LONDON, CANADA SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1900.

WHOLE NO., 16106.

No sweating under the Laurier Government. A special Fair-Wage Officer has been appointed by the present Government to see that men employed on public contracts are not sweated by the contractors.

Mems of the Merry War.

"We are national, they are sectional."-Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

Have you seen anything in the Conservative papers lately about "the man who keeps his word"? Hugh John fizzled out pretty suddenly.

67 per cent increase of employment in 17 establishments in London since Laurier came in. Business men, what think you, is it not wise to let well enough alone? Is it prudent to risk

For this outsider, Mr. Lowles, to come to Canada to rail at Mr. Tarte, is sheer impertinence. Capadians can manage their own political contests. Tarte is worth a hundred Lowleses. The Hamilton Times well says: "This anti-Tarte cry is for a purpose. Tarte was a favorite with the Conse vative party; while he was in high favor he discovered a scheme to rob the public treasury, and exposed it, bringing two of the big Conservatives to justice and to jail. That's the why of the Conserwative persecution."

It does not pay London to be in opposition to the Government. Four years of Liberal rule have greatly improved our industrial prosperity. Push the good thing along.

If the Liberal party and good times go together, it's a safe side to be on.

Mr. Beartie's election the hope of more wages or steadier employment?

Can the Major justify the gerrymander act, or square it with his expressed views on purity of elections, or even

Our partially esteemed contemporary the Free Press raises the cry that a hint has been given Conservative civil servants "to hold aloof." Our contemporary probably is not in earnest. It is possibly only engaged in formulating in advance plausible reasons for impending defeat.

The returns of the births, deaths and marriages in Ontario for the first six months of the year showed that the total increase in births for six months was 496, while marriages increased 669. Deaths decreased 856. More births, more marriages, and fewer deaths under the Laurier Administration.

The workmen of Ottawa held a meeting last night and passed resolutions commending the Government's labor legislation, and indorsing the Laberal candidates in the city.

Still Growing.

Canada's trade for the three months ending September 30, 1900, shows an increase of $9,585,632 over the same period In 1899, and an increase of $43,432,440, over the same period in 1896.

The Steinway Piano is generally recognized as being a creation apart from all others-a piano so superfor to every other piano as to be beyond the range of classification. It is distinctly an art ideal in the musical world. Pianos of other makers taken as part payment.
