EXPLANATORY NOTES

Lessons in Primary Elocution

A collection of appropriate recitations for young children not further advanced than the First Reader, and lessons in elocution suited to their capacity.

The selections have been made with great care from the best of similar works, and there is nothing in child-literature published that is better calculated to assist in accomplishing the end sought, viz.: the cultivation of a more perfect elocution and the foundation of a literary taste among the little ones. The lessons in elocution are particularly well adapted for children of the primary classes, and include exercises in breathing, voice development, and distinct articulation.
They are suitable for home practice as well as school, and every child should be thoroughly and systematically trained in them.

Sir Morell Mackenzie in "The Hygiene of the Speaking Voice" says: "As to commencing the education of speaking (which, of course, includes the reading) voice, it can hardly be begun too soon." This book aims to aid the teacher in making this beginning.
