The Cuckoo in the Nest.

By Mrs. Oliphant "I wish you good-day, Mrs. Piercey the Colonel said. He jumped into the thrown by Patty's last words would be possible. He heard the loud, vacant laug of Gervase, and a cry of "Hi Hailo! When are you off to?" sounding after him, bu took no notice. He was a man of con siderable temper, as has not been concealed, and there could be no doubt that it the centre of his shield. faction to take Patty by the arms and shake garet's mind vaguely, and without any her, had that been a possible way of ex- pressure of an immediate emergency, mar; was so such the cause of his indignation she could not remain at Greyshott for-as he believed. The causes were complicat-ever; that the time must come when she seeks it-for all women feel this question had been accustomed to believe (as I con-of age to be fantastically important.) fess I had) that there was a great deal of

Gerald Piercey had reached the Greyshott pleasure spending for two young people station, and flung himself and his bags in seven hundred a year. On the other

COME AGAIN arked the storekeeper to the 'ad as she was departing. The best way to get customers to come again is to give them go d goods. In the matter of tea, you can buy nothing the equal of MONSOON—IN LEAD FACKAGES first, he said to himself, at the insult to lations as to the future for Osy and for as in follows and the cause of its and the cause of double sting. It had never occurred to Colonel Piercey, though he was forty, to think of himself as on an elderly level, or to imagine any connection of his name with that of any woman who was not young and those but under their wing. There would you would miss Greyshott and the nice fair, and in the first chapter of Life. I be that, whatever it was, to make everyhave always been of opinion that men and thing more possible. She had not calculatwomen about the same age, when that ed on it, and yet she had felt assured that age has passed the boundaries of youth, some such thing would be. But now all called it. But no doubt it was true. She are each other's natural enemies rather those prospects had come to an end in a was not very apt at ringing of bells, nor than friends. They have fully learned that moment. Lady Piercey had left no will did she require much personal servicethey are on opposite sides. There is a at all, and Sir Giles was no longer a free still it would not be without a regret, natural hostility between them. If some agent, or would not be so any longer. The sense of the difference-but that was o chance has not made them friends, and in- prospect was cut off before her eyes, all owned to forget or pardon the difference of that shadowy margin gone, nothing left their sides, they are instinctively in oppo- but the bare certainty. Two hundred a To be continued. sition. To marry each other is the last year! There are very different ways of NOTHING BUT CREAM thing that would occur to them. Of course, looking at two hundred pounds a year I am considering natural tendencies only, It is not very long since the papers wer and not those of the fortune-hunter of full of letters demonstrating the impoeither sex, or persons in quest of an estab-sibility of supporting life with honesty and ishment. The man of forty seeks a young gentility on seven hundred a year. The bride; the woman of that age, or near it, calculations looked so very convincing, that finds devotion in a young man. (I don't say one rubbed one's bewildered eyes if one of the Pierceys, had caught him full in man who made the other ca'culations. Who these two statements? I can only say that see the circus. Margaret Osborne's conclusion was, not to The parade was a magnificent one. A waste her time in efforts to get work which pile of wealth was represented in it she probably could not do well, and which The pageant was one worth going miles would be quite inappropriate to her, but to see. Costly wagon after to try what could be done upon her two sleek and beautiful horses. All were hundred pounds a year. Ah! how many, a subject of special admiration. The many millions of people would be thank horses were as fine a lot as have been > beil." Margaret had laughed at this cou-corner of Dundas and Richmond ception of life, and laughed now as she re- streets, where the people boarded the try every day, with sugar and flavoring are the only ingredients of our lee Cream. But they make it the best in London. Delivered anywhere crowd of onlookers, and this, possibly, had the effect of deterring many from riding on them.

GEORGE PETERS. CONFECTIONEF.

and wraps into a carriage before he had hand. I have just read a novel, and a begun to get over the sting of the sugges- very clever novel, in which it is considered Jas. Griffin, of Otterville, who was tion that he had been philandering quite justifiable for a young man to many recently tried for having in his posses (Heavens, what a word!), and that not and take upon him the charge of his wife's sion an illicit still, came before Magisa hundred and sety trate Field at Woodstock Wednesday

THE CIRCUS.

