STOCK MARKETS. New York, Nov. 11-Noon.-Weakness in Pennsylvania and its allied stocks is the feature of the forenoon session of the stock market. The rest of the market was irregular, fairly strong in spots and somewhat indifferent to the influence of the weakened railway issues. The Steel stocks were better, although there was some pressure in Steel, preferred for a time. New York Central and Baltimore some pressure in Steel, preferred for a time. New York Central and Baltimore and Ohio suffered with Pennsylvania, and declined early under pressure. There is declined early under pressure. There is no explanation to be had for the weakness in Pennsylvania, except that some prominent stockholders do not approve of Mr. Cassatt's limitless bond issue. of Mr. Cassatt's limitless bond issue. There is a rumor, that ac hange in the executive department of the Pennsylvania is impending. There was some covering in the Steel stocks, and all the rubbish about reorganization and compromise over the Shipbuilding affair was wholly discredited. St. Paul was heavy during the greater part of the morning during the greater part of the morning session, and there is a wild story to the effect that that stock will be he next to be attacked. The Manhattan stock-holders meet at noon, and the annual report will be published today. The market is showing a somewhat better tone, and in the city is very marked. I never could see much cause for alarm, but whatever might have existed a short time ago, there is no cause now." Placards on houses are steadily coming down, there being only about eight or ten places bearing placards today, and in Victoria Hospital there are but fifteen cases of diphtheria today, and seventeen of scarlet fever.
