CURES FOR THE UNCURED.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE
OF SCROFULA OR KING'S EVIL.
Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. H. Allday, 200, High Street, Chesham dated the 2nd of January, 1850.
To Professor HOLLOWAY.
SIR,—My eldest son, when about three years of age, was afflicted with a Glandular swelling in the neck, which after a short time broke out into an Ulcer. An eminent medical man pronounced it as a very bad case of Scro-fulum, and recommended for a considerable time without effect. The disease then for four years was gradually increasing in virulence, when I met you in the press, and after turning over the left knee, and a third under the arm, besides seven others on the left arm with a tumor between the eyes, which was expected to break. During the whole of the time my suffering child received the constant advice of the most celebrated medical Gentlemen at Chesham, besides being for several months at the General Hospital, where one of the surgeons said that he would amputate the left arm, but that the blood was so corrupt, that if that limb were taken off it would be then even impossible to salvage the disease. In this desperate state I determined to give you, Pills and Ointment a trial, and after two months perseverance in their use, the tumor gradually began to disappear, and the discharge from all the ulcers perceptibly decreased, and in three months eight months they were perfectly healed and the boy vigorously restored to the blessings of health, to the astonishment of a large circle of acquaintances, who would testify to the truth of this miraculous cure. Three years have now elapsed, without any recurrence of the malady, and this boy is now as healthy as heat can wish. Under these circumstances I consider that I should be truly grateful were I not to make you acquainted with this wonderful cure effected by your medicines, as every other means had failed.
(Signed) J. H. ALLDAY.
CURE OF ACUTE RHEUMATISM OF FOUR YEARS' STANDING.
Extract of a Letter from Mr. John Pitt, Dudley, 11th Nov. 1850.
To Professor HOLLOWAY.
SIR,—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to thank you for the benefit I have received from your Pills and Ointment, which have completely cured me of the Rheumatism, under which I suffered for the last four years and two of the most painful and in the worst work. I had tried every kind of Medicine that was recommended without receiving any benefit. At last though, I would give your medicines a trial, and purchased from Mr. Holden, Chemist, of this Town, two Boxes of Pills, and two of Ointment, and in three weeks I found them and the blessing of God, I was restored to health and am now as well as well as was ever. I was a private. I am well at own in this parish having been sixty-five years in it, with an exception of ten years I served in the 24th Regiment of Foot.

years have now elapsed, without any recur-
rence of the malady, and this boy is now as
healthy as heat can wish. Under these cir-
with this wonderful cure effected by your
medicines, as every other means had failed.

YEARS' STANDING.
Extract of a Letter from Mr. John Pitt, Dudley, 11th Nov. 1850.
To Professor HOLLOWAY.
SIR,—It is with the greatest pleasure that I write to thank you for the benefit I have
have completely cured me of the Rheumatism,
under which I suffered for the last four years
was recommended without receiving any bene-
fit. At last though, I would give your medicines a trial, and purchased from Mr. Holden, Chemist, of this Town, two Boxes of Pills,
and two of Ointment, and in three weeks
I found them and the blessing of God, I was
own in this parish having been sixty-five years
in the 24th Regiment of Foot.

CURES FOR THE UNCURED.
HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.
Extract of a Letter from Mr. J. H. Allday, 200, High Street, Chesham dated the 2nd of January, 1850.
To Professor HOLLOWAY.
years of age, was afflicted with a Glan-
man pronounced it as a very bad case of Scro-
after turning over the left knee, and a third
left arm with a tumor between the eyes,
the constant advice of the most celebrated
cers perceptibly decreased, and in three
and the boy vigorously restored to the bless-
years have now elapsed, without any recur-
rence of the malady, and this boy is now as
healthy as heat can wish. Under these cir-
