OBITUARIES.

William B. Clarke, D.D., was born at Biggar, Lanarkshire, Scotland, 27 January, 1805, entered the University of Edinburgh in 1822, and began the study of Divinity in 1823, the first year of Dr. Chalmers as professor there. He was licensed by the Presbytery of Biggar in 1832; was settled at Holy Morton 1835; came out at the Disruption; was called from Half Morton to Max-wellton, a suburb of Dumfries, in 1844; came to Canada in 1853; was settled as pastor of Chalmers Church, Quebec, until his resignation in 1874. In 1880 he was appointed to the chair of Church History in Morrin College, which he filled for some years; in 1889 received the degree of D.D. from the Presbyterian College in Montreal, and on 15 March, 1893, fell asleep in his 89th year.

Mr. John Hunter, for many years an elder of Kitley, died 3 July.

Mr. James Smith, an elder of Quaker Hill, Uxbridge, died 18 May, in his 68th year.

MISCELLANEA.

Dunmore, in Calgary Presbytery, has had continuous service, by the Presbyterian Church only, for about two years, and on the 2nd July a mission hall was formally dedicated. There are good prospects of a successful mission.

At Darling, Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew, a new church was opened, 2nd July, costing about $2,000.

Literary Notices.

THE PRESBYTERIAN AND REFORMED REVIEW for July contains the following articles: The Trial of Servetus; Theological Thought Among French Protestants in 1892; Homiletical Aspects of the Fatherhood of God; Failure of the Papal Assumptions of Boniface VIII; Metrical Theories as to Old Testament Poetry; John Greenleaf Whittier; Baptized for the Dead; How were the Four Gospels Composed? The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America; Some Recent Discussions on Inspiration, by Prof. B. B. Warfield; and over fifty pages of Reviews of Recent Theological Literature. It is an able defender of the conservative theology. Price 80 cents per copy, $3 per year. For. Rev. Association, 237 Dock street, Philadelphia.

THE ENDEAVORERS OF MAPLE GROVE.—Each new phase of social or religious life gives rise to a literature of its own, and the Christian Endeavor movement is no exception. This is a pleasant, profitable, well-written tale, beginning with a number of young people, some of them earnest Christians, some of them careless, and ending with them all actively engaged in various forms of Christian work. The whole book is a good example of what may be done by earnest individual effort. Price $1. A. C. McClung & Co., Chicago, or the author, 1527 N. 20th street, Omaha, Neb.

TIMELY TOPICS, Political, Biblical, Ethical, Practical, by College Presidents and others, is the title of a neat volume of 360 pages published by E. B. Treat, 5 Cooper Union, New York, at $1.50. Articles such as "The Papacy in Politics," by Dr. John Hall; "How can Jesuitism be successfully met," by Principal MacVicar; "The opponents of Christianity," by Sir Wm. Dawson; "The Unity of Genesis, chaps. I and II," by Prof. Wm. Henry Green, "What is Truth," by President Patton, etc., are a guarantee of the excellence of its contents.

ASPECTS OF CHRIST.—Studies of the Model of Life, by Burdett Hart, D.D.; Christ in childhood, the Divine Carpenter, His power and fame, His home and friends, as an Ethical Preacher, Christ the Saviour of men, etc., 22 chapters in all, on various aspects of Christ. E. B. Treat, 51 Cooper Union, New York; $1.25.

THE CALIFORNIAN MAGAZINE comes regularly, breezy and well filled, from the Pacific coast. Cal. Pub. Co. $5.00 per year.
