BORN

FRASER—To Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Fraser, of Princesdale, a son, March 15, 1921.

Joys of the Farm Boy

I'd like to be a boy again
 Without a single care,
 With freckles scattered on my face,
 And hayseed in my hair.
 I'd like to rise at four o'clock
 And do a hundred chores,
 And saw the wood and feed the hogs
 And lock the stable doors.
 And herd the hens and watch the bees,
 And take the stock to drink,
 And teach the turkeys how to swim,
 So that they wouldn't sink;
 And milk about a hundred cows,
 And bring the wood to burn,
 And stand out in the sun all day
 And churn—and churn—and churn;
 And wear my brother's cast-off clothes,
 And walk four miles to school,
 And get a licking every day
 For breaking some old rule!
 And then get home again at night
 And do the chores some more,
 And milk the cows and feed the hogs,
 And curry mules galore—
 And then come wearily upstairs
 And see my little bed;
 And hear Dad say: "That worthless boy,
 He isn't worth his bread."
 NO PLACE FOR A NEWSPAPER
 My friend, have you heard of town of Yavu
 On the banks of the river Slow
 Where blooms the Waltawhite flower fair,
 And the some time or other scent the air,
 And the soft Go easys grow?
 It lies in the valley of What's the use,
 In the province of let her slide,
 The old tired feeling is native there—
 It's the home of the listless I don't care
 Where the Put it offs abide.
 The Put it offs smile when asked to pay up,
 And they say: "We'll do it tomorrow,
 And so they delay from day to day,
 Till death slides up and steals them away,
 And the creditors beg, steal or borrow.
 THE PATH THE CALF MADE
 One day through the principal wood
 A calf walked home, as good calves should;
 But made a trail all bent askew,
 A crooked trail, as all calves do.
 And from that day, o'er hill and glade,
 Through those old woods a path was made:
 And many men wound in and out,
 And dodged and turned and bent about
 And uttered words of righteous wrath
 Because 'was such a crooked path.
 The years, pass on in swiftness fleet:
 The road became a village street:
 And this before they were aware
 A city's crowded thoroughfare.
 A hundred thousand men were led
 By one calf near three centuries dead
 They followed still his crooked way,
 And lost one hundred years a day:
 For such a reverence is lent
 To well established precedent.
 WASHED THE IMPORTANT ONE
 "Bobby, did you wash you face before the music teacher came?"
 "Yes'm."
 "And your hands?"
 "Yes'm."
 "And your ears?"
 "Well, ma", said Bobby, judiciously
 "I washed the one that would be next to her."
