Nicholas Minturn, a Study in a Story. By J. G. Holland, author of "Arthur Bonnicastle," "Sevenoaks," etc. 1 vol. 8vo., with full-page illustrations. Cloth, $1.25; Paper, 75 cents.

The elucidation of the pauper and tramp question forms, in fact, a leading theme of the book; for, like Dr. Holland's other stories, this is "a novel with a purpose." A large part of the interest lies in the relations of Nicholas, the hero, to the "dead beats" of a great city and his extraordinary experiments in their reclamation.

But there are one or two love stories involved, and Dr. Holland has given his readers some characters evidently studied from life, and not from books, namely, Mr. Benson, who is the tragic figure on the scene, Mrs. Coates, and Capt. Hanks, that "cut-working and slow saving man."—Belford's.

"In short this is a book which will be equally welcome to the political economist who cares nothing about stories, and the hungriest novel reader who cares nothing about political economy. We can give it no higher praise."—The New Dominion.

Rainsford's Sermons and Bible Readings. Cloth, with fine Cabinet Photograph, 75 cents; Paper Cover, 30 cents.

No modern preacher in Canada has captivated the affections and conquered the hearts of his hearers so completely as Mr. Rainsford. Thousands daily listened to his simple yet eloquent words in St. James' Cathedral, Toronto. They will be pleased to have his Sermons and Bible Readings in a complete form; while the many thousands who only know him by reputation, will be delighted to peruse his discourses. The cabinet photographs are alone worth the price of the book.

Benner's Prophecies of Future Ups and Downs in Prices. What years to make money on pig-iron, hogs, corn, and provisions. By Samuel Benner, (an Ohio Farmer). Cloth, 75 cents; Paper Cover, 50 cents.

Cecil Castlemaine's Gage. By Ouida, author of "Under Two Flags," "Ariadne," etc. Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 75 cents.

"Cecil Castlemaine's Gage" is but one of fourteen short stories brought together in one volume. They are all as crisp as new-formed ice, and sparkling as champagne. . . . Perhaps of all the stories "The General's Match-Making" is the best. It is full of fun, intrigue, blooded horses, coaching scenes on the road, and charming bits of description."—The Toronto Mail.

In a Winter City. By Ouida, author of "Ariadne," "Strathmore," "Under Two Flags," etc. Cloth, $1.00; Paper, 75 cents.

"Keen poetic insight, an intense love of nature, a deep admiration of the beautiful in form and color are the gifts of Ouida."—Morning Post.

"In 'Their Wedding Journey' he displays genius of a high order. The story is well told, the incidents on the way are delicately and neatly sketched, and the plan of the story is clever and piquant. The scene is mainly laid in our own Dominion, and Montreal and Quebec are the centres of interest. Every one will like to read 'Their Wedding Journey,' and Belford Bros. present it in an attractive shape."—St. John's Watchman.

Her new story is well written, the plot is simple, yet perfect, and the manner in which it has been brought out by Messrs. Belford Bros., is equal to the high reputation of the firm."—Ottawa Citizen.

Dyspepsia and its Kindred Diseases. By W. W. Hall, M.D., author of "Health by Good Living," "How to Live Long," "Health at Home," etc. Crown 8vo. Cloth, $1.00.

This is the last work of the late Dr. Hall, and it is admitted, by professional judges, to be a very valuable book. It gives, in concise form, an account of how to cure, prevent and treat oneself, not alone for dyspepsia, but a great many other diseases, which the Doctor claims arises from the same cause as this disease. This work should be in every house in the country.

"This is, by the universal acknowledgement of press and public, the most complete work on the 'Great Lone Land' of British North America, which has ever been published. The present edition has been thoroughly revised and corrected by the author, and a new chapter has been added, which brings down to the latest moment the official and other information bearing upon the vast territory so graphically and fully treated of. The illustrations have all been newly executed. It is a book of rare value."

This is a story whose main events centre around one of the most thrilling and interesting periods of Canadian history. It is written by the editor of the Canadian Illustrated News, and as it passed through the pages of that journal from week to week, attracted a great deal of interest. It is an admirable contribution to our yet nascent Canadian literature.

How to Study. By the Rev. John Schulte, D.D., Ph.D., author of "Roman Catholicism." Cloth, 50 cents.

"As a practical treatise for students, I know of none, of the same compass, more valuable than this. I have carefully read it over, and would cordially recommend it to all students—beginners in our High Schools and Colleges. There is no subject, in regard to which students are so entirely ignorant and often misinformed as that of how best to master particular branches of learning. They have no correct idea of 'how to study,' and hence precious time is wasted, and desultory habits are formed which are never got rid of. As the result, inaccuracy, uncertainty and repetition are characteristic of the student's performance; and truly the 'much' useless 'study' caused by such a system is indeed a 'weariness of the flesh.' Dr. Schulte's treatise is well adapted to correct these bad habits, or to prevent their formation where the student is a beginner. The entire work is eminently practical, but especially chapters vii-ix, and to them I would particularly direct the attention of the young student."—J. George Hodgins, Deputy Minister of Education.
