

WINDSOR NOTES

Windsor was pleased to have as its guest for a few days, Miss Wittie Anna Biggins, of Indianapolis, Ind. Miss Biggins is one of the prominent educators of the U.S., being founder and president of the W. A. Biggins Commercial College, of Nashville, Tenn. Though she is of Indiana, her chosen work has taken her into the south-land, teaching children of our race in schools as far south as Alabama. Her experiences in the many places where she has been, have been many and varied, some amusing, many otherwise. She finally founded the W. A. Biggins Commercial College, in Nashville, where the young women of the race, who will take advantage of the opportunity, are being prepared to take their places in the business and commercial world of the future. Miss Biggins is only 27 years of age and is very enthusiastic and optimistic as to the future of the race. During the summer vacation periods, Miss Biggins makes extensive lecturing tours in the interests of the young women of the race. While here she made addresses to audiences in the A.M.E., B.M.E., and Baptist Churches respectively. Her students in the Commercial College are publishing a quarterly magazine which is up to the minute in all respects.

Rev. Sol. Lucas and wife and Mrs. Carrol, of Cleveland, paid a week end visit to Windsor and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Providence. Rev. Lucas is an old Windsor boy, and we enjoyed his visit very much. On Sunday morning he preached in Tanner A.M.E. Church, taking for his text Pilate's words from St. John 19:22 "What I have written I have written." His sermon was divided under three headings, "Conscience," "Record," "God." He pointed out that conscience was the voice of God, that its office was threefold, to instruct, to command and to judge, that we are making our own records along life's way and that in the final analysis we cannot escape a just God, but must answer to Him for all deeds done in the flesh.

At 2 p.m. Sunday Rev. Dr. Jones and his choir journeyed to Amherstburg to assist Rev. J. D. Johnson, pastor there, in the big camp meeting he is holding. Dr. Jones was the speaker at 3 p.m. and as usual delivered a powerful discourse. His text was from Genesis 26:18 "And Isaac digged again the wells of water which they had digged in the days of Abraham his father, etc." After a short description concerning the digging of these wells, the Dr. brought the sermon directly home to his hearers, telling them of the wells of refreshing waters dug up by the fathers and mothers in the past and which the Philistines of modern progress had stopped up, and advising them to dig again the wells of class meeting, prayer meeting, church going and heart cleansing that the church may rise in the greatness and glory of God and bring men and women into the fold of Christ. We heard many comments from both white and colored and feel that the sermon found its mark in the mind, thoughts and hearts of many of his hearers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Providence entertained, last Tuesday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bess and daughter of Cincinnati, Ohio who have been spending a few days as their guests. Mr. and Mrs. Bess returned to Cincinnati on Wednesday.
