soft cheeks beguile, and pretty lips, mysterious fragrances and dancing eyes bewilder-just so long will women gaily accept the magic aids to beauty discovered by those who evening not only with food but with love to explore for them. Richard belowe to hear again from the outcomfort to hear again from the outperfumes presented to the world the captivating Three Flowers odor. Deliccross a narrow pole bridge, and afcharms the fastidious ladies of all lands. You may now obtain this fragrant scent in talcum, face powder or vanishing cream. Every tollet requisite bearing the Three Flowers name contains this beautiful scent. To Per. we were taken across the river. use Three Flowers is a sign of good taste.-oct80,tu.f.tf

Motorists, get your And Freeze and Weed Chains now also new Cross Bars fitted in chains, at McKINLAY'S, Line church is named in honor of St Christopher, the Patron Saint of Mo-

a central Government, Yang Sen hav- The people po'nt with pride to their dear little church and actool, and the On Saturday morning the guard chances now placed at their disposal

ERS, LTD., Hardware Dept.

Engineer Burned

Yesterday morning two of the en-

New Church Opened at Arnold's Cove Station

The people and children of Arnold's Cove station were overcome with joy Church was opened with Solemn High Mass. It is the first Catholic Church to be erected at Arnold's Cove. The Though robbers had attacked Mienchu and the neighbouring villages during July our own valley remained in peace. But on the morning of Thursday, August 6, we were awakened by the sound of rifle shots in quick succession close at hand. Cries of Kill, kill. Strike dead" could be On Friday the load of provisions their first venture and both parents heard, and steel spikes splintered our arrived. How eagerly the fittle fresh and congregation were thrilled with river. Before we left, our possessions ed at the organ and conducted the were searched again. Boxes were ruth choir. All the solo parts were sung men and two servants tied together.

lessly broken up. Garments were by Rev. Francis Caccicia, who would heedlessly spoilt. Bedding was tak-pause at various parts of the Mass to house to find the other party tied to-gether with a rope round their necks. want when night came. The five Rev. Francis Cacciola was the specified days at length passed but preacher and in his preliminary re-no release came. Instead, on Wednes- marks he paid a very high tribute to day, August 26; we were suddenly the good people of the Church of Eng-Further bad nights followed due to vices in the morning and evening in the heavy rain and leaking roof. Food large numbers, but who also perwas also so low that tea leaves had formed manual labor and gave gento be minutely rationed and bread erously of their means towards the failed. Scones were divided into three interests of their Catholic neighbors grabbed any useful clothing we could and given to the weakest. It was a in the building of their first church. supplement our scanty attire. Our marvel how far the ladies made the In the evening Fr. Caccicla conducted aptors avoided all roads and dragged few previsions go. On Friday we the ceremonies, sang all the solos and were taken down hill again and across preached the sermon. The subject of the river. More things were looted the morning's liscourse was: "The As the afternoon wore on we saw prayed that release might come soon. Wyrks." The evening's rermon was:

We knew how difficult it was to ex
"The place where Thy glory dwellpect help from man when the pro- eth." The little church, a marve vince was without any semblance of of beauty, is complete in every detail

REV. FRANCIS CACCIOLA.

boots soled with Muskoka Sole Leather. It's extra good. You can get it at BOWRING BROTH-> by Gas Explosion make them living, loving and fighting human beings.

gineroom crew of S.S. Walker, J. men, a villainous schemer, at one time Rideout and Patrick Whelan, were wronged the girl's mother. The badly burned from a gas explosion daughter however, is infatuated with which occurred whilst the ship was him, and the mother, to save her, is Savs Kaiser Should laying at the pier at Bell Island. The presented with the delicate situation laying at the pier at Bell Island. The presented with the deficate students in the presented with the deficate students and injured men were attended to by Dr., of opening up her past. The series of Have Gone Into Trenches ion expressed by General Wilhelm General Groener. "It was to be no events that follow, which include a men over an election, and a thrilling lover proves himself to be indeed/a hero and worthy of the girl's hand, make up but a few of the tense dramatic situations which predominate the

