

COMPERS CASE WILL BE BEFORE COURT IN OCTOBER

Chief Justice Grants Appeal in Celebrated Labor Case Long Before the Courts

Washington, June 19.—Chief Justice White today granted an appeal to the Supreme Court for Samuel Compers, John Frank Morrison, labor leader, against the company, the court set aside the judgment of the district court and remanded the case to the district court for a new trial. The case was heard in the district court in October, 1912, and the judgment was rendered in January, 1913. The case was one of the most important in the history of the labor movement in the United States. It involved the rights of labor to organize and bargain collectively. The Supreme Court's decision was a landmark one, as it established the principle that labor has the right to organize and bargain collectively. This decision was a major victory for the labor movement and it paved the way for the development of labor unions in the United States.