Forepaugh & Sells

the Best Ever Seen Here-Immense

early yesterday it came, bringing department that there is no actual rule to get the new organization to Go Forepaugh and Sells Bros.' united that these troops will be necessary show, when they made their first ap- service except to relieve those pearance by way of a street parade, have been on active duty. The transfound thousands of citizens and their port service is said to be sufficien families and thousands more of the though ships may be chartered tent folk from the countryside awaiting porarily, if needed. The announcement them. The streets wherever it was sus- that a portion of the provisional arm pected the circus might pass were was to be raised has caused a swarm He Gives His Views on Wealth and Exhibits His trusteeship, and I hope in the future thronged and in many places jammed of applications to be sent to the war with old people and young people and department by those who are seeking shall decide upon the fact that hes between bent upon the one object, and that to on parade. The steam whistle as usual brought There was an immense crowd at the afternoon performance, the seating ca- Buffalo, N. Y. pacity at the big show being taxed to cars and 'busses for the circus, was A Wrong One Causes Interruption of a Chicago exceedingly lively between 12 and 2.30. The Railway Company had a dozen or more open cars running to and from the circus grounds, and they carried sense of the difference—but that was 61 a fair number of passengers. The too little real importance to be thought of union men, however, brought into service nearly every 'bus they could secure, and these were hardly sufficient to carry the crowd. Drays and other such vehicles were also utilized, and taken altogether the strikers got the biggest share of the traffic. The street cars were occasionally jeered by the

FOR THE PHILIPPINES.

Ealistment of United States Volunteers for Service will be P.oceeded With.

Washington, June 29.-The first volunteers to be raised for service in th the provisional army are sent to Man ila, but meanwhile they will be drilled and taught marksmanship in camp. It is estimated that three months are required to make soldiers of new re ruits. The officers of the war department think that a number of volunteers now coming home will desire ervice after they have had an oppo tunity to see home and friends. These men are regarded as the most desir able for the regiments being organize The circus is in town. Early, very by Gen. Otis. It is learned at the wa by to many young hearts and recol- Otis at the present time. The rain ctions to older ones. And the great season having set in, it is not believ

N.Y. CENTRAL & HUDSON RIVER RR

Select Excursion to Atlantic City, Cape May, Ocean City, or Sea Isle City, Thursday, July

On above date the New York Central agents for tickets and all information, with our people. or address H. Parry, General Agent, WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Murder Trial. prossed the indictment. The jury had porsessed an estate. been sworn in and the defence asked of the prisoner on the of his people upon it. This is the upon his left broad the ball enground that Becker had been placed in best title deed to the land and the jeopardy, and therefore he could not best key to the castle. I think we have Lumbago Cured in Hamilton.

Bottled at and imported from the Apollinaris Spring, Rhenish Prussia, charged only with its own natural gas.

Annual Sales: 23,000,000 Bottles.

Anglo-Saxon or "United" Flag.

From Land and Water. Mr. Carnegie arrived at Skibo on Wednesday, when he got an enthusi-Mr. Carnegie arrived at Skibo in connection with the Pennsylvania follows another to-day, each so touchfor Mrs. Carnegie and myself that Philadelphia, on arrival in that city. names, but when his mother went to now this shall be seen everywhere through sleeper to Philadelphia will leave Buffalo at 5.15 p. m., July 6th. Call on New York Central ticket We think we shall have no difficulty given us a present more to our liking.

