A Quartz Thief. A rather laughable incident occurred on last Saturday morning on King street east. The Toronto mining bourse has for the last two days displayed at their door a block of quar.z taken from the Keewatin district and which is very rich in sulphurets as well as in gold, and many persons have mistaken the glitter of the former for that of the latter. One of these individuals desiring to become rich too suddenly made a boid dash for the piece of rock, expecting to run away with it and extract the gold, but fortunately, or unfortunately for him, finding it weighed about a dozen times more than he anticpated he suddenly dropped it after carrying it about lifty feet and took to lis heels. He was not pursued but the in-cident caused a good deal of amusement. The block was replaced and is attracting
