An Earthquake Incident.
 A correspondent of the New York Times gives the following incident of the San Francisco earthquake gleaned from a private letter. "A house had fallen and its roof, with the brick chimney, had crashed down into the living-rooms. There in one of the rooms lay an infant in its cradle. But when the bricks and rafters had nearly reached the slumbering babe they struck each other in such a peculiar way that they descended no further, but formed an arch-like roof over the child, beneath which the little one lay unharmed. And there beside the child fell the family Bible; it opened and when it was found it had opened to the twenty-third Psalm."

Stop That Headache!
 Foolish to Suffer When a Simple Remedy Will Prevent and Cure.

Ever stop to think what caused your headaches? Probably not. Then look to the bowels and stomach, and you'll find plenty of cause. Chances are you'll find constipation, liver is sluggish, stomach overburdened with half-digested food.

No wonder you are dull, tired, restless day and night. You need the cleansing influence of Dr. Hamilton's Pills which cure your condition in short order.

Being composed of natural vegetable remedies Dr. Hamilton's Pills possess great power, yet they are harmless. They aid all organs connected with the stomach, liver, and bowels. In consequence food is properly digested, the blood is pure and nourishing, the body is kept strong and resists disease.

Headaches never come to those who use Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and this fact is vouchered for by the Assistant Manager of the Poultry Success Magazine, of Springfield, O. Mr. J. H. Callender, who writes: "No better medicine than Dr. Hamilton's Pills. We use them regularly and know of marvelous cures that resisted everything else. They cleanse the whole system, act as a tonic on the blood, enliven digestion, help the stomach, and make you feel strong and well. For headaches, indigestion, and stomach disorders I am confident that the one prescription is Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

You can rely on Dr. Hamilton's Pills with implicit confidence; their effect is wonderful. Sold by all dealers. Price 25c per box, five boxes for $1.00, or by mail from N. C. Polson & Co., Kingston, Ont., and Hartford, Conn., U. S. A.

Will Be a Great City.
 Seattle has a brighter future than any other port on the Pacific coast. Situated on Puget Sound, it has one of the finest harbors in the world. Its population jumped from 3,500 in 1880 and 42,000 in 1890 to 80,000 in 1900. In the last half a dozen years, however, its growth has been larger absolutely, and proportionately, than it was in the same time in the decade ending with 1900. The present prospect is that Uncle Sam's census takers in 1910 will find more than 200,000 people within Seattle's limits. The character of its population, too, is a credit to the town.—Leslie's Weekly.

THEY DRIVE PIMPLES AWAY.—A face covered with pimples is unsightly. It tells of internal irregularities which should long since have been corrected. The liver and the kidneys are not performing their functions in the healthy way that they should, and these pimples are to let you know that the blood poisons. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will drive them all away, and will leave the skin clear and clean. Try them, and there will be another witness to their excellence.

Eat Fish Instead of Rats.
 Chatham Island, off the coast of Ecuador, South America, abounds in cats, every one of which is black. These animals live in the crevices of the lava formations near the coast, and subsist by catching fish and crabs, instead of rats and mice.—New York News.

We like best to call SCOTT'S EMULSION a food because it stands so emphatically for perfect nutrition. And yet in the matter of restoring appetite, of giving new strength to the tissues, especially to the nerves, its action is that of a medicine.

SWEET VIOLETS.
 A Little Girl's Love.

The little girl rushed up the rickety stairs into the slumber room she called by the sweet name of "home."
 "Oh, mamma, she shrieked, delighted. "Look! See what a kind lady gave me!"
 The poor sick woman raised herself up from the pallet of straw and rags, in the corner of the desolate room. She caught sight of the beauty, and inhaled the aroma of the fragrant violets the little one held caressingly in her hands.

