

HAS NO PAIN NOW

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did for Mrs. Baker and Mrs. Kiever.

Vancouver, B.C.—"I am pleased to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done me a lot of good. I can now walk about without the aid of a support and feel real strong again. A nurse advised me to take the Vegetable Compound and it is certainly helping me. It seems like Heaven to be relieved after months of pain."

Mrs. H. W. BAKER, 3874 10th Ave. West, Vancouver, B.C.
Albert Co., N. B.—"I have taken Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine and they have done me a lot of good. Since then I have been able to do my housework and I have a lot of work to do as we live on a farm. Seeing your advertisement in the papers was what made me think of writing to you. I hope this may help some one else."

Mrs. Wm. B. KIEVER, Upper New Horton, Albert Co., N. B.
The reason women write such letters to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. and tell their friends how they are helped is that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has brought health and happiness into their lives. Freed from their illness they want to pass the good news along to other suffering women that they also may be relieved.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Sores Flee Before It.—There are many who have been afflicted with sores and have driven them away with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. All similarly troubled should lose no time in applying this splendid remedy, as there is nothing like it to be had. It is cheap, but its power is in no way expressed by its low price.

A SMILE OR TWO

She—Women are more reliable and conscientious than men.

He—How do you make that out?

She—At any rate, Diogenes didn't think it necessary to go hunting for an honest woman.

"So the young miss is to be married, eh?" said the gardener to the cook.

"Yes; and in illigant style, too. She's goin' to have dhress thray yarruds long, and four pallbearers ter kerry it."

After the barber had shaved him, the minister tendered the usual fifteen cents.

"Never mind," said Amos, "I'll come and hear you preach some time."

"But I have no 15-cent sermons," said the minister.

"Oh, well, I'll come three times," Amos added.

"Who is your family doctor?"

"I can't tell you."

"Why not? Don't you know his name?"

"Yes, Dr. Johnson used to be our family doctor, but nowadays mother goes to an eye specialist; father to a stomach specialist; my sister goes to a throat specialist; my brother is in the care of a lung specialist; and I'm taking treatments from an osteopath."

An Irishman was engaged at stone breaking on the roadside, but not being used to the work did not make much progress. A friend, who chanced to pass by as Pat was vigorously belaboring a large stone, tried to show him the right way. Taking the hammer from him, he broke the stone with ease. "Sure now," said Pat, "and it be easy for ye to break the stone after I have been softening it for the last half-hour."

A group of soldiers were telling stories round the table of a Y. M. C. A. hut. The turn of the colonel came round. "I have at home," he said, "a pet rattlesnake. I saved its life once and it seems to realize it. One night I was awakened by my wife, who had heard a noise down stairs. I gripped my revolver and stole down. I heard a struggle going on in the dining room. Imagine my surprise when, in the dim light from the street, I saw my rattlesnake with his body tightly wound round a burglar and its tail sticking out of the window rattling for a policeman."

"American," said Food Controller Hoover the other day, "can send six extra million tons of food abroad next year, an' still have enough left for home consumption."

"But saying, even scrimping, will be necessary, I feel great sympathy for the young cook whose mistress said:

"Here, Ellen, is a basket of quinces. We'll make preserves of the best pieces, marmalade of the others, and jelly of the cores and peelings."

"Yes, ma'am," said Ellen anxiously. "But you forgot the basket, ma'am. What can we make out of that?"

The climate of India is vigorously, if not quite logically, defended in Bulls and Blunders by a certain Irish colonel.

"Bad climate be hanged!" roared the irate warrior. "There's no better climate in the world; but there are a lot of young fellows who come out to India, and they eat and drink and drink and eat, and they die; and then they write home and say that the climate has killed them. Of course, lots of people die in India. Tell me where they don't and I'll go and end my days there."

Chug-chug! Br-r br-r! Honk! Honk! Gilligillug-gilligillug.

The pedestrian paused at the intersection of two busy cross-streets.

He looked about. A motor car was rushing at him from one direction, a motorcycle from another, and a steam truck was coming from behind and a taxicab speedily approaching.

Zip-rip! Zing-glug!

He looked up, and saw directly above him an airship in rapid descent.

There was but one chance. He was standing upon a manhole cover. Quickly seizing it, he lifted the lid and jumped into the hole just in time to be run over by an underground train.

At a military church service some recruits were listening to the chaplain in church saying, "Let them slay the Germans as Joshua smote the Egyptians," when a recruit whispered to a companion.

"Say, Bill, the old bloke is a bit off; doesn't he know it was Kitchen-er who swiped the Egyptians?"

STORY OF MARY'S LAMB

Incidents Were Founded On Facts Many Years Ago

Mary had a little lamb, Its fleece was white as snow, And everywhere that Mary went The lamb was sure to go.

Probably everyone of the present generation knows the above lines and the entire story of Mary's lamb, but do they recall the fact that the "Mary" of the verses was a real person, well known about Boston, and that the incident about her lamb actually occurred? says the Boston Globe.

The "Mary" of the poem was Miss Mary Sawyer, of Sterling, Mass., who afterward became Mrs. Mary Tyler, of Somerville. At 70 years of age she was a vigorous old lady, with her mind unimpaired. It was during her seventieth year that she one day during a visit to the Old South meeting house was prevailed upon to tell the story of the lamb. Her story was substantially as follows:—

One morning she went out to the barn and found there two little lambs which had been born during the night. One was so weak and puny that her father declared that it would be of no use to try to raise it. Mary's tender heart pitied the tiny creature and she begged her father to let her try to save it. He gave it into her care, promising that if it lived it should be her lamb.

Little Mary took the creature into the house, wrapped it up, laid it in a warm place and fed it carefully with warm milk. All day she watched over it, and by special permission she watched it through the night, too. In the morning her father said that the lamb would live.

It was then, no wonder that the pet lamb loved Mary and wanted to go everywhere with her. The day that it went to school and was turned out it happened that a young man was there who saw the whole thing and wrote out the story in the verses which we all know so well.

The lamb lived and thrived and had lambs of its own; it ran into the pasture with the cattle, till one day a cow with sharp horns, while playing, tossed it into the air, and it fell bleeding at the feet of Mary, who

The Needless Misery That Women Bear

WHEN the household cares and the worries of everyday life have dragged you down, made you unhappy, and there is nothing in life but headache, backache and worry, turn to the right prescription, one gotten up by Doctor Pierce over fifty years ago.

Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., long since found out what is naturally best for women's diseases. He learned it all thru treating thousands of cases. The result of his studies was a medicine called Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. This medicine is made of vegetable growths that nature surely intended for backache, headache, weakening pains, and for many disorders common to women in all ages of life. Sold by druggists in tablet and liquid form. Send Dr. Pierce 10c. for trial package.

chanced to be in the field. With deep grief she watched its little life go out.

From the lamb's fleece a quantity of yarn was spun and Mrs. Tyler brought some of it to Aunt Tabitha's "bee" and sold it at 25 cents for each piece. In this way she secured $60, which she gave to the Old South Church in Boston.

And that is the true story of Mary's Little Lamb, as given in an early issue of one of Boston's oldest newspapers.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
