Henry Dudding

Riby Grove, Great Grimsby, Lincolnshire, England

Has always for inspection, and sale, the largest flock of pure Lincoln Longwool Sheep in the county, including many prize-winners, having taken prizes for many years at the Royal and other shows for both Rams and Ewes, including champion medals at both the Paris Exhibitions, Vienna, Amsterdam, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, and all the leading prizes at the Chicago Exposition; also the first for the best collection of Lincoln fleeces of wool at the Royal Windsor Show and the Lincolnshire Show, which proves the character of this flock. The sheep are famous for their great size and one hundred and twenty-five years' good breeding. At Lincoln Ram Sale, 1896, this flock's consignment not only made the highest individual average of any consignor, but also made an average price exceeding that made by any other breed in England, i.e., $511 per head, the first six making an average of $840. The sheep for sale this year are all sired by noted rams, and are fully equal to their predecessors in every way.

Station: Stallingboro, 3 miles distant, and Great Grimsby 7 miles.
Telegrams: "Dudding, Keelby, England."

S. E. Dean & Sons

Dowsby Hall, Folkington, Lincolnshire, England

Have always for inspection and sale fine specimens from their FLOCK of PURE LINCOLN SHEEP (No. 47 in Lincoln Flock Book), including SHEARLING EWES and RAMS, also RAM and EWE LAMBS. Sheep from this flock have been exported to nearly all parts of the world, where their great substance and large fleeces of beautiful quality wool give the greatest satisfaction to purchasers. Early in 1894, about twenty Rams from this flock were sold by public auction in Buenos Ayres, and realized the highest average ever obtained for Ram Hogs exported from England. The flock is most carefully bred, and none but the very best sires used. Messrs. Dean also send out selections from their flock to purchasers who are unable to come to England to inspect them, and they have given great satisfaction. Messrs. Dean have also for sale purebred Bates SHORTHORNS and pure LINCOLN RED SHORTHORNS.

Dowsby Hall is one mile from Ripplingale Station, on the Great Northern Railway, Bourne and Sleaford Branch.

TELEGRAMS: DEAN, RIPPINGALE.

REGISTERED KENT or ROMNEY MARSH SHEEP

MR. J. H. PARKIN'S Registered Flock No. 31 of the above Sheep is one from which breeders of these most excellent Mutton and Wool Sheep can rely upon obtaining specimens of the highest merit, with grand wool and even fleeces, as well as being true to type and character. The breeding and pedigree of the flock is second to none in England. For the last thirteen years every sire used in the flock was specially selected from that noted flock of Mr. T. Powell, who now has the direct personal management of this flock, from which specimens are always for sale on application to

James Flower

Chilmark, Salisbury, Wilts, England

Registered flock of nearly 1,000 Grand Hampshire Down ewes. Established more than 50 years ago by present owner's father. Prizes won at the Royal, Bath, and West Royal Counties, and other shows, including the Challenge Cup at Salisbury Fair in 1894, 1895, and 1896. Won 51 prizes out of 53 classes, including champion prizes during last three years. Selections always for sale at home and at the Annual Sale, Brestford Fair, August 12th.

J. E. Casswell

Stock Book No. 46

Laughton, Folkington, Lincolnshire, Eng. This well-known flock has been established more than 100 years, and the pedigreed Lincoln long-wooled rams and ewes have been noted throughout the Colonies and South America for their "size, symmetry, and lustrous wool." Ewes from this flock have always passed from father to son, and have never been offered for sale. Mr. J. E. Casswell's grandfather, Mr. G. Casswell, of Laughton, was the first breeder in the county to let his rams by public auction. At Lincoln Ram Fair, 1895, Mr. J. E. Casswell made the highest average for his rams. During the last two years the following amongst other noted sires have been used: Bakewell Cotswold and Baron Ribby, for each of which very high prices have been realised; Laughton Baron, Laughton Major, Laughton Style, Laughton Choice, No. 7; Ashby George, 60 guineas; Laughton Judge, 95 guineas; his son, Laughton Justice Lincoln, 200 guineas; Lincoln, 150 guineas; Welcott, 70 guineas; Lincoln, 70 guineas; and his sire, Laughton Ribby. Shire horses, Shorthorn bulls, and Dorking fowls are also bred. Inspection and correspondence invited. Visitors met by appointment. TELEGRAMS: Casswell, Folkington, England.

James Lawrence

Stall Pitts Farm, Strivensham, Bucks, England