on an estate without tenants, feuars, our hearts. This flag, which unites crofters, and farmers we should elect the American and the Briton, shall to be surrounded by our fellows. I also be the symbol of the happy union have been thinking as I drove along between the tenants and proprietors the magnificent avenue of nine miles of Skibo. what the possession of property meant; what did it amount to? I knew this was all reputed to be mine. Happy is Chicago, June 29.—The trial of August the man who has a croft which he Becker, charged with having murdered can truly realize is his own. For it is and dismembered and boiled the re- impossible for me, and I think for any mains of his wife in order to leave him man, to realize any sense of proprieree to marry Ida Sutterlin, a 17-year- torship over miles and miles of land; old girl, with whom he had become but when I saw the flags out, when I day, when it was found that the in- home, when I saw this gathering of the checking Parking Pa dictment named Mrs. Becker as Eliza- the tenants of all these estates greetbeth, when it should have been ing us at the gate, I began to realize Therese. The court at once nolle how a man could indeed feel that he ped in the hall. He expired 15 min-be tried again. The court denied the given you, men and women of Skibo. request, however, and a warrant was some evidence that we mean to stay issued and Becker rearrested. A new here from the amount of new work we indictment will at once be drawn up. are doing. So that you must make up dent happened here this afternoon to your minds that you are not going to Morton Robson, son of James Robson, get rid of us, I trust, for generations, reeve of North Dumfries. The lad Mr. Ed. Swan, merchant, 53 Merrick will be long before either people or colt bolted and ran away. Robson

MR. CARNEGIE AT SKIBO CASTLE. lieve that there is no better use of wealth than improving the small part of God's earth which falls under our to show that we realize this, and that I may never lose what reputation I may have earned of being a man of good sense, but retain it by helping those who help themselves, by only Taking up his little daughter in his astic reception. His speech on the occasion is quite characteristic of the man, and will do good to all our new many in proprietors, and they are now many in large numbers to welcome her.

the Highlands.
Mr. Carnegie said:—"One incident shall soon come to know each other better." he said, "and I wish to say "If to-day we had our choice to live who suggested it knew how to reach

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

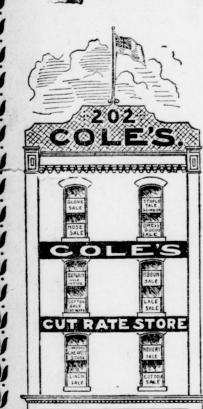

Muskegon, Mich., June 29.-Mayor James Balbirnie was assassinated ad noon to-day by J. W. Tayer, a disappointed office-seeker. Tayer shot Mayor Balbirnie while the latter was the shooting Balbirnie turned and ran upstairs to his living rooms, and droputes later. Tayer swallowed some carbolic acid and then turned the revolver

INJURED IN A RUNAWAY.

Ayr. Ont., June 29 .- A serious acci-

RETIRING FROM BUSINE

Cole, the Great Bargain Man, is Retiring from Business. Text

OUR DOORS WILL BE CLOSED SOON!

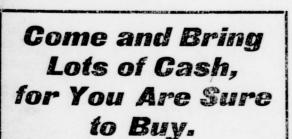

This large stock of merchandise, consisting of desirable and seasonable Dry Goods, Notions, etc., must be turned into cash within 10 days. Buy now and get bargains. Prices cut below cost in many cases.

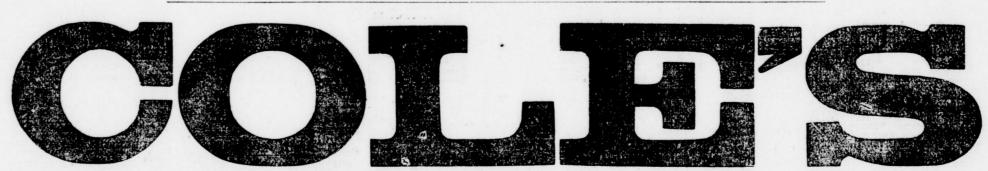

Bargains! Bargains! Bargains!

This is a guaranteed Clearing Out Sale. You will do well to call and see the goods and the low prices marked to clear this stock out in the next 10 days.

OUR ENTIRE STOCK MUST GO

The prices will be daily reduced to clear out the goods. This is the chance of a life time. New goods---no old stock---at your own prices for 10 days only.

For Snaps in Dry Goods for the Next Ten Days.

STORE TO RENT. COME WITH THE CROWDS FOR THE NEXT TEN DAYS. BUY YOUR DRY GOODS NOW AND SAVE MONEY.

DON'T FORGET THE PLACE, 202 DUNDAS

