

TOMBSTONES are often erected over persons who would to-day be alive and well if they had put prejudice and poisonous drugs aside and accepted the honest offer we have been making them for years past.

That offer is, that we will send to any one who will get an Electric Medicated Apparatus to suit their case on 30 days trial. If no cure is had we make no charge whatever. Is not this a great offer? We are daily curing severe cases of Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Nervousness, Debility, Diseases of the Liver, Kidneys and Lungs, &c. Illustrated book giving prices and full particulars, and blank for statement of case sent free. Address

QUINSY.

At this season of the year quinsy and various forms of throat complaints prevail. Hagar's Pectoral Balsam is an excellent throat and lung medicine, that cures quinsy, coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung disease.

GRATEFUL-COMFORTING.
EPP'S COCOA!
BREAKFAST.

By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage, which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us, ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.—Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half pound tins by Grocers, labelled thus:

Harper's Magazine!
ILLUSTRATED.

The December Number will begin the Seventy-second Volume of Harper's Magazine, Miss Woolson's novel, "East Angles," and Mr. Howells' "Indian Summer"—holding the foremost place in serial fiction—will run through several numbers, and will be followed by serial stories from R. D. Blackmore and Mrs. D. M. Craik. A new editorial department, discussing topics suggested by the current literature of America and Europe, will be contributed by W. D. Howells, beginning with the January Number. The great literary event of the year will be the publication of a series of papers—taking the shape of a story, and depicting characteristic features of American society as seen at our leading pleasure resorts—written by Charles Dudley Warner, and illustrated by C. S. Reinhart. The Magazine will give especial attention to American subjects, treated by the best American writers, and illustrated by leading American artists.

Harper's Weekly
ILLUSTRATED.

Harper's Weekly has now, for more than two years, maintained its position as the leading illustrated weekly newspaper in America. With a constant increase of literary and artistic resources, it is able to offer for the ensuing year attractions unexcelled in any previous volume, containing two capital illustrated serial stories, one by Mr. Thomas Hardy, and the foremost of living writers of fiction, and the other by Mr. Walter Besant, one of the most rapidly rising English novelists; graphic illustrations of unusual interest to readers in all sections of the country; entertaining short stories, mostly illustrated, by best writers; and important papers by high authority on the chief topics of the day.

Every one who desires a trustworthy political guide, an entertaining and instructive family journal, and free from objectionable features in either letters or illustrations, should subscribe to Harper's Weekly.

DISEASES OF THE SKIN.

Most diseases of the skin arise from blood and lack of cleanliness, excepting those caused by grubs or insects. Erysipelas, salt rheum, tetter, pimples and all humors of the blood are curable by Burdock Blood Bitters, which purifies the blood.

HOARSENESS AND LOSS OF VOICE.

Public speakers and singers are distressed with hoarseness, and much danger is lurking in the bronchial passages. Hagar's Pectoral Balsam is a powerful remedy for the irritation, and cures throat and lung difficulties.
