IN LAKE NIPISSING

Skated Too Far Out.

[Canadian Press.] drowning tragedy occurred in North Bay last night when Ralph Smith, a dispatcher the T., and N. O. Railway, and Miss White a school teacher from Feronia, lost their lives by drowning in Lake Nipissing. The accident happened about 9 o'clock, when the unfortunate young people, along with a great many others, were skating on the lake. They ventured out too far and the ice gave way. Their calls for help were immediately responded to distance a minute or two elaps fore they were on the scene, and by
