English Sales Attended.

LONDON SHEEPSKIN SALE.

A sale of sheepskins was held in London, Eng., Oct. 27th. The offerings amounted to 4,400 bales in good condition. There was a fair attendance, but the buying was irregular, about 1,100 bales being left over. The Continent bought sparingly. The home trade took the bulk of the offerings, after it was seen that buyers were indisposed to pay the prices asked. The unsettled wool market has a depressing effect. Merinos were a farthing to three-eighths lower and cross-breds a farthing to 1/2d. lower than last sale.

—There has been a good deal of correspondence in the Belfast papers regarding the alarming decline in the growth of flax in Ireland. Unless measures are taken immediately to prevent it, the culture of flax in that country will soon have disappeared. In 1868 the area under flax in Ireland was 240,000 acres; in 1888 it had fallen to 113,586 acres, in 1898 the area had dwindled to 31,489 acres, of which 31,215 acres are in Ulster. Last year the area was 45,537 acres, so that there is a decrease this year of nearly 25 per cent. upon the acreage of 1897.