Can You Use $2500.00

If so purchase your tickets now for the sweepstake on the Masenic-B.I.S. Billiard Tournament. Games start in October, Tickets only 10c. each-10 tickets for $1.00, sent post prepaid. sept24,eod,tf is not a Spiritualist, not a Medium, not a Clairvoyant nor

C MEM-O-REA

But a SCIENTIST OF THOUGHT TRANSFERENCE

RITA JOHNSON

Champion International Dancer

"LOVE'S BARGAIN"

STARRING MAJORIE DAWE.

MONDAY'S SHOW WILL START AT 8 P.M.—ONLY ONE SHOW.

COMING:-"NORTH OF 36"-Greater than The Covered

Wonder Show at The Nickel Theatre

"WITHOUT MERCY" UNUSUAL

"Without Mercy," the George Melford Production presented by Metro politan Pictures, Inc., which opened vesterday at the Nickel Theatre, is most rank of screen directors.

Each succeeding Melford produc tion brings with it something of the Labouring men and other out- unusual, often bordering on the senworkers should have their sational, which makes it remembered "Without Mercy" is a fast moving narrative and one which, in the hands of an ordinary director could easily be carried along too quickly or let drag. This director is quite evidently the master of his audiences. He knows just where to add and just where to detract, to bring out the fine dramatic points of his story and instill into his characters the minute touches that

> The story deals with two men in love with the same girl. One of the fast and furious struggle by the two kidnapping episode in which the real the trenches in November, 1918, and merely to review his troops or dis-

ositively None Better

DEATH."

Munich, Nov. 10.—That former Em-that time that His Majesty should be fell, I said, it would constitute a Thistle's store. A man named Dawe, peror William should have gone into leave immediately for the front, not beautiful death; if he were wounded, on remand at the Penitentiary, is

Sweeten the Stomach

MIGHT HAVE HAD A "BEAUTIFUL of the world war succeeded General should go into the trenches like any Ludendorff as quartermaster-general.

thus saved the monarchy, is the opin- tribute iron crosses, but to fight," said Groener, who during the closing days dash for death, but His Majesty common soldier, leaving it to chance store, one of the pairs of boots that "I told the emperor's adjutants at whether a bullet should find him. If national sentiment would have reverted in his favor." General Groener added that his advice was not heeded. He further said that Ludendorff told him on September 25, 1918, that peace must be made by Christmas of that year as the German army could not possibly hold out

Stafford's Prescription A for indigestion.—nov18.11

Stolen Boots Found

Yesterday afternoon Constable G. Parrott found, behind Garland's bookwere stolen last week from Mr. John charged with the robbery.

RICHARD HUDNUT THREE FLOWERS PACE POWDER

CONFEDERATION LIFE.

THE SAME CONDITION EXISTS IN NEW YORK AND OTHER CITIES. MUTT AND JERF-PARDON, MONSIEUR GENDARME, I WANT THIS TRIP TO I'LL ASK THIS YOU RUNT, HOW DO YOU EXPECT TO SEE THE SIGHTS OF PARIS IF YOU STAY IN BED UNTIL NOON! TOMB OF NAP! NAP WAS BUT WILL YOU PLEASE GENDARMS TO DIRECT US! IT PARIS TO BE AN EDUCATION FRANCE'S GREATEST GEN DIRECT US TO TO YOU SO WHEN YOU AND AT ONE TIME HAD NAPOLEON'S RETURN HOME YOU CAN ALL OF GUROPE HANGING FAR FROM TALK INTELLIGENTLY ABOUT IT TO RESPECTABLE TOMB? HERE! ON THE ROPES! PEOPLE! HURRY STRANGERS AND DRESS! PARIS BY NIGHT!

that I

s I have

Street.

eaten in

ping for

etor VER ST.

ding