Forest last night.

—Two boys driving a confectioner's horse and wagon in London West Tuesday tried to keep pace with the troiley car and collided with a telegraph pole. The harness was broken and the boys thrown over the dashboard. The animal was caught. It is the general opinion in the village that a horse isn't in it with their street cars.

—Harry Nolan, alias Thomas Raymond.

It is the general opinion in the village that a horse isn't in it with their street cars.

—Harry Nolan, alias Thomas Raymond, hailing from the United States, started on a tour of Outario, and the other day landed in Strathroy. The weather getting too cold, he went to the store of Wm. Rapley & Co. and stoie a valuable hat and a pair of pants. He was captured by the police and brought before Magistrate Noble, winegave Nolan two months in jail at hard labor.

—A fine painting of the late Hon. William Hume Blake, at one time a resident of Middlesex and afterwards chancellor of the University of Toronto, by Hamel, has been presented to the university by Hon. Edward Blake, and has been placed in the reading-room of the university library, greatly improving the appearance.

—Mr. Albert W. Kirk, of Red Bluff, Cal., and Miss Mary R. Bryant, fourth daughter of the late Benjamin Bryant, Westminster, were married Tuesday at the bride's residence, 352 Piccadilly street. Rev. Charles Smith officiated. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. B. L. Bryant. Mr. Harry M. Vincent assisted the groom, and Misses Susie and Flossie Bryant acted in a similar capacity for the bride. The happy couple left to-day for their future home in California.

There were $6 members present at the monthly meeting of the W. C. T. U. Tuesday afternoon. The devotional exercises were conducted by the president, Mrs. Thornley. One new member was received and one nominated. A grant of $15 was made to the Industrial School, and also the same amount to the Band of Hope, to assist in carrying on the work in these different departments. After much business was disposed of Mrs. Carson gave a most interesting account of the late Provincial convention held in Chatham. Mrs. W. E. Saunders followed with an instructive paper on narcotics, giving many startling facts in regard to the tobacco habit. Meeting adjourned with prayer.

'In respect of the use of the name Johnson's as a "brand for paints the injunction is maintained, and The "Canada Paint Company invested in the sol right to the "use of this name as a brand and trade mark."

DETECTIVE ALLEN'S DEATH.

Resumption of the Inquest at Simcoe-No New Light on the Tragedy.

Tuesday, Nov. 21, at Sutherland's Corners.

Wednesday, Nov. 22, at Owsley's school-house.

Thursday, Nov. 23, at Inwood.
Friday, Nov. 24, at McCready's, Neglected Children.

A letter appears in the Free Press from the Rev. Edward Softly, from which it would appear the writer doce not think the meeting for the organization of the above society was sufficiently well attended, or sufficiently broad, and that the mayor should call a larger meeting. First, the meeting was well advertised. Second, the composition of the proposed board of management can easily be made to include full management can easily be made to inc the Long Point company, were called. No new light on the tragedy resulted from their examination. An adjournment was taken at 6:30 until 8 p.m. Two or three witnesses still remain to be examined, and it is doubtful if a verdict is arrived at to-night.

The high position attained and the universal acceptance and approval of the pleas ant liquid fruit remedy Syrup of Figs, as the most excellent laxative known, illustrate the value of the qualities on which its success is based and are abundantly grati-
