BROOKE

Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Logan and Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Logan attended the wedding of their niece at Thorndale last week.

There will be a meeting of the Brooke Municipal Telephone Company at Alvinston on Thursday next, Jan. 15th, at 2 o'clock.

The East Brooke Farmers Club will hold an entertainment in S. S. Mo. 10, on Friday evening, Jan. 16th. A good program of dialogues, recitations, music, etc., will be presented. Admission 10 and 15 cents. G. G. Bramhill, at Thorndale, will occupy the chair. Everyone invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Parker entertained a number of their friends to an oyster supper on Tuesday evening. A neighbor was present from Laura, Sask., Regina and Crosswell. The evening was spent in recitations, songs and social intercourse and after singing "God Save the King," the company dispersed to their several homes in the early hours of the morning.

There was a good attendance at the East Brooke Farmers Club meeting, on Tuesday evening last. G. G. Bramhill, Lambton's representative of the Department of Agriculture, was present and addressed the meeting, and awarded the prizes. Rich. Seanson was awarded first prize, Geo. Kingston second, and Chester McLellan third for White Cap Yellow Dent. Thos. Anderson was the only one exhibiting Longellow variety, which was a very fine specimen, and was judged worthy of a prize. Don. McDonald was appointed director for the County Corn Growers Association. Any person in the township desiring to exhibit at the show, at Petrolia, on Jan. 28-29, should communicate with him, or with the other director, J. P. McVicar, Inwood.

On Monday evening, Dec. 22nd, the friends and neighbors of Mr. Wm. Taylor for at at the home of Rich. Edgar, 10th line, Brooke, and presented him with a beautiful chair and ring. The following program was given:—Chairman's address, Rich. Brock; speech, James Coke; song, Arthur Bullough; speeches by Wm. Lucas, W. W. Taylor, Ed. McMahon, Alex. Watson, Tom McMahon, Mark Andley, Wm. Johnson, Will Swan, Theo. Johnson, John Hawes, Richard Edgar, Henry Swan; recitation, Maud Coke; dialogue, entitled "Alice's Party"; song, Arthur Bullough. A dainty lunch was then served, after which a most enjoyable evening was brought to a close by singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Following is the address:—

TO MR. Wm. TAYLOR:—Dear friend:—It is with feelings of deep regret that we, your many friends, assembled here tonight have learned of your intentions to depart from our neighborhood. For years it has been our privilege to know your household in general friendship. In the varied walks of life and in the social intercourse you have contributed abundantly towards making life pleasant in the circle in which we have moved. We do not forget that when the laugh was merriest, your happy presence added pleasure to the scene; and when sorrow visited our homes your words of consolation and sympathy made the sorrow lighter.

As one of the pioneers of this settlement, you have by habits of industry and perseverance, built up a comfortable home for yourself, and frequently we have been stimulated to greater efforts by your noble example. We feel in your departure that we are losing a good neighbor, a kind friend and a generous benefactor. And now on the eve of your going we feel it our just duty to present you this chair and ring as souvenirs of your many friends on the tenth, and we beg of you to accept of them as a slight token of our sincerest regards. Our kindest wish for the future is that you may long be spared to wear them, and we hope and pray that kind Providence will direct your steps aright. If you ever see fit in the time to come to again reside among us, we now extend you a hearty welcome.

Signed on behalf of the friends and neighbors:—Walter Swan, Gordon Edgar.

Hartley—Springstead

A very pretty wedding took place on December 25th at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Springstead, 7 concession of Enniskillen, when their eldest daughter, Pearl J., was united in marriage to James A. Hartley, of the 5th con. The bride entered the room accompanied by her father, while the wedding march was played by a sister of the groom. She was charmingly attired in a white satin gown, pearl trimmings, and carried a bouquet of carnations. Rev. N. A. Campbell, of Inwood, officiated.

After the ceremony a dainty wedding dinner was served in the spacious dining room which was prettily decorated in Christmas colors. The gifts were many and costly, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. The groom's gift to the bride was a suit of pearls and to the organist a gold pen-

Baird—Ratchiff

A quiet and pretty wedding took place New Years evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Book, 503 Jarvis St., Toronto, when their sister Estelle Ratchiff was married to Mr. George Russell Baird, of Humboldt, Sask., eldest son of Mr. Henry Baird, of Edmonton, Alta. The house was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and roses. The wedding march was played by the bride's sister Lena, and the Rev. John MacNeil, of Wilmer Road Baptist church, performed the ceremony. The bride looked charming in an ivory chateau gown trimmed with lace, and wore a veil in cap effect with sprays of lily of the valley, and her only ornament was a pendant, the gift of the groom. The bride was attended by her two little nieces Miss Ruth Ratchiff and Miss Helen Baird, as flower girls, and was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Baird, left for Chicago and St. Paul, and will make their home in Humboldt, Sask. The going-away gown was a navy blue tailored suit with black velvet hat trimmed with touches of ermine.

Death of Mr. James Bole, of Regina

After an illness of a few weeks Mr. James Bole, who in the early days of Watford was a prominent business man here, passed away at his home in Regina on Jan. 1st, in his 86th year. Mr. Bole left here for the West in the fall of 1882, and at the time of his death was one of the oldest residents of the Regina district. He leaves three sons and three daughters, namely, J. F. Bole, M.P.P. for Regina; D. W. Bole, Montreal, a former M. P. for Winnipeg; Walter Bole, Toronto; Mrs. Rankin, Winnipeg; Mrs. Jacob Smith and Mrs. John Dawson, of Regina. Before he left Watford he was engaged in the foundry business and manufacture of stoves, being the senior member of the firm of Bole & Stickle. Mr. Bole is well and favorably remembered by the older people of Watford.

Daughters of the Empire

On January 6th Tecumseh Chapter held the regular meeting at Chantry Farm, Kerwood, the home of Mrs. de Gex. There were fifteen members and eight visitors present. The quotations were unusually good, suggestive of the New Year. After general business was disposed with the following programme was well rendered and enjoyed by the ladies. Miss Callahan and Miss de Gex, instrumental duet; Mrs. Woods, a paper on the New Year resolutions; Miss Bier, a solo; Mrs. Fitzgerald, a short sketch on the life of Robbie Burns; Miss de Gex, instrumental; Mrs. de Gex's paper for the day, "Regularity and Punctuality in all things"; Miss Callahan and Miss de Gex, instrumental duet. The Chapter sang the Maple Leaf Forever. The ladies adjourned to the diningroom where a dainty luncheon was served. The decorations were in red, white and sea green. The menu was in keeping with the colorings. After luncheon a very pleasant social evening was spent and an enjoyable sleigh ride to the depot. Next place of meeting, Mrs. Newell's.—Succ.

Garfield Ellerker, son of George Ellerker, of the 10th line, Plympton, is slowly recovering from the effects of the terrible burns he received some time ago. It seems he held a celluloid comb too near a lighted lamp and it took fire, the little fellow carried the blazing comb down stairs and out the back door, sustaining terrible burns on the hand and arm.
