MASS MEETING OF WEST-ESDERS

LAST NIGHT.

St. Andrew's Hall Fairly Well Filled—The Claims of Workingmen to Representation in the Legislature.

St. Andrew's hall was over half full last night in response to the call for a meeting of electors of West Toronto in favor Mr. J. W. Carter, the nominee of the Trades and Labor council for the local legislature. It was $3.30 before Mr. Thomas Moor took the chair, ar A about an hour afterwards when Mr. C Aber entered the room he was received with his (Carter's) nomination that they were going to bunch together and vote for him. [Cheers.] The labor party had a vested right to expect it. When the late Judge Moss ran against Mr. E. O. Bickford the speaker was one of a deputation who had waited on these gentlemen, and Mr. Moss admitted the justice of labor representatives in parliament, and it has been recognized ever since. Wm. Hawthorns, of the harness makers' union, the first speaker, had been a rank story all his life and he saw men around him who had been grits all their lives, but now they were standing on a common platform as workingmen. They should bury the natchet, sink all prejudices, and join together for once and elect the workingmen's candidate. The wage-workers had a majority in West Toronto, and now that a good opportunity to elect a man from their broad that all honest and fair-thinking men could stand on it. [Cheers.] The candidate of labor came before them with no pledges. His past record was his pledge. Where did we find him? Not with his white palms and his pockets full of the cash that should go to the workingmen. The workingmen had elected the puppets of the political parties and had done their bidding long enough. [Cheers.] It had been said that we were well enough represented in parliament at present, and that we had enough of concessions, too. But it should

But it should be recollected that these concessions were fought for inch-by-inch, and Mr. Carter was to be found to the front in the fight. The conspiracy law would have existed on the statute book until this day had it not been for their own exertions. [Cheers]

Mr. Alf. Jury had always held that labor should be directly represented in parliament, as should every class of the community. When such was not the case, we had class legislation. Amongt the whole eighty-

The question of the franchise was the most important one of all to working men. They did not want any nore tinkering with it, nor did they want any fancy franchise. Canada is at the enjoyment of peace and presperity, and all her industrice agricultural, manufacturing, and commercial, are in a healthy and improving condition.

Following the example of my distinguished predecessor, I paid a visit of some length to British Columbia last season. The great natural resources of that province promise that as soon as the Pacific railway is completed an impulse to its prosperity commensurate with the progress made elsewhere will be assured. Meanwhile the disposal of the lands set aside in aid of the railway to actual settlers will add to the importance and wealth of the province.

While passing through the United States, I was rejoiced to observe many evidences of regard for the empire of which this country forms so large a portion. May this friendship, which is so fully returned by us, be as enduring as it is natural and advantageous to the mutual interests of both great sations.

Among other measures, bills will be presented to you respecting the civil service, the acts relating to the examination of masters and mates of vessels navigating our inland waters.

I am glad to be able to inform you that the progress of the Canada Pacific railway has been quite unprecedented. Traffic can now be carried on the main line from Thunder bay to within fifty miles of the crossing of the South Saskatchewan, a distance of over one thousand miles. It is confidently expected that the Roy mountains will be reached during the present year, and that within the same period substantial progress will be made on the Lake Superior section of the railway, and the track laid upon a large portion of the railway, and the track laid upon a large portion of the railway and the track laid upon a large portion of the railway, and the track laid upon a large portion of the railway and the track laid upon a large portion of the railway, and the track laid upon a large portion of the railway and the track laid upon a large portion of the railway and the rack laid upon a large portion of the road now under contract in British Columbia.

An Improvement in the Number of Failures ever the Preceding Week.

NEW YORK, Feb. 9.—The commercial situation in the United States, reported by Kaster telegraph to Bradstreet's agency, gives evitelegraph to Bradstreet's agency, gives evidence of an improvement throughout the week. At important business centres the rates of interest have been tending downwards, which suggests increased activity. The iron market is quiet, pig lower and tank firmer. Steel rails are lower. Petroleum is higher and firm, owing to decreased production in Forest County. The industrial situation is not improved.

There were 256 failures in the United States reported to Bradstreet last week, twenty less than in the preceding week, and ninety-seven more than in the corresponding week last year; 406 more than in the corresponding week last year; 406 more than in the same week of 1881. Canada had 34 failures, a decrease of 12 on the preceding Wiggins is reported as saying that the gale blowing here to-day from the west was the reflection of his storm from the Rocky Mountains. The storm must consequently have crossed this meridian west over the gulf of Mexico early this morning, and is now on its eastern course via Quebec to the gulf of St. Lawrence. The professor says this storm is one of the most dangerous to shipping of his storm from the Rocky Mountains. The storm must consequently have crossed this meridian west over the gulf of Mexico early this morning, and is now on its eastern course via Quebec to the gulf of St. Lawrence. The professor says this storm is one of the most dangerous to shipping that he has ever predicted, and must already have been disastrous in the North Atlantic.

SIR JOHN'S DEAD-SET.

PROPOSED ADJOURNMENT OF PAR-LIAMENT DURING NOMINA-TION WEEK.

scellaneous Gossip From Ottawa—The Syndicate After the Press Colonization Company's Lands. (Special to The World.) OTTAWA, Feb. 9.—The Ontario elections

omise to break up the session to a considprable extent. Already there is a rumor of an adjournment for the week following the nominations. The rumor cannot be traced, but the government appears to be feeling the opposition on the matter with a view of getting its consent, Sir John wishing to make a dead-set against Mr. Mowat, in this may be, many Untario members on both sides will be irregular in their attendance until the 27th. In fact, some left to night, and others leave to morrow and wen't be seen here for a fortnight. Thus for two weeks the business of the dominion will be sacrificed to fight party battles in one pro-vince, which is not what the members vince, which is not what the members were elected for.

A liberal canous will be held to-morrow, the probable object being to decide upon the policy for the session.

Mr. Beaty will re-introduce his bill to distribute the assets of insolvent debtors with amendment, and thinks it will be carried. Toronto's other representatives will doubtless keep quiet.

The government has given notice to appoint Sir John Macdonald, Sir Leonard Tilley, Sir Charles Tupper, Sir Hector Langevin, Mr. Blake, Mr. Mackenzie and Mr. Laurier to strike the standing committees for the session.

Senator O'Donohoe was sworn in and took his seat this afternoon.