"I am going to sell them," said the child and buy my mother something to eat, for you are so hungry, mother," and she kissed the pain-lined face, and sped the hasty feet down the shabby stairway. Out in the piercing wind, at the corner of street, bare feet and ragged, thinking not of the cold and hunger she was suffering, she stood, timidly offering her little cluster of flowers for sale.

"Well, little one, why do you not go home?" asked a kind voice.
 "Oh, sir, I want to sell these pretty flowers and buy my mother something to eat. She is sick and so hungry."
 "How much do you want?" the stranger inquired.

"Ten cents, please, sir."
 "Here, child, run home."
 She needed no further telling, but bounded off to tell her mother. Up the narrow steps her frost-pinched feet sprang and in to her mother's presence.

"Oh, mother, I've sold them! what shall I buy you with my ten cents?"
 "What d'ye say?" growled the gruff voice of a man, who staggered from a dark corner of the room.
 "Give me that money."

"Oh, no, papa. Mother is so sick and hungry," sobbed his little daughter, clasping her precious coin tightly in her hands behind her back to protect it.
 With brute force, such as only a drunken man possesses, the man seized the wee, fragile girl and flung her from him across the room, and with the bit of silver in his cruel hand, he stumbled out and down the stairs into the street. He entered a saloon and put his ten cents upon the counter and called for a drink.

But he paused. What was that sound in the street? His mad frenzy was arrested. He paused and listened.
 Through the green baize door came the echo of a song:
 "His blood can make the vilest clean?"
 "Oh, surely! surely! he was the vilest of sinners."

His conscience was awakened and stricken with remorse. He turned from the bar, glittering with his shining glasses, and followed the little band of Army Soldiers to the hall near by, and there he found his knees and cried out to his offended Saviour for pardon for his sins.

Two hours later, with steady steps and ringing voice he opened the door of his hovel home and exclaimed: "Oh, wife, I've saved! Wife, forgive me. I'll—"
 "Hush, hush," whispered a woman who came forward. "Little Maggie is—"
 "Oh," cried the man in an agony of fear. "What have I done?" Seeing the little form lying white and still on the rags in the corner. "My God, have I killed her?"

No, whispered the neighbor. She is not dead, but she is very ill. You struck her head on the corner of that box and the doctor says she will lose the sight of one of her eyes."
 "Oh," groaned the unhappy father. "My poor baby; my kind, self-sacrificing little girl."

Just then the apparently unconscious little figure moved and a thin hand was raised to the bandaged face and head.
 "Papa," the voice was weak and trembling. "Papa, come here. Oh, papa, I am so glad you saved the foundation of my eye. I lose my two eyes if my papa will only love Jesus."

The strong man knelt by the side of his brave, loving little Maggie, and with her pale, thin fingers clasped in his own big hand, he bowed his head and moaned as he realized the depths of the divine love of his Lord and the tender affection of his darling, suffering child.

 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is, Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

LITTLE BELL BIOGRAPHIES
Mozart
 WOLFGANG AMADEUS MOZART, though but 35 years old at his death, left a name second only to Bach's. He was born in 1756 and died in 1791. He was the first "infant prodigy" of the musical world, and his career proves the necessity of having good music in the home for the making of a musician.
 When the merest child, Mozart would always be found at the clavichord picking out sweet little melodies. When four he was placed under a teacher and even then composed short pieces which astonished his parents and instructor. At seven he played so wonderfully that he made a concert tour of Europe. Before he was ten he had written six sonatas, one composition for full orchestra, and an oratorio. At twelve he wielded the conductor's baton. Of his many compositions the most popular are his opera, "The Magic Flute," and his "Requiem;" the latter sung by some friends and himself as his eyes closed in death.
 As a pianist Mozart was the originator of the concert tour, and as great in his day as Paderewski in ours. But, like Bach, he was handicapped by the instrument he used—the clavichord. How wonderful had been his music if he could only have played upon
The Bell Piano
 With all his powers he could not even imagine the pure beauty of its FULL, RICH, SINGING TONE which makes it the most perfect piano in the world.
